

Philip H. Mosier Jr. Marries Butztown Girl

Lillian Czizma, daughter of Mrs. Irene Czizma of Butztown, and the late John Czizma, married Philip Hayden Mosier Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Mosier, Main Street, Shavertown, Saturday afternoon. Rev. Robert Herman performed the ceremony in St. John's Lutheran Church, Farmersville. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in Forks Township Fire Hall.

Mrs. Mosier is a graduate of Bethlehem High School. She is employed in the accounting department of Dixie Cup Company, Easton. Mr. Mosier was graduated from Bloomsburg State Teachers College. He is teacher in the Hiram Dodd School at Allentown.

After a trip to the New England States, the couple will reside at 3311 Union Street, Allentown.

Bradley Charles Birth

Lt. and Mrs. Harold C. W. Birth, Waco, Texas, announce the birth of a son, Bradley Charles, at Elmhurst Hospital on November 24. Mrs. Birth is the former Vida R. Kocher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Kocher of Noxen. Lt. Birth is son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Birth of Trucksville.

The couple has a daughter, Cynthia Kay.

George E. Daron, 81, Dies After Long Illness

George E. Daron, New Goss Manor, father of Hulme Daron, well known manufacturer, will be buried this afternoon at Fern Knoll, following services conducted by Rev. A. James Cara from the Hugh B. Hughes funeral home in Forty Fort.

Mr. Daron, 81, had been in failing health for over a year. Patient at Jefferson Hospital for three months, he was transferred to Nesbitt ten days before his death, and died there Tuesday morning.

A native of York, an expert lace-weaver in Wyoming Valley for fifty years, he moved to this area three years ago when his son Hulme S. Daron settled in New Goss Manor, and made his home with him.

A perfectionist in his field, he was employed by Wilkes-Barre Lace Mill and later by Columbia Mills.

He is survived by three daughters: Mrs. Arthur Steinhauer and Mrs. Edward Tinklepaugh, both of Dallas; and Mrs. Harry Bowman, Court Dale; two sons: Hulme S. Daron, Dallas; and Steril E., Camptown; nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Back Mountain PTA Council Lays Plans For Year

Twelve members of the Back Mountain Parent-Teacher Council met recently in the Library Annex to lay further plans for the year. The Council was formed as a clearing house for material and findings valuable to PTA groups in Back Mountain schools, and to act as an unofficial aid and guide.

Mrs. Henry Doran, from Lehman-Jackson-Ross; Mrs. Margaret Spencer, secretary; Alfred M. Camp, president.

Standing are: Jack Stanley, president of Dallas Township PTA; Kenneth Jackson, president of Beaumont PTA; Percy Love, Shavertown PTA; Warren Yarnal, president of Dallas Borough PTA; Walter Prokopchak, former head teacher at Beaumont, now teaching at Trucksville; Herbert Downs, Beaumont PTA.

Many Hunters Successful On Opening Day Of Deer Season

The first day of deer season saw public schools in the Back Mountain closed, and business places sparsely staffed, in salute to the first Monday in December. Deer drooping from fenders began passing through Dallas by 10 a.m., as hunters from a distance joined local sportsmen in the woods. Many deer were killed, whole families taking to the woods in pursuit.

Indications point to a record deer season. Deer are plentiful and tracking is good after last Friday's three-inch snowfall followed by cold weather.

Monday morning was very cold, but hunters entered the deep woods long before daylight, to take up strategic positions. At 7 a.m. rifle shots began and the first day of deer season was launched.

One 17 year old youth stumped along on a walking-cast, not willing to miss first day of deer season because of an injured ankle. Hunting at Wyalusing, Richard Besteder of Kunkle, found lagging locomotion no bar to bringing down his deer at 8:40. Dick got himself banged up in a Westmoreland football scrimmage.

Mrs. Alfred Rogowski, of Pikes Creek, has missed a deer season only once in years, and that was two years ago when she was in the hospital with a new baby. She got a 150-pound spike buck near Ricketts Glen at 7:30. Her husband, and her son Ronnie sighted nice bucks, but it was Mom who brought home the venison.

Bruce Atkinson, Demunds Road, shooting on his great-great-grandfather's ancestral acres, got his first buck in Monroe County. Hunting with him was Rev. Grove Anderson, pastor of Trucksville Free Methodist Church.

Robert Culp, justice-of-the-peace at Huntsville, got a 110-pound buck, and his son-in-law Albert Ashton, shot a four-pointer at Casetown.

Darrel Loomis, Ruggles, got his deer.

Walter Meade, Idetown, shooting with Dan Williams at Red Rock, got a 150 pound buck with four points at 10 a.m.

Russell Major, 21, Sweet Valley, got his first buck, though he hunted regularly for two years before entering the Army. Coming out of the service in July, he fixed his sights on deer-season, and hunting at Pikes Creek at 9 a.m. on opening day, he bagged a 190-pound buck with an exceptionally large rack. Hunting companions were four Cornell brothers, Bud, Ken, Francis, Ralph; with Paul Farver, Johnnie Buck, and Carl Gries.

Rusty Greenley, 14, ninth grade student at Dallas Junior High School got his first buck, a nine-pointer, while hunting with his Uncle Terry and Uncle Arthur Gensel.

Three brothers, all of them doctors, went hunting near Shick-shinny, and Dr. Edward Groblewski, Meadowcrest, shot a six-point buck. Dr. Ben and Dr. John went along for the ride.

