

Purely Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Stebler of Saudi Arabia, have announced the birth of a baby son on January 19. This is their second child. Mrs. Stebler is the former Rebecca Gable, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gable of Chas.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sanders, Pioneer Avenue, have as guest the latter's mother, Mrs. John Veneman of Negaunee, Mich. en route home from St. Petersburg, Fla. She was registered at Sunset Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso Stepanski, Hunlock Creek R. D. have announced the birth of a baby boy at Nesbitt Hospital on April 13.

B. C. Banks has returned to his home at Harveys Lake after being a patient at Willis Eye Hospital, Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pritchard have purchased the Harry Lee Smith home on Mill Street, Dallas, and will move in shortly. Mr. Pritchard is proprietor of the food bar at Imperial Bowling Alleys.

Mrs. Stanley Farr has returned to her home at Dallas Township Trailer Court after being a patient at Wyoming Valley Hospital for a week. She expects to be back on duty at the hospital shortly.

Mrs. D. Eva Barnes, who has been spending the past three months in Miami, Fla., will arrive May 4 to spend some time with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnes, Elmerest Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Stoner and family of Trenton, N. J., spent last weekend visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stoner, Park Street, Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rowlands, Main Road, Trucksville.

Mrs. Earl Monk resumed her duties at Pennsylvania School for the Deaf, Germantown, Saturday after spending the spring vacation at her home on Pinecrest Avenue. Her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Denmon drove her back.

Mrs. John Hildebrandt Machell Avenue, who has been a patient at Temple University Hospital, has been removed to a nursing home at Greenville, Pa. Cards may be addressed to P. O. Box 333, care of James Hildebrandt, Greenville, Pa.

Chester Hons, who has been confined to his home on Lehigh Street, Trucksville, with the mumps, is able to be out and back on the job this week.

Mrs. Clara Shook is keeping house for her son-in-law, Paul Shaver, while her daughter, Mrs. Shaver is visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Monka in California.

Alec Wallace has returned to his home in Dallas Township Trailer Court after being a patient at Mercy Hospital for a week. Sunday his wife and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wallace of Sweet Valley visited him and his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Long, Sweet Valley, had as Sunday guests the latter's father and sister, Harry

Miss Marilyn Mosier Is Honored At Shower

Marilyn Mosier, bride-elect, was the guest of honor at a variety shower given by Thais Rozelle, Orange, Thursday evening, April 10.

The following attended: Janice Anstett, Marian Elenchik, Faith Marie Jacobs, Carol Felia, Carol Bestwick, Sylvia Cusick, Peggy Ann Maza, Wilma Weidner, Mrs. Fred Templin, Mrs. Richard Jatkowski, Mrs. Robert Stair, Mrs. Sheldon Mosier, Mrs. William Rozelle, the guest of honor and the hostess.

Baby Is Baptized

Mr. and Mrs. Melvyn Compton, Hollyhook Lake, Levittown, had their son, Harry Gerald, baptized in Glenview P. M. Church on Easter Sunday. Rev. Andrew Derrick officiated.

Mark Marino

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Marino, Mincola, L. I., announce the birth of a son, Mark, April 15. There is another child, Donna, five years old. Mrs. Marino is the former Marjorie Howell, daughter of Mrs. Z. R. Howell, Shavertown.

Kim Kaminski

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kaminski, Oak Hill, announce the birth of a daughter, Kim, their first child. Kim, born at General Hospital April 8, weighed eight pounds, eight ounces. Mrs. Kaminski is the former Bonnie Williams, daughter of Mrs. Owen Williams and the late Mr. Williams of Edwardsville. Mrs. Kaminski has a diploma from General Hospital School of Nursing, and was recently employed as a registered nurse at Retreat. Mr. Kaminski is with the Floor Covering Shop in Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kaminski, Oak Hill, announce the birth of a daughter, Kim, their first child. Kim, born at General Hospital April 8, weighed eight pounds, eight ounces. Mrs. Kaminski is the former Bonnie Williams, daughter of Mrs. Owen Williams and the late Mr. Williams of Edwardsville. Mrs. Kaminski has a diploma from General Hospital School of Nursing, and was recently employed as a registered nurse at Retreat. Mr. Kaminski is with the Floor Covering Shop in Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kaminski, Oak Hill, announce the birth of a daughter, Kim, their first child. Kim, born at General Hospital April 8, weighed eight pounds, eight ounces. Mrs. Kaminski is the former Bonnie Williams, daughter of Mrs. Owen Williams and the late Mr. Williams of Edwardsville. Mrs. Kaminski has a diploma from General Hospital School of Nursing, and was recently employed as a registered nurse at Retreat. Mr. Kaminski is with the Floor Covering Shop in Plymouth.

