Nelson Garingers Are Operating David Deater's Store At Lake

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Garinger are operating the store at Alderson where the late David Deater was proprietor for twenty years, renting the property from Wallace Traver.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Garinger are widely acquainted at the Lake. Many years ago, when butcher wagons trundled around the back roads behind a patient horse, and steak was weighed on open scales hung above the tail-gate, Mr. Garinger was associated with his brother, Herman, in the butcher business, finding business at the Inlet and round about the Lake.

Later, he was employed as a carpenter with George Ruckno, Forty Fort Lumber Company.

Mrs. Garinger is a business woman, employed for a number of years at the Artley Dress Shop and Stapleton's Drug Store.

The couple expects to do some face-lifting on the store, freshening it with new paint. Ice-cream is a big seller, also cold cuts, in addition to staples and variety items. In spite of Mr. Garinger's former experience as a butcher, he does not expect at this time to carry a stock of meats or to go in for the popular delicatessen business.

Hill Climb Starts Today At Eleven

About 100 Leading Drivers Are Expected

Giants' Despair Hill Climb headquarters in Hotel Sterling has announced the first list of entries received for this year's hill climb, scheduled today and Saturday.

Record runs are Saturday, 10 a.m. until 6. Trial runs will take place today at 11 a.m. until 6.

According to T. Newell Wood, hill climb president, the list adds up to a "race between winners." Among the entries are a number of first-place winners in last year's historic hill climb which saw the measured-mile course conquered in less than a minute for the first time in history.

Among entries received is that of J. Robert Bucher, Binghamton, N.Y., who last year roared his Cad-Allard-JR up the hill in the time of 59.867 to take first place in the Class B Modified category. Bucher was second man in history to conquer the hill in a minute or less.

Also coming back this year is John V. Meyer, Great Neck, N. Y., who will push his Meyer Special hard in an attempt to win this year's first place best time of day award.

Add to name drivers that of John Bentley, Long Island, N. Y. who will drive an Alfa Veloce Convertible. Bentley has achieved fame as a sports car driver, magazine editor, and national and international contestant.

The Hill Climb will be operated as both a regional and national event of SCCA by Northeastern Pennsylvania Region SCCA. Meyer Alperin, regional executive, stated indications point to an outstanding event, with much fine iron on hand, and an entry list expected to come close to 90 or 100. Alperin will act as Chief Starter. John E. Dukes, Wilkes-Barre, is Chief Steward. Reg-
