

Married On June 15

MRS. ALBERT E. RUFF

Patricia Cornell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Culp, Sweet Valley, and Albert E. Ruff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ruff, Noxen, were married Saturday, June 15 at 2 p.m. in the Shavertown Methodist Church. Rev. Robert DeWitt Yost performed the double ring ceremony before an altar flanked with tall white tapers and bouquets of white gladioli and carnations. Mrs. Philip Dendler, Vestal, N. Y., aunt of the bridegroom, was organist and Joyce Shalata, classmate of the bride, Noxen, was soloist. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore floor length gown of Chantilly lace styled along princess lines with bateau neckline and long tight sleeves tapered at the wrist. The regal bouffant skirt of Italian silk began at the low waistline and ended in a chapel length train. Her veil of French illusion was draped from a crown of seed pearls and she carried a white Bible marked with a white orchid and stephanitis and baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Janice Bronson of Sweet Valley. She chose full length old fashioned hooped Colonial gown of yellow taffeta and net. Tiny net ruffles completely covered the circular skirt and a huge yellow bow at the back ended with streamers to the hem. She wore a matching picture hat and carried a Colonial bouquet of yellow roses and carnations. Bridesmaids were Phyllis Kocher and Emilie Schenck, classmates of the bride of Noxen. They wore identical gowns in pink and aqua. Miss Kocher carried a Colonial bouquet of pink carnations and Miss Schenck, yellow carnations. Flower girls were Judith Cook, niece of the bridegroom, and Elaine Hoover, cousin of the bride. They wore orchid frocks, white mitts and headbands and carried white baskets of orange blossoms. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Culp selected navy nylon lace dress, matching accessories and shoulder bouquet of white orchids, and Mrs.

I formerly resided in Trucksville, Pa., for a few years and enjoyed the locality and still have many friends in the area.

But, I knew the Back Mountain country well having been Railway Postal clerk on the Bowman's Creek Branch of the L.V.R.R. running to Noxen, Ricketts and Towanda, this, about 1897. I seldom see that area now and presume there are many changes and few of the people of that day left.

My first visit to Dallas was in 1879 when I was with the funeral party and buried my "Buddy" Charles Hockenberry in the old Warden Cemetery, Dallas, near a church.

Best Wishes E. D. CAMP Bloomsburg, Pa.

Lyle Crispell, Beaumont, acted as best man, and Richard Cornell, cousin of the bride of Noxen and Richard Morris, cousin of the bridegroom of Vestal, N. Y., as ushers. Ricky Case, nephew of the bridegroom of Noxen, was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Hotel Sterling and the couple left for Lake Placid and the Adirondacks.

The bride is a graduate of Lake Noxen High School and Wilkes-Barre Business College. Mr. Ruff was also graduated from Lake Noxen High School and is a member of the Senior Class at Drexel Institute of Technology, Electrical Engineering Department.

The couple resides at 3409 Powelton Avenue, Philadelphia.

Mrs. Elizabeth Knell Is 102

Mrs. Elizabeth Diehl Knell, Fernbrook, celebrated her 102nd birthday on Tuesday, receiving many cards and gifts, one of the most treasured the huge bouquet bought by her neighbors. Mrs. Knell's picture, taken two years ago when she passed the century mark, shows her posed against a tree of equal age and strength. Mrs. Knell still mounts the stairs to her bedroom on the second floor several times a day. Her eyesight is not as good as it was, nor her hearing as acute, but she enjoys life, has a good appetite, and takes delight in hearing the news of the neighborhood. Born in a log cabin in Beechwood, N. Y., she moved from her former home in Kingston to the Back Mountain in 1930. Her parents were the late Simon and Catherine Diehl. She now makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Lillian Trudgen on Overbrook Road.

An angry man is Sylvester T. Bly, Who today was sold a piece of "blue sky." He'd stepped in a showroom—out of the rain, Was sold a new car before he could explain! How he hated the styling—so high and square And in new features it was really bare. "I got a real bargain—the buy of my life— But how do I ever convince my own wife?"

Moral: You're paying for a new car... make sure you get one!

When you buy a new car, put your money on tomorrow—not yesterday. Swept-Wing Dodge actually obsoletes other cars in its field. Should you invest in high, boxy styling when Dodge offers the low, low look of tomorrow? Should you invest in outmoded coil springs when Dodge offers new Torsion-Aire Ride? Should you invest in an old-fashioned lever-type transmission when Dodge offers the ease of Push-Button Driving? In other things, too—engines, brakes, interiors—Dodge is years ahead. So put your money on tomorrow. See your Dodge dealer. Join the swing to the Swept-Wing Dodge!
