Snow!
 Snow, snow everywhere!
 The preceding passage is the understatement of the year.
 Last Friday's precipitation of white flakes presented some transportation problems in getting to school. Many buses, slowed down by the treacherous weather, arrived at school a little late, but safely.
 Although snow and ice somewhat hamper many activities, we'll all agree that it makes for some beautiful scenery throughout the surrounding countryside. Only in the country can we enjoy the real beauty of winter's wonderland. Youngsters are "having a ball" ice-skating, tobogganing, sledding, skiing, etc., more so this year than for a good many past years.
 "Motorists," be mindful of the youngsters who sled or enjoy winter sports near the roads.
Half-Way Hop
 Whew! The mid-year examinations are over, along with the cramming and diligent studying.
 Regular morning classes were held each day this week and exams were given from 1:45 to 2:30. All the classes of a certain subject were given on one day (example—the Problems of Democracy classes took their mid-year Monday.)
 Today was make-up day for those who had missed exams.
 To celebrate the end of exams is the annual Half-Way Hop sponsored by the seniors tomorrow evening 8 to 11 in the gym. Music will be furnished by pop records. Come one and all!
"Grab Yer Partners"
 Westmoreland Band Association will sponsor a square dance Saturday, January 31, at 8 p.m. in the school gym. Carl Hanks and his

They were George Jacobs, Edgar Imman, Charles Malkemes, David Glahn, David Kimball, Dick Clark, Joseph Hoeg, Sandra Chere, Donna Bolen, Beverly King, David LaBarr, Roy Hall, Karen Samuels, Sharon Samuels, Bonnie Gross, Karen Culver, Patricia Sinicope, Peggy Hall, Marilyn Eck, and David Stout. Stage hands were Dale Culver and Marlin Rimple. Evelyn Orchard played the piano.
 Ripples of laughter from the audience broke the solemnity of the occasion when it was discovered that Mr. Franklin's feet were sticking unceremoniously out of his pine box.
 Four senior girls from Westmoreland attended a tea given by Delta Kappa Gamma Society at the YMCA Saturday afternoon.

The girls, Virginia Morgan, Anne Dorrance, Mary Dora Scott, and Bonnie Jenkins, are members of the Future Teachers of America Club. Other F.T.A. representatives from Wilkes College, West Pittston, Plymouth, Coughlin, G.A.R., and College Misericordia also attended the tea.
 Judith Huey, a sophomore at Coughlin High School, gave several vocal selections. Miss Zelata Tuhy, librarian at Coughlin High School, showed beautiful, full-color slides of her recent trips to Ireland and the Caribbean Islands.
 Miss Ruth Merrill, an instructor at Meyers High School, cautioned students not to take "a fling at teaching" if they are not prepared to remain in it, because there are certain aspects of the teaching profession that are very rewarding.

Troop committee of Girl Scout Troop 200 met at the home of Mrs. Otto Schenk Thursday evening.
 Mrs. Jack Barnes read a letter from Corning Glass Center and plans were made for the troop to tour the plant in April. Mrs. H. W. Rood will make arrangements for bus transportation.
 Mrs. Oliver Rome reported Christmas articles sold by the troop as an extra project made a profit of $46.60.
 Mrs. Edger Hughes is chairman for the February cookie sale. Registration fee for the committee was collected by Mrs. Jack Barnes.
 Plans were made to hold the next meeting on February 19th at 8:30 P.M. at the home of Mrs. George Bauman.
 Refreshments were served to Mesdames: Ernest Reese, Oliver Rome, George Bauman, H. W. Rood, Jack Barnes, Dolly Dierolf, and the Hostess.
 "Save for a rainy day" is good advice—but think of those nice, warm, sunshiny days coming in the summer.
 Will all Girl Scouts in the Back Mountain area have money to go to camp this next summer? In February the Girl Scouts will be selling cookies for this privilege.
 The Cookies Sale is a Council-wide project and is the only big event the Council holds each year.
 It will be of interest to all adults

Basketball
 Junior High Falcons started the basketball season January 13 at Larksville. From a tied score at half time, our team went on to win with a score of 46-37.
 Sandra Ambrose, Susan Dorrance, Nancy Elston, Louise Hadsall, Dana Jones, Judy Williams, Sally Moyer, and Glenda Williams have been selected by Mrs. Ruddy, girl's gym teacher, to be cheerleaders at future games.
Day of Reckoning
 For some students Monday will mark a strict change in their social activities. The reason—report cards. During the past few weeks everyone has been cramming for mid-year exams given recently. We hope the results are satisfactory.

Something New
 The following news staff was recently added to the Student Council: Editor, Maryalice Knecht; Sports Editor, Jon Butler; Assistant Editors, Gloria Dolbear and Peggy Perkins.
 Through the courtesy of the Dallas Post, we will to the best of our ability, keep the community informed about Junior High School activities.
Recent History
 A few short months ago a Student Council was formed. Election results were: Council President, Dana Jones; Vice President, Tom Gauntlett; Secretary, Susan Fleming; Treasurer, Harold Hislop.
 Under the supervision of Mr. William Baran, a much needed monitor system was set up. It was relieved a good deal of the confusion in the halls between classes.

