Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Kane Will Celebrate Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Kane, Electric Street, Scranton, parents of Mrs. L. L. Richardson, Terrace Drive, Dallas, will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary with a family dinner at the Richardson home on Christmas Day.

Mrs. Kane is the former Jennie Keller of Stroudsburg. Mr. Kane is son of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kane of Scranton. The couple was married in Scranton on December 27, 1907 and went to housekeeping there where Mr. Kane was in the music business, teaching violin and conducting orchestras and bands. After an accident in which he injured his hand, Mr. Kane and his wife moved to Forty Fort and he became superintendent for the Atlantic and Pacific Stores. While in the Valley, he was a member of the Wilkes-Barre Symphony Orchestra.

After twenty-five years with the A. and P. Mr. Kane retired and the couple returned to Scranton, where they both take an active part in the Asbury Methodist Church. They are in excellent health.

They have only one child, Grace Richardson and her three children, twins, Bob and Tom, and young Jimmie.

Ann Peterson who is teaching in Germany this winter expects to spend the holidays with friends in Italy.

May this Yuletide find you in good health and good spirits, and leave you with a rich treasure trove of the happiest memories.
