Young Minister
Goes To Atlanta
Maple Grove Charge
Loses Rev. Brittain

Rev. Robert Brittain preached his last sermons in the three churches of the Maple-Grove Methodist Charge on Sunday. On Monday, he and his wife and fourteen month old baby girl, left for Atlanta, Georgia, where he will study at the Chandler School of Theology of Emory University.
Members of his three churches expressed their appreciation of his year and a half service by giving him a farewell party Wednesday night at Loyalville.
Sunday School superintendents of the three churches spoke briefly, Elwood Ruckle for Maple Grove; Gilbert Ide for Loyalville, and Morton Connelly for Meeker. Miss Bess Klinetob spoke of the esteem in which Rev. Brittain was held by his congregations, and Russell Steele, lay-leader at Meeker deplored the loss to the congregation and the community at large.
Gilbert Ide made the presentation speech for a purse given by the three congregations.
Refreshments climaxed a meeting of good fellowship which started with singing of favorite hymns and ended with old fashioned visiting and reminiscence.
Rev. Brittain, graduate of Asbury College in Kentucky, has been attending Temple University, spending weekends in study for the ministry, weekends at the parsonage in Maple Grove, serving three churches.
To complete requirements for his degree in theology, he is transferring to Chandler, where he expects to finish in January of 1960 after five terms of intensive preparation.

He came to Maple Grove in September of 1957, replacing Rev. Paul Clemow who held the pulpit briefly before opening the Mooretown Assembly of God late in July of that same year.
Supplying the pulpit for a time will be Rev. Fred Eister of Plains.

Holy Trinity Church To Confirm First Class
A high spot in the regular worship service in Holy Trinity United Church of Christ next Sunday morning will be the rite of Confirmation, the first class to be confirmed in the church which is one of the younger churches in the Back Mountain area. The class, to be confirmed by the pastor, Rev. Elmer G. Meissner, includes Dennis Blair, Jerry Horst and Randy Miller. These boys have undergone a course of instruction and will now be received into full church membership.
Another important part of next Sunday's service will be infant baptism. Parents desirous of having their children baptized at this time are asked to contact the pastor.
A final feature of the Palm Sunday worship will be a preparatory service, looking forward to the Sacraments of Holy Communion which will be observed at the regular worship hour on Easter Sunday.

Surplus Food Coupons Surplus food coupons will be distributed Friday, March 20, in Dallas Borough building.
The milk production of a cow is reduced more rapidly by too little water than by anything else.

Hour Of Quiet On Holy Thursday At Shavertown Methodist Church

Society of Christian Service, with Mrs. Ross Kimball as general chairman and Julia VanBlarcom will sing "In the Garden."
A sacrificial meal will be served at noon. All women of the church and community are invited to join in this Lenten service.
Decorations: Mesdames Carl Hontz, Ralph Lewis, Robert Lewis, Joseph Allen, Philip Pope.

wards, William Brown, Harold Wardlow, Cecil Poynton.

Seventh Day Adventists To Convene At Atlantic City

George W. Renton, pastor of the Beaumont Seventh Day Adventist Church, will be a delegate to the denomination's tenth quadrennial convention of the Columbia Union Conference of Adventists at Atlantic City, N. J., March 23 to 26.
Ministers, administrative officers, school officials, laymen, and other denominational employees representing Adventist Churches in seven Middle Atlantic States and the District of Columbia will attend the four-day session in the Dennis Hotel.
More than 800 delegates and visitors are expected to attend from Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware, West Virginia and the District of Columbia, in addition to representatives from international headquarters of the church in Washington, D. C., the regional headquarters in Takoma Park, Maryland, and from several of the church's publishing houses.
Reports of achievements in various phases of church work will be given by departmental secretaries and other officials of the Columbia Union Conference headquarters. One of the main items of business will be election of union conference officers and secretaries for the coming quadrennial period.
Lewis F. Lenheim, president of the Columbia Union Conference of Seventh Day Adventists for the past year, will be in charge of the convention, assisted by Thomas R.

Dardner, secretary-treasurer.
