Ruggles

My dear friends and neighbors, I want to thank you so much for your wonderful cooperation in helping make our Ruggles column a success for the last couple of years, and hope you enjoyed reading it as much as I did writing it. I ask, that you cooperate with your new correspondent, Mrs. Mae Kocher, as well as you have with me. I won't say 'Goodbye' because Goodbys make me cry. I'll just say 'Solong for a while' and 'May God guide you always,' Faye Hummel and family. My Dad, Dan Smith had quite a time getting rid of some miserable germ that decided to make its home in his throat. Sick, he was, but he's ok now. Claude Sorber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sorber, spent some time in General Hospital, and is still in a cast from hip to toe. Broke his leg when the sled he was riding, went the wrong direction. Harry Sickler has been in the General Hospital the last week. He had an operation on his eye. Coming fine now. Mr. and Mrs. John Bronson, Larry and Joan from Montrose, spent the weekend with Mrs. Beulah Bronson and Walter. Rev. John Gordon and Mrs. Mildred Garinger had a very interesting film at the church on Sunday night. It was about missionary work in Mexico, the topic which the classes are studying. The Charles Williams Hill was a very busy and popular spot on Sunday when young and old tried out sleds, toboggans, flying saucers, etc. All riding and freezing were Kenny and Janice Williams, Clayton and Irene Traver, Don Traver, Mr. and Mrs. Don Williams and family, Charlie, Peg, Richie, and Karen Williams. The John Honeywells have had a bout with the grip. Sure hope there all on the road to recovery now. Laurie Sickler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sickler has been admitted to the Nesbitt Hospital for observation. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oberst, Carlin, Gary, Lee, and Bara, and Mr.

and Mrs. Wilson Honeywell and Barbie had lots of fun skating on Sgarlets pond on Sunday afternoon. They thawed out with coffee, cake, and hot chocolate. Mrs. Mina Harrison had some sick days last week. She missed the rag-sewing W.S.C.S. meeting, so she must have been really sick. Elwood Higgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Higgins, Sweet Valley, had the misfortune of breaking his leg, when struck by a car coming home from church right in front of his home. We're glad it's only one leg. It could have been much worse. He's in the General Hospital. Little Bobby Grey was sick the past week. Sore throat and cold. Connie Smith came home from colitis home. We're glad it's only one 'in-between-stemmer-vacation'. She will return on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kittle, Mooretown, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Smith. Mrs. Jack Metcalf, Neil Ferne and Phyllis Gensel of Muhlenburg, visited us Sunday afternoon to bid us Goodbye, also Carl, Anna Mae, Dangery and Sandy Smith spent a while with us on Sunday.