Frank H. Weinsheimer Has 89th Birthday

Frank H. Weinsheimer, former Noxen resident, celebrated his eighty-ninth birthday anniversary with his family at his home on Stanley Street, Wilkes-Barre, Sunday. His son, Donald and family came up from Falls Church, Va., for the occasion.

Rev. Russell C. Lawry is host pastor and Fern Coldren will preside at the organ. Mrs. John Roberts will be guest soloist. Registration of delegates will begin at 9:30. One from each society will be requested to register for her group. Reservations should be made by tomorrow with Mrs. Edgar Brace.

Worship service and program will begin promptly at 10 with devotions led by Mrs. William Reid, Jr., Center Moreland, spiritual life secretary.

During the morning session, a forum will be conducted with three outstanding speakers, Mrs. Ida Lewis, Family Service Association; John Horner, Council of Churches, and Juvenile Court Councilor, and retired Judge W. Alfred Valentine. Emphasis will be placed on the work of the societies with their children and young people. The slogan, "A Church Without a Child is Dead."

Mrs. William Cairl, Jr., president of the host church W.S.C.S., will extend the welcome. Members are asked to bring their

Edwards and Pearl Edwards of Wilkes-Barre.

Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Klinetob, Luzerne, and Mr. and Mrs. Lacie Klinetob, Endicott, N. Y., visited Miss Bess Klinetob at Sweet Valley over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Corey Crispell Celebrate 40th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Corey Crispell, Demunds Road, observed their fortieth wedding anniversary on Wednesday, April 16 with a dinner at Shaver's Diner, Tunkhannock. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Compton and Mr. and Mrs. George Shaver Sr.

Mrs. Crispell is daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Posten of East Dallas. Mr. Crispell is son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crispell of Beaumont. The couple was married at Old Forge, April 16, 1918 with Howard Posten and Frances Kidd as attendants.

They went to housekeeping in Kingston, moving to Fernbrook in 1923. Mr. Crispell is now employed at Forty Fort Dairy Bar. Mrs. Crispell, a member of Glenview P.M. Church is active in the Ladies Aid and Missionary Societies.

There were four daughters born to Mr. and Mrs. Crispell. The only one now surviving is Mrs. Edward Sidorek of Demunds Road; also four grandsons, Jack, Edward, Paul and Leon Sidorek.

Dallas At Turn Of The Century Is Book Club Speaker's Theme

Dallas in the days before the turn of the century was the theme of the Book Club's guest speaker Wednesday afternoon in the Back Mountain Memorial Library Annex. Richard Williams, executive director of Wyoming Valley Historical and Geological Society, culled news items from old copies of the Dallas Post, and drew special attention to a copy issued exactly sixty years earlier, April 16, 1898.

He was introduced by Miss Frances Dorrance, who for many years headed the Historical Society. Mrs. Gerald Stout is program chairman.

Mrs. Charles Frantz presided; Mrs. Warren Unger read the minutes and Mrs. Herman Thomas presented the treasurer's report. Mrs. John C. Phillips, chairman of book selection, read the list of new books.

It was announced that there would be no June meeting. May 27 was given as the date for the Annual Library Auction dinner at Irem Country Club.

Herbert Hill furnished a spring centerpiece for the table, using daffodils and lavender iris. Mrs. R. S. Ferguson and Mrs. Robert Scott poured for.

Mesdames W. B. Jeter, Russell W. Frantz, Harold Titman, Carl Henderson, Mitchell Jenkins, Arch G. Rutherford, Dana Crump, Gerald Stout, Peter Clark, John C. Phillips, W. F. Newberry, Harold Frederici, William H. Pierce, Jr., A. W. Hutchison, F. B. Howell, Guy Faust, J. H. D. Ferguson, Gordon Rowe, Lloyd Kear, Robert L. Morgan, J. Stanley Rinehimer, Herman C. Thomas, Charles Frantz, and Warren Unger; Misses Miriam Lathrop, Frances Dorrance, Marie Spencer, Mary Jane Faust; Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Williams.

Wilkes-Barre District WSCS's To Gather Here On Tuesday

Spring meeting of Wilkes-Barre District Woman's Society of Christian Service, of Methodist Churches, will be held Tuesday in the Dallas Methodist Church. Mrs. Raymond Kuhnert, president, will preside.

Rev. Russell C. Lawry is host pastor and Fern Coldren will preside at the organ. Mrs. John Roberts will be guest soloist.

Registration of delegates will begin at 9:30. One from each society will be requested to register for her group. Reservations should be made by tomorrow with Mrs. Edgar Brace.

Worship service and program will begin promptly at 10 with devotions led by Mrs. William Reid, Jr., Center Moreland, spiritual life secretary.