Bill Donachie Jr. and Murphy Hislop sweated it out, dragging their two bucks three miles through the woods at Lovelton. The two boys, 15 and 16, were the only ones in the twelve-man hunting party who were successful on the first day, hunting from Bob Hislop's cabin.

Florence Smith, wife of Ziba Smith of Parry's Gulf Station in Dallas, got her deer on opening day, near her home in Lehman Township. Many of the high school boys who enjoyed vacation from school on Monday, provided hunches of venison for the family freezer.

Donald Magill got a four point 140 pound buck near Lopez, his first deer in six years of hunting.

Trucksville Women Plan Bazaar, Buffet Supper

The W.S.C.S. of the Trucksville Methodist Church will sponsor a cafeteria supper in the social rooms of the church tonight at 5:30. There will also be booths displaying attractive articles for sale in conjunction with the supper. Mrs. Ernest Norrie and Mrs. Graydon Carle are co-chairmen of the supper, and the following women are in charge of the booths:

Jewelry, Mrs. William Newberry and Mrs. Lowther Brown; home canned goods, Mrs. Leon Beisch; sweet shop, Mrs. Earl Hess; variety shop, Mrs. C. S. Hemenway and Mrs. Levi Crews. The public is invited.

GRAND OLD BUCK ELUDED HUNTERS FOR MANY YEARS

Throng of hunters have been admiring the 225-pound nine-point deer which has been hanging at the Newell place since Holden Newell Jr. shot it on the opening day of deer season. The immense buck, grizzled with age, was one of those that roamed the game preserve at Sterling Farms. Shooting in that area is confined to employees of Sterling Farms.

Joseph Rauch, who called the Dallas Post about the spectacular deer, says that after the blizzard last winter, 200 deer were seen feeding in the preserve. Many Back Mountain residents drive to that area during the late summer twilight, to see the herd.

West Side Flower Club Installs Rev. C. H. Frick

West Side Flower Club members enjoyed the annual Christmas party Tuesday evening at Wyoming Avenue Christian Church. Rev. Charles Frick, pastor of Huntsville Christian Church, presided, and Rev. Edmund John led in singing Christmas carols.

Soloists in the musical program included Charles Nicol in "Oh Holy Night;" Master Michael Stair in "Gesu Bambino." Master William Bachman recited the Christmas story from St. Luke, and Mrs. Frick was narrator for a film, "Emmanuel."

Rev. Frick was installed as president again; other officers installed were: Marlan Frantz, first vice president; Edward Space, second; Loren Keller, third; Mr. Harold G. Phillips, recording secretary; Mrs. Harry Shonk; Roy Webb, treasurer; George Reinhart, auditor.

Gifts were distributed and refreshments served.

TEACHING YOUR DOG ENGLISH

By Bob Bartos
Prominent Dog Authority

One of the endearing things about dogs is their inability to sass you back or argue. Yet it's this very lack of a satisfactory means of communication between dog and man that frustrates many a master. When "get down off the couch" is met by a blank stare, or "you're a bad dog" is answered by a happy wag of the tail, your only wish is that Fido could understand English.

Actually, there's no reason why he can't... at least enough of it to get along beautifully with his human associates. It all boils down to teaching him the meaning of a few short and basic words and this is done by getting him to associate the word with the action through frequent repetition. Each time he catches on to what's expected of him, he should be rewarded with much patting and a snack. The magic words which constitute his basic vocabulary are: "sit!", "stay", "down", "come" and "heel", along with "no" when you want him to stop what he's doing, "bad" when he's naughty and "good" when he's good.

To help you out in your training, there's now available a 33-1/3 r.p.m. phonograph record called "How to Train Your Dog", narrated by a nationally known dog trainer. It covers the basic commands. Simply play the record a few times, follow the instructions, and before you know it your dog will be acting as though he understands English. Even the youngsters will have fun working by the record with Fido. To order the record, send 25 cents and the "pup-head" trademark from any Friskies Dog Food product to Friskies Record, Los Angeles 19, California.

Red-Winged Blackbird At Jackson's Feeder

Frank Jackson, Harveys Lake, is entertaining a red winged black bird at his feeder. Ordinarily a migratory bird of the swamplands and marshes, the red winged blackbird is seldom or never seen in Pennsylvania during winter.

Mr. Jackson thinks the bird may have been injured since it displays a streak of grey on one wing rather than the usual red. The bird eats breadcrumbs.

Lend-A-Hand Club

Lend-A-Hand Club of Beaumont will meet at the home of Jestic Cook December 11, when fifty cent gifts will be exchanged. Hostesses for the Christmas meeting are Mrs. Nile Clark, Mrs. Kyler Updyke and Mrs. Cook.

Cars Damaged By Crash, Drivers Not Injured

Two cars suffered considerable damage Tuesday afternoon at 4, when they collided at the intersection of Center Hill Road and Route 309. Drivers were uninjured. Clyde Birth towed away the cars.

Victor L. Mason, 58, Lake Carey, driving a 1957 Plymouth sedan, was within legal speed limit, moving north on the highway. Mrs. Rose M. Kelly, Falls R. D., a teacher at Gate of Heaven School, stopped at the intersection, failed to see the approaching car, and crossed the highway in a 1953 Ford station wagon. Right front of Ford was damaged, left front of Plymouth.

Assistant Police Chief of Dallas Township, Irwin Coolbaugh, was aided by Patrolman Leslie Tinsley in the investigation.
