Suffers Fatal Heart Attack After Voting

Bert Schenck, 79, collapsed and died from a fatal heart attack after casting his ballot in the election on Tuesday, and returning to his home beyond Stull with a little marketing.

Private funeral services at the Nulton Funeral Home will be conducted this afternoon by Rev. John Gordon, pastor of Noxen Methodist Church, and burial will follow in Orcutt Cemetery.

Mr. Schenck was the son of the late George W. and Julia Winchell Schenck, early settlers of the area.

He lived by himself, and never married. Taking his voting privileges seriously, he used to walk the five miles to Noxen to cast his ballot or ride his bicycle.

This Tuesday, Thomas Berhammer called for him and brought him back to his home. Workers at the polls say he never missed voting, and always came in the morning. On Tuesday, he voted shortly after eleven o'clock, and before noon, workers received notice of his sudden death.

Recipient of an old age pension, Mr. Schenck had recently had his allowance decreased by DPA, and was anticipating the winter months with foreboding.

He is survived by a niece, Florence Acker of Chester, and several nieces and nephews farther removed.

Will Lie In State At Alderson Church

Mabel Davis Dennis will lie in state at Alderson Methodist Church tomorrow. Rev. John Gordon will conduct funeral services at 2, and burial will take place at Edge Hill Cemetery, West Nanticoke.

Dallas Order of the Eastern Star will hold services tonight at the Nulton Funeral Home. Friends may call this evening.

Mrs. Dennis, widow of the late Warren W. Dennis, died at General Hospital Wednesday night, suffering a fatal attack after apparently making good progress toward recovery from a recurring heart ailment.

She was looking forward to going to Florida this winter. A native of Wilkes-Barre, daughter of the late John and Elizabeth Jones Davis, Mrs. Dennis lived at Harveys Lake for the past twenty years, joining the Alderson Methodist Church and its W.S.C.S. While living in Nanticoke, she taught school for some years.

She leaves no descendants. Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Daniel Carroll, of Wyoming, and several nieces and nephews.

John H. Thiry opened the first school savings bank in the late 1880's, in Long Island City, New York.

Trucksville Folk Oversubscribe Campaign Goal

White Church On Hill Raises $84,600 For Educational Building

Trucksville Methodist Church oversubscribed its building fund goal, exceeding the announced $70,000 by $14,600. Results were announced Wednesday night at a meeting of the campaign and building committees.

Sunday morning saw canvassers soliciting members of the congregation. Sunday night saw a pledge of $74,000, including a number of pledges for $1,000 each.

By Wednesday evening, an extra $10,000 had been obtained with $5,000 of it in cash.

People in twenty States contributed, the farthest in California.

Fifty-three teams combed the area. One hundred and fifty families contributed. Membership is between 900 and 1,000.

The new educational building is assured.

Sunday is Victory Day, with special services of thanks for the fund of $84,500.

Pledges are for weekly payments over a period of three years with units estimated at $3 per week for 156 weeks. Many families subscribed more than one unit.

Members were asked to make sacrifices for the benefit of their children.

An educational building has been a crying need for a long time. With acreage now obtained across the road from the White Church on the Hill, and a building fund now available, work will proceed.

The building will be designed, not only for use as a Sunday School on Sundays, but for use during the week, to provide suitable recreation space apart from the church edifice itself.

Kenneth Woolbert is general chairman of the campaign, assisted by William Lohman and Clifford Johnson. The building committee is headed by Dr. Richard E. Crompton.

The four-acre plot includes the old rose garden belonging to the William Conyngnam estate.

Muscular Dystrophy Group Seek Help

There is an appealing group of young victims of muscular dystrophy who need your help through small contributions for the treatment of their misfortune and for research to help save other victims.

Heading the local committee is Mrs. Elwood Lutsey, Summit Street, Shavertown, who asks all who are concerned and are willing to help to get in touch with her.

Mrs. Lutsey says there will be no high pressure campaign. Any organization, group or individual may help by raising funds through benefit programs or personal solicitation. The campaign will continue until the end of November. Mrs. Lutsey has literature and workers' kits for all who wish to help.

Mrs. Nelson Carle is assisting her and may be called for further information at OR 4-5391. Mrs. Lutsey may be reached at OR 4-5436 after 5 p. m.

"The need is great," Mrs. Lutsey said, "and we will be grateful for any help we can get. We will be glad to deliver workers' kits to any home. The number of calls any worker will be asked to make will be limited."

The Federal Reserve System was established by Act of Congress and began operations on November 16, 1914.

Unlike most countries in the world, the United States has many small, independent banks which are locally owned and managed.

Fred Youngblood Dies At Mercy Third Brother To Die In Less Than Year

Fred J. Youngblood, the third brother to die within nine months, passed away early Thursday morning at Mercy Hospital, where he had been a patient since suffering the first of a series of strokes October 11. He will be buried in St. Nicholas Cemetery tomorrow morning, following a requiem mass at 10 at Gate of Heaven Church. Rev. Richard Frank will officiate, and nephews will act as pallbearers.

Mr. Youngblood, 69, was taken by Dallas Community Ambulance to Mercy Hospital the day after suffering the first stroke. He seemed to be making satisfactory progress until Monday, when he passed into a coma from which he did not rouse, and became paralyzed.

Mr. Youngblood had a host of friends and relatives in this area, anxiously checking his progress. He was a communicant of Gate of Heaven Church and active in its work. Up until three years ago, he was rural mail carrier for Dallas R. D. 1, retiring in December of 1955 after thirty-three years of service.

The immaculate appearance of The Maples was due to his care. Mr. Youngblood kept the lawns and shrubbery in beautiful condition during the lifetime of the owner, Mr. Meyers, and later of his wife. When Mrs. Meyers died four years ago, she left a life interest in the home to a man who had been friend as well as employee for many years.

A few months ago, with care of two places, one on Norton Avenue and one on Demunds Road, beginning to be onerous, Mr. Youngblood sold his life interest in The Maples so that wife would be provided for in the event of his death.

Mr. Youngblood was born in Trucksville, son of the late Frank and Mary Beline Youngblood.

He is survived by his widow, the former Rose Deutsch; brothers, Frank, Wilkes-Barre, and Lewis, Trucksville; sisters: Mrs. Louise Sutton, Kingston; Mrs. William Walsh, and Mrs. William McCauley, Wilkes-Barre.

Misson Oversees Wire Removal
Installed Same Wires For Trolleys In 1939

Harley Misson, Shavertown, who supervised erection of overhead wires when trackless trolleys were first installed in Wyoming Valley, is now supervising their removal. He has been with the Wilkes-Barre Transit Company for forty-four years.

Double overhead wires, erected in 1939, added up to approximately sixty miles of wire. Crews have removed wires from Plymouth, Sugar Notch, and the Heights, and are now working in Edwardsville. Mr. Misson has twenty men on the job.
