Philharmonic Society Offers Membership For Three Concerts

Wilkes-Barre Philharmonic Society is offering three concerts this season, the first on November 25, the second some time in February, and a lighter concert on the order of the Boston Symphony Pops Concert in April.

Mrs. Houston Day, chairman of the Back Mountain district for the current membership drive, says "This is an opportunity to support a community organization of cultural value. The completely delightful free concert given on United Nations Day, and entered into wholeheartedly by local choral and dance groups, is a sample of what may be expected from the Philharmonic orchestra."

Mrs. Stefan Hellersperk and Mrs. William Conyngham III are co-chairmen of the drive. They explain a plan for family membership at a very reasonable fee, which admits two adults and one child to each of the three performances. There will be two concerts intended primarily for children in addition to the three concerts scheduled.

Ferdinand Liva, who has just finished a highly successful European summer tour, is conductor. John Detroy, head of Wilkes College music department, a resident of Carverton Road, assists Mr. Liva.

For further information on memberships, call Mrs. Day at ORchard 4-7616.
