Nancy Jane Kreisler, Bride Of Harry Smith, Wilkes-Barre

At a very pretty wedding, Saturday at 4 p. m., Nancy Jane Kreisler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kreisler, Ferguson Avenue, Shavertown, became the bride of Harry A. Smith, son of Mrs. Mabel Smith and the late Adam Smith, Lawrence Street, Wilkes-Barre. Rev. R. DeWitt Yost performed the ceremony at Shavertown Methodist Church before an altar banked with white gladioli and chrysanthemums, ferns and palms and flanked with tall white tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore floor length gown of white Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin, styled with Princess bodice, Sabrina neckline and long tight sleeves tapered at the wrist. Her full bouffant skirt was trimmed with bands of lace insertion falling in points at the side. Her finger tip veil of handrolled illusion fell from a half crown of sequins and seed pearls and she carried a Colonial bouquet of white roses and orchids against a background of green ivy.

Gladys Smith, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid, and Jane Polk and Ruth Murray, bridesmaids. They chose ballerina length gowns of embossed tulle over taffeta in pink, yellow and blue respectively, fashioned with strapless bodices and matching stoles. They wore tight fitting hats with veils and carried Colonial bouquets of matching white roses and mums.

Mrs. Kreisler, mother of the bride, selected street length dress of pink Chantilly lace, matching picture hat, and shoulder bouquet of deep pink roses, and Mrs. Smith, mother of the bridegroom, blue lace dress, matching accessories and pink roses.

William MacDonald acted as best man and Robert Chiponis and Robert Armistage, ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the American Legion at Plymouth, and the couple left for Gettysburg and points south.

Mrs. Smith is a graduate of Dallas Area School, class of 1958. She has been employed by Woolworth and Company in Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Smith was graduated from Meyers High School and is now serving with the U. S. Army at Fort Dix, N. J.