During the morning session, a forum will be conducted with three outstanding speakers, Mrs. Ida Lewis, Family Service Association; John Horner, Council of Churches, and Juvenile Court Councilor, and retired Judge W. Alfred Valentine. Emphasis will be placed on the work of the societies with their children and young people. The slogan, "A Church Without a Child is Dead."

Mrs. William Cairl, Jr., president of the host church W.S.C.S., will extend the welcome. Members are asked to bring their

Dallas Brownies Visit Kingston Florist Shop

Brownie Troop 200, Dallas, visited the Welliver Florist Shop in Kingston Monday. Mrs. Otto Schenck, committee chairman, drove and Mrs. Jack Barnes and Mrs. Ray Titus, leaders, accompanied the girls.

Attending were Polly Carey, Janine Dierolf, Ann Barnes, Joyce Hughes, Alice Reese, Nancy Gensel, Peggy Rood, Susan Jones and Ruth Schenck.

May 3 members of the troop will tour the Woodlawn Dairy, conducted by Jack Kennan, plant superintendent.

The Troop, newly organized, is looking for an individual or organization to sponsor their trip to camp this summer.

The Troop, newly organized, is looking for an individual or organization to sponsor their trip to camp this summer.

Vegetable and Flower SEEDS and PLANTS

- Flowering Trees • Japanese Cherry • Dogwood • Magnolia • Lilac

- Flowering Shrubs • Forsythia • Hydrangea • Japanese Quince

All Wanted FRUIT TREES ALSO Blue Spruce - Hemlock YEWES

Dry Composted Cow Manure PEAT MOSS

Large Selection Choice Roses MERRILL THOMAS MAIN HIGHWAY Across Natona Mills

Neptune's Ball Set For Saturday, May 3

Plans for the Dallas Junior Woman's Club's annual spring dance are moving rapidly ahead, according to Mrs. Jack Culp, Jr., general chairman.

Mrs. Hugh Carr, Jr., decorating chairman, reports that the general theme, Neptune's Ball, is being worked out by the decorations committee in the basement workshop at the home of Mrs. Edward Tesner, Davis Street, Trucksville. Committee members are Mesdames Royal Culp, Ray Daring, Carl Goeringer, Thomas Hinkley, Henry Liebold, and Robert Moore.

Neptune's Ball will be held Saturday evening, May 3, at Irem Country Club from 9 to 1. Reservations may be made with any of the following club members: Mesdames Stanley Hozempa, chairman; Edward Jackson, cochairman; Morton Hewitt, James Miller, Raymond Parsons or Elmer Williams.

Neptune's Ball will be held Saturday evening, May 3, at Irem Country Club from 9 to 1. Reservations may be made with any of the following club members: Mesdames Stanley Hozempa, chairman; Edward Jackson, cochairman; Morton Hewitt, James Miller, Raymond Parsons or Elmer Williams.

Mrs. George Shaver Is Honored On Birthday

A birthday handkerchief shower, honoring Counselor Mary Shaver, was featured at the meeting of Mount Vale Council 224, D. of A., at the lodge hall Friday night.

Next meeting is a district meeting to be held in the I. O. O. F. Hall at Wilkes-Barre, April 25. Those not attending this meeting will gather at the lodge hall at 8 p. m. for a business meeting.

Davies' Grandparents Go To Philly To See Baby

Mrs. Wesley Davies, Fernbrook, had a call from her daughter, Beverly, Tuesday morning, to say that there was now a baby girl in the family, born an hour and a half earlier. Mrs. Kolb said that Grandma and Grandpa Davies could see the baby, and they took off within the hour for Philadelphia, to gather vital statistics.

Woman's Association of First Presbyterian Church, Wilkes-Barre, will conduct a panel program in the church May 6 at 8 p. m., when a report on the Governor's Conference on improvement of instruction in our public schools will be discussed. The public is cordially invited. Leaders will be Mrs. Robert Holland, Oak Hill, Idetown, and Mrs. Herbert Frey of Wilkes-Barre.

Primary Musicale At Lehman School Tonight

The first three grades of the main school at Lehman-Jackson-Ross presented a musical program Friday evening at 8 in the auditorium.

Taking part were 170 children from two sections, of first, second and third grades, directed by Miss Rebecca Button, and assisted by these teachers: Arline Kunkle and Dorothy Steele, first grade; Hannah Culp and Alice Elston, second; Dorothy Major and Frances Perrego, third.

Entitled "Primary Musicale," the program consisted of two parts. First grade pupils presented "First Grade Melodies," a group of favorite songs of childhood.

Second and third grade pupils presented "An Welcome to Spring," a colorful opera in costume, appropriate to the season.

Charles Snyders, Hosts To Wait And See Class

Wait and See Class of Lehman Methodist Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder on Tuesday. Mrs. William Drabick, teacher, was not present because of illness. Next meeting will be held at the Ralph Johnson home.

