Area Shocked By Sudden Death Of
David Deater

Heart Attack Fatal To Patient Making Good Recovery

One of the most kindly and best loved men in the area died early last Tuesday morning at Temple Hospital. David Deater, 68, Har-veys Lake merchant, was recovering from a successful operation performed a week before his death, when he succumbed to a sudden heart attack.

He was buried from the Reformation Lutheran Church, Harveys Lake, Friday afternoon. Rev. Louis Rogers officiated. Interment was in Kocher Cemetery.

A store keeper for twenty years in his own establishment, and prior to that, an employee of L. A. Rood and the Harveys Lake Supply Company, Mr. Deater knew his community. Friends say that he never missed an opportunity to perform a kindness. His grandson, Benjamin Badger, now 11, found a warm welcome from Mr. and Mrs. Deater when his mother, Alice Deater Badger, died nine years ago. Ben, Sr., a merchant seaman, spends the greater part of his time as a patient in the Marine Hospital under frequent administrations of oxygen.
Had Dave lived until August 28, he and his wife would have celebrated their 46th wedding anniversary.

He was born at Bear Creek, son of the late Thomas and Henrietta Anthony Deater. The family moved to Harveys Lake shortly after his birth. A foster daughter, Esther Hildreth, a 1957 graduate of Temple University Nursing School, cared for him during his stay at Temple, assisted by two of her classmates.

A devout Christian, he was a member of Reformation Church and its church council.

For some time he served as Lake Township tax collector.

He is survived by his widow, the former Emily Derby of Noxen; children: Mrs. Paul Seban, Henry and Reynold, all of Miami; Elmer, Phoe-nixville; a foster daughter, Miss Hildreth; a foster son, Russell Mack, at home; ten grandchildren and three sisters: Mrs. Thomas Mulcahy, Allentown; Mrs. Lewis Jones, Har-veys Lake, and Mrs. James Greevey, Atlantic City.

Arrangements by Paul Nulton.
