Local Children Loved Ike Brace

Candy Patrons Grew Into Gas Customers

Isaac L. Brace, Shavertown, will be buried this afternoon in New Cemetery, Center Moreland, Rev. Howard Harrison conducting services at 2 from the funeral home at 504 Wyoming Avenue, Wyoming. Generations of high school youngsters who were first his patrons for candy, and later for gas at his Atlantic filling station in central Shavertown, knew him affectionately as Ike. He never failed in patience with them. His daughters-in-law say "He was the finest there was."

For twenty-eight years he operated his station. This summer a grandson, Larry Newhart, is trying to fill the gap, but shortly it will pass from the Brace family, and another chapter of local history will be ended.

Mr. Brace and his wife, the former Grae Patton, celebrated their Golden Wedding July 11, 1956. When she died of a heart attack at the luncheon table October 9, two days after Mr. Brace himself had returned from Nesbitt Hospital, he was so deeply grief stricken that he no longer wished to live. He died nine months to the day from the date of her death. Suffering from recurrent heart trouble, he was admitted to Nesbitt Hospital on Monday, and died the following day.

He served on the official board of Shavertown Methodist Church, and took an active part in the community, serving two terms as Republican Committeeman. He was a past master of Toby Creek Lodge, Trucksville.

He was born in Center Moreland, son of the late Almon and Hattie Denmon Brace.

Three sons survive: Henry, Baldwin, N. Y.; Winfield and Clyde, Shavertown; two daughters: Mrs. Howard Ross, Vestal, N. Y., and Mrs. Lawrence Newhart, Shavertown; a brother Howard, Deland, Fla.; three sisters: Mrs. Stella Dymond, Lockville; Mrs. Ruth Martin and Mrs. Myrtle Welch, both of Shavertown; seven grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

Mr. Smith and Mr. Hadsell agreed that a union district under present conditions could not gain the vote of the electorate in Monroe Township. Mr. Hadsell said that the instant petitions were circulated, counter petitions would follow.

Monroe Millage Has Risen
Mr. Smith pointed out that since jointure with Dallas and Franklin Township two years ago, and with Dallas Area one year ago, millage in Monroe has increased from 21

A. Gould and her husband, Edward M. Gould, has filed her Petition in the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County to No. 1155, July Term, 1957, to change her surname to Gould. Hearing on said Petition will be heard in said Court on Monday, July 22, 1957, at 10 a. m. when and where all persons interested may appear.

THOMAS E. ROBERTS, Attorney.

Walter Kitchen To Lie In State

Will Be Buried Today From Alderson Church

Walter Kitchen, Idetown, will lie in state today in the church for which his parents donated the land. Rev. John Gordon, minister of Alderson Methodist Church, will conduct services at 2 p. m., and burial will follow at Fern Knoll.

Mr. Kitchen, 79, suffered two heart attacks in recent years, and for the past month went steadily down hill. He died Tuesday morning at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital where he was admitted a few days earlier, the second death in the family within twenty-four hours. His niece, Mrs. Mabel Davis, died Monday in Edmeston, N. Y.

A well known contractor, he developed Kitchen Heights at Idetown. He was a member of Alderson Methodist Church and a charter member of Harveys Lake Lions Club.

His parents were the late John C. and Mary Riggs Kitchen of Harveys Lake. His brother, Amos Kitchen, died in 1950.

He is survived by his widow, the former Goldie Crispell of Lake Silk-worth; a stepson, Claude MacDougall, Wilkes-Barre, and six step-grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Harriet Rauch, Harveys Lake.

Arrangements by Stephen Glova.

Mrs. Frantz Sang In Dallas Choir For Years

A former choir member of Dallas Methodist Church died in Cleveland, Ohio, Tuesday morning. Mrs. Ola K. Frantz, 72, wife of John Frantz, will be buried tomorrow afternoon in Warden Cemetery, following private funeral services from the Disque Funeral Home. Friends may call this evening from 7 to 9.

Mrs. Frantz was born in Dallas Township, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hildebrandt, who owned a farm in the township and later built the home now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Joseph on Norton Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frantz also built on Norton Avenue, the home now occupied by Professor Young and his family. The two families operated what is now the Devens Milling Company, under the name Hildebrandt and Frantz.

Mr. and Mrs. Frantz moved from Dallas to Cleveland fifteen years ago.

There is a daughter, Mrs. Victor Eiben, Cleveland.
