Greetings

This week we thought we'd give our instructors a chance to say a few words in our column. Each has sent his or her greetings as follows: Supervising Principal James A. Martin, "To all of you I wish the happiest of Christmases and a New Year filled with good health and serenity in a World at Peace."

W. Frank Trimble, Westmoreland supervising principal, "I want to take this opportunity to express my thanks to the student body and faculty for making my work so pleasant; I hope you all have a happy holiday season and return to school in good health and spirits to continue the work we have started. Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year."

Home economics instructor, Grace Barral, "Holiday greetings to everyone in the community."

Gym teacher, Clinton Brobst, "May your holiday season be filled with cheer and best wishes to all for a Happy New Year!"

Chemistry and physics instructor, Thomas Carr, "Seasons greetings to the faculty and students of Westmoreland."

P.O.D. and history instructor, Donald J. Evans, "To the students—much happiness and success in 1959; to the faculty—sincere good wishes for a Happy New Year."

History instructor, Edgar Hughes, "To the faculty and students of Dallas School District a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year." Gym instructor Mabel Jenkins, "Peace be with you all during this holiday season."

Commercial instructor, Thomas Jenkins, "Best wishes for the yuletide."

Commercial Kenneth Kirk, "Merry Christmas for a happy, successful, and prosperous New Year."

Music instructor, Lester Lewis, "Christmas cheer all through the year!"

Driver training instructor, George McCutcheon, "Best wishes for a safe and happy holiday season."

English teacher, Chester Molley, "Best wishes for Happy Holidays."

Latin instructor, William Moran, "Gaudemus ut in natione libera natum Christe celebrare habet."

Librarian Sophia Morris, "Say a Merry Christmas to your friends by giving them a good book."

Agricultural instructor, Sheldon Mosier, "Merry Christmas."

Math instructor, Mrs. Louise Prothero, "To the faculty and students—Season's Greetings and a wish for every happiness in the New Year.

English instructor, William Prater, "Merry Christmas."

Mechanical drawing instructor, Joseph Rakshys, "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year."

Biology instructor, Anthony Roan, "Have a Cool Yule."

French instructor, Helen Sliker, "Joyeux Noel et Meilleurs Voeux pour la Nouvelle Annee."

Commercial instructor, E. H. Shultz, "Best wishes for the holiday season."

Math instructor, Robert Somerville, "Season's Greetings."

Art teacher, Dorothy Withney, "Best Wishes for a colorful New Year!"

From Bonnie and Elaine, "We also wish our senior classmates, underclassmen, faculty and our community a Very Merry Christmas and a hope for a prosperous New Year."

LEHMAN-JACKSON-ROSS SCHOOL NEWS

By Mary Ann Laskowski

Student Council

The student council is in the process of selecting school colors.

An election committee has been set up of the following members: Vic Salansky, Pat Rittenhouse, Russell Steele, Bob Hess, Sue Nuss, Jay Ruckle, Barry Evan, Rae Ann Harvey, Pat Bialogowicz, Fred Little, Judy Shalata, Sandra Evan.

Sets of colors selected by the classes will be submitted to the election committee in order to eliminate duplicates and to prepare a ballot to be used by the entire student body from grades seven through twelve.

The only color combinations that are not to be used are red and blue, formerly Lehman's colors and blue and gold, formerly Lake's colors.

Sophomore Contest

The sophomores' contest results were published in the Scottie Herald which we received on Friday.

Sports

On Monday we played Harter on the Lehman floor. On Tuesday we wrestle Benton on our home mats.

Christmas Decorations

All the classrooms in the Lehman building are decorated beautifully with chalk drawings on the blackboards. Christmas scenes are white paper and each set of windows is complete with candles, snowflakes, Santa Claus, snowmen and many other figures that reflect the spirit of Christmas.

Thirty-three cents buys one hour of public education for your child or one milkshake.

Will See Son Conduct Band At Rose Bowl

D. R. Prutzman, Trucksville, will watch his son conduct the Mt. Lebanon High School Band at the Rose-Bowl football game in Pasadena on New Year's Day. Leaving here on Saturday, he will join Philip in Pittsburgh, and leave for California by special train which will carry the band and its supporters for their second trip to the Rose Bowl.

The Mt. Lebanon band has played for professional football games this season.

Coming back, the train will be routed by the Grand Canyon.

Bringing the news was Loren Keller's daughter, Mrs. Frank Prutzman.
