Bowling News

By DORIS MALLIN

Shoulder-high drifts and treacherous roads kept the less adventurous by the homefires Sunday and Monday and the Crown Imperial Bowling Lanes were unusually quiet. However, despite the weather and driving conditions only two leagues, Maturi's Sunday Night Mixed League and Irem Women Golfers, cancelled out.

Showing the same stamina that pulled her through a serious illness recently, Lucille Bittenbender braved the storm Tuesday night and arrived at the bowling lanes on crutches to give a boost to her Trojaneer team of Demnon's League. Her team mates were happy to have her back on the bench.

Jim Traver rolled a game of 247 last week and posted men's weekly high. Ladies' high went to Rose Unger after she bowled a beautiful 217.

So far this week, Bill Allabaugh's 237 and Mary Weale's 216 are posted for high scores.

Howie-Davis Classic

Crown A team met Franconi Auto at Exeter Recreation Center Saturday night and lost 3 points. On an off-night for everyone, Sid Fielding was high man with only 191-518. Charlie Williams also had a single game of 191.

B team played at home against Main Diner and lost all 4 points. Highest scores bowled were W. Hogg's 204 and T. Simons' 202. T. Simons had a total of 543 for three games.

Trucksville A retained third place by taking 3 1/2 points from Orange, while East Dallas took advantage of the Lutheran team 3-1.

A. Vanderhoff, Lehman floor sanding expert, smoothed out the Maples with a high series of 651 (224, 192, 235), setting a record for the season. Bob Moore's high 240 set the pace for his Dallas B team as it took honors for high series and single game with 2615-896.

Sportlight

Dartmouth suffered its first Ivy League defeat Saturday night, when Yale took it over in a well played game. This does not cost the Green the championship. Unless there is a complete reversal of form by all teams, Dartmouth should win.

Temple had a little trouble in the Nation's Capital Saturday night, but finally tore loose in the second half to beat George Washington University, and run its winning streak to seventeen. Temple has some tough games remaining, but should be able to take care of them.

As of now Cincinnati appears to be the hottest team in the country, and should cop the NCAA championship. There are many good
