Miss Nancy Inman Becomes Bride Of Former Local Man

At a very pretty wedding Saturday, February 1, at 1 o'clock, Nancy Inman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Inman, Cedar Street, Shavertown, became the bride of Earl Hummel, son of Mrs. Marian Hummel and the late Albert Hummel of Broomall, Pa., former Shavertown residents.

Rev. Robert DeWitt Yost performed the double ring ceremony before an altar flanked with palms, vases of white carnations and lighted tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore floor length gown of lace and net over white satin, styled with Queen Ann collar, long tight sleeves tapered at the wrist and full bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of iridescents and seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white roses and orchids.

Mrs. Kenneth Inman was her sister-in-law's matron of honor and Nancy Croman and Merlyn Hoeg of Shavertown, bridesmaids. They selected identical ballerina length gowns of blue lace fashioned with round necklines, short sleeves and blue satin Cumberbunds with huge bow sashes. They wore matching fight fitting horse hair hats and carried bouquets of yellow roses.

Mrs. Inman, mother of the bride, chose ice blue satin sheath, white accessories, and shoulder bouquet of yellow roses, and Mrs. Hummel, mother of the bridegroom, navy silk street dress, white accessories and yellow roses.

Best man was Kenneth Inman, brother of the bride, and ushers, James Jeffrey of Wilkes-Barre, and William Harris of Plains.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Castle Inn and the couple left for Florida.

Mrs. Hummel is a graduate of Westmoreland High School. She has been employed by Miners National Bank in Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Hummel was also graduated from Westmoreland High School and Pennsylvania State University. He has accepted a position with the Philco Company in Philadelphia.

The couple is residing at 316 Langford Road, Broomall.

Bobby Williams Jr. Has Very Happy Sixth Birthday Party

Robert J. Williams Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Williams Sr. of Wyoming Street, Dallas, was guest of honor at a very gay party last Thursday when he celebrated his sixth birthday anniversary. Bobby is a student at the Dallas Borough kindergarten.

A Cartoonville theme was used throughout in decoration and entertainment. Woodywood Pecker table cloth, napkins and plates made a festive party table. Red and white streamers, varicolored balloons, and red heart-shaped lollipops were festooned from the chandelier and a huge blue and white cake, topped with Howdy Doody and six candles, made a delightful centerpiece.

Movies were shown and taken, games played and punch and other refreshments served.

Present were Lana Eicke, Debra Johnson, Linda Wheilan, Elaine Dwinchek, Virginia Achuff, Debby Hartman, Peggy Williams, Buddy Frederick, David Cutten, Terry Hartman, Eugene Hogrebe, Bobby Longmore, Scotty Lefko, David Longmore and Wayne Frederick.

Bobby's mama thinks she may be able to have another in about six more years!