 The Jingle Bell Hop, a Christmas dance sponsored by Student Council, was a big success. Other dances are being planned.

Brownie Bake Sale
 Committee Women of Brownie Troop 203 plan a Bake Sale for January 30 at Boyd White's. Contributions may be made through Mrs. Fred Daley, Fernbrook, or Mrs. Carl Kaschenbach.

Wyoming Valley Hospital Auxiliary Wednesday
 Miss Frances Dorrance will be hostess to members of the Back Mountain Chapter, Wyoming Valley Hospital Auxiliary, Wednesday at 10:30, when sewing is scheduled until noon. After the break for lunch, for which members are asked to bring their own sandwiches, there will be a business meeting, followed by more sewing.

Noxen Collects $84 For Christmas Seals
 Receipts from the Noxen area during the recent collection for Christmas seals amounted to over $84, according to Tillie Loveland, chairman for that section of Wyoming County. Mrs. Loveland states that there are seven known active cases of tuberculosis at present in Wyoming County.

Revenue from Christmas seals, she says, is used not only for care for the actively ill, but for research to determine ways of combating a disease which is threatening a comeback. Mrs. Loveland thanks all who cooperated in the collection.

Treasure Table Items May Be Left At Dixon's
 Members of Dallas Women's Club may leave contributions to the Treasure table at Dixon's Restaurant in Dallas instead of taking them down to the Value Shop in Shavertown, if they desire.
 Mrs. Vern Groff and Mrs. Herman Thomas report that not only costume jewelry, but bedspreads and luncheon cloths are in demand, also small gadgets and ash-trays. The depository at Dixon's will be in operation until January 31, the day of the annual sale at the Value Shop.

Shavertown Couple Break Bones In Falls On Ice
 Mrs. Emanuel Mendelsohn, Shavertown, broke her leg a week after her husband broke his arm. Slipping on the ice on the steep hill connecting Pioneer Avenue with the main highway at the traffic light, Mrs. Mendelsohn fell twice Friday morning, snapping a bone above the ankle. Wearing tight boots, she made it back up the hill to her home. The following morning she was taken to Nesbitt Memorial Hospital for application of a cast.
 Grove Armstrong, pastor of the Trucksville Free Methodist Church which the Mendelsohns attend, brought both husband and wife home from Nesbitt Saturday afternoon, and arranged with Mrs. Robert Bodycomb, chairman of wheel chairs for Dallas Senior Woman's Club, to furnish a wheel chair for Mrs. Mendelsohn.
 Mr. Mendelsohn is a Linear employee, formerly residing in Philadelphia.

 More than 200 workers will distribute the cards which are of the 25c per week variety which when filled contains $5 per card. The cards will be picked up on June 20.

TAX FACTS #1 Selecting The Proper Tax Form

(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax filing. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Pennsylvania Society of Certified Public Accountants, in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.)

IF you are one of the millions of American taxpayers who spends the lion's share of his income feeding, clothing, housing and entertaining his family, chances are there is very little you can do to reduce your 1958 federal income tax bill—but you owe it to yourself to try.
 First of all, decide which of the two individual tax forms you are going to use to report your income. If you choose the wrong one, you may automatically cut yourself off from a possible tax savings.

The easiest way to file is to use the simple 1040-A Form. It's a card the size of a check, on which you answer a few simple questions and have the choice of either computing your own tax or letting the Government do it for you.
 You are permitted to use the card form if your gross income consisted only of wages, dividends or interest totaling less than $10,000, and if you did not have more than $200 of gross income apart from that listed on your W-2 withholding slips.

Before deciding to use the card Form 1040-A, you should consider these facts:
 1. Your tax will be figured from a table which allows you a deduction of about 10 per cent of your income instead of itemized deductions for contributions, taxes, interest paid, medical and dental expenses, etc.
 2. There is no provision in this form for filing as a "head of household" or for claiming special credits for dividends and retirement income.

If you are sure that these two points would not cost you any tax savings, and your income is within the limits for filing a Form 1040-A, you might as well use this simple card form.
Whether to Itemize
 When you elect to use the regular Form 1040, you still must decide whether to itemize deductions or take the standard deduction which usually amounts to about 10 per cent of your income or $1,000, whichever is less. Generally, you will save by itemizing deductions if you:

 (1) Own real estate
 (2) Had unusual medical expenses
 (3) Had deductible child-care expense
 (4) Suffered losses from fire, storm, accident or theft
 (5) Made fairly large charitable contributions

If you are supporting a dependent, although you are unmarried, you may be able to qualify as a "head of household" and figure your tax on a special table that gives you part of the advantage enjoyed by married couples filing joint returns.
 You may qualify for a "head of household" status if you provide more than half the support of a parent and more than half the cost of maintaining the parent's household even if the parent does not live with you. You cannot claim a "head of household" status if you file a Form 1040-A.

The 1040 Form is arranged again this year so that a taxpayer whose income was entirely from wages needs to use only the first one or two pages. Pages three and four are for other types of income and for computing the special credits for dividends and retirement income.
 The instructions which come with your tax forms give further information on how to select the correct tax form. Help is also available from the Internal Revenue Service.