Present were Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Seartoss, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Wright, Mrs. Homer Middleton, Mrs. Chester Barral, Mrs. Ralph Johnson, Mrs. Ralph Major, Mrs. Kenneth Swan, Mrs. Arthur Carichner, Irene

Program On Education

Woman's Association of First Presbyterian Church, Wilkes-Barre, will conduct a panel program in the church May 6 at 8 p. m., when a report on the Governor's Conference on improvement of instruction in our public schools will be discussed. The public is cordially invited. Leaders will be Mrs. Robert Holland, Oak Hill, Idetown, and Mrs. Herbert Frey of Wilkes-Barre.

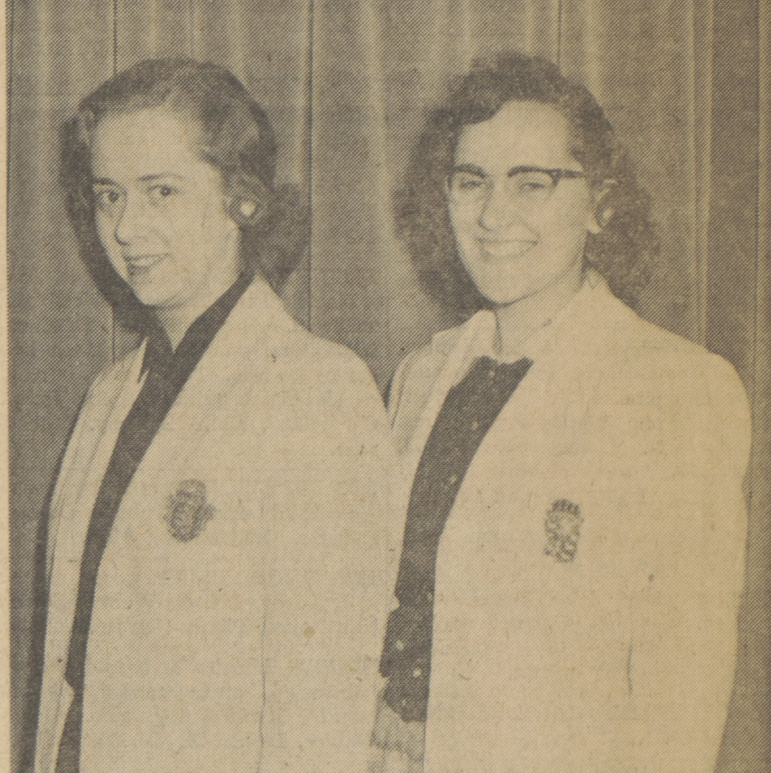

Mrs. Ruth Brown Taken To General

Mrs. Ruth Brown, Main Street, Dallas, was taken to General Hospital Monday afternoon at 4:15, on order of Dr. Michael Bucan. Joe Hand and Elmer Williams staffed the Dallas Community Ambulance.

Entertains Card Club

Mrs. George Bittenbender entertained members of her card club at her home on Lehman Avenue, Dallas, Wednesday night. Present were Mrs. Edith Daron, Mrs. Doris Brobst, Mrs. Bea Martin, Mrs. Mary Fiske, Mrs. Doris Mallin, Mrs. Charlotte Denmon and the hostess.

Local Girls In Concert

Two young women from the Back Mountain area will sing in the combined glee club concert of College Misericordia and King's College Monday evening at 8:15 in the Irem Temple Auditorium.

They are: Jane Cave (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sheldon Cave of Harveys Lake; and Mary Jane Tryon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Tryon, Dallas.

Approximately 150 young men and women will participate. This is the first time the groups will appear together. Student soloists and accompanists from both schools will be featured. Bernard Wert of Harrisburg, conducting for College Misericordia, and Bronis Voveris of Pittston, conducting for King's College. Tickets are available from students of both colleges.

Advertisement for STRAUSER'S vinyl floorcovering, featuring Mother Goose Design for Children's Rooms. Includes list of characters like Little Miss Muffet and Hickory Dickory Dock. Price $229.

Advertisement for ESTELLE'S YARN SHOP, featuring Purwin Extra Fine Milk yarn. Includes a list of services like You Knit, You Crochet, You do needlework.

Advertisement for town & country Bassett's lovely Colonial furniture in Cherry AS SHOWN. Includes prices for Chest ($75.00), Bed ($59.50), Night Table ($36.95), and Double Dresser and Mirror ($94.50).

Advertisement for town & country Bassett's lovely Colonial furniture in Cherry AS SHOWN. Includes prices for 4-PCS. DOUBLE DRESSER MIRROR, BED, CHEST ($229), Chest-on-Chest ($75.00), Wingback Spindle Bed ($49.75), and Triple Dresser ($125.00).