Lay Leader Lewis
 Will Speak Sunday
 Center Moreland Methodist Church will have as guest speaker Sunday evening at 8, G. Wesley Lewis, who will take as his subject
 "Methodism's Opportunity in Puerto Rico."

Mr. Lewis, a member of the Lewis Fruit Farms in Mount Zion, needs no introduction to the community.
 The output of the Farms has been known for over fifty years as superior in yield and quality.

A native and lifelong resident of Mount Zion, Mr. Lewis is a prominent church man in Mt. Zion Methodist Church. In 1945 he was elected Wilkes-Barre District Lay Leader, and in 1949, was elected Lay Leader of Wyoming Conference, a position which he still holds.

In 1956, he served as a delegate to a special session in Puerto Rico, and on this count has first hand information about conditions and problems.
 His talk will be accompanied by colored slides. A fellowship hour with light refreshments will follow the program. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

Alfred M. Camp Loses
 Brother In Death
 The community extends sympathy to Alfred Milliner-Camp, whose brother, Henry Milliner, was buried in Nanticoke Cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Milliner, 56, Hunlock Creek R. D. 2, died Saturday morning at Nanticoke State Hospital, where he had been admitted as a medical patient March 22.

The deceased had lived in Nanticoke prior to retirement from General Cigar Company five years ago.

Cardiograms showed a grave heart condition. But he never permitted himself to be alarmed. On Wednesday, he sat up in bed and joked with his callers, and high hopes were entertained of his recovery.
 On Saturday morning he died suddenly, after being up and around in a wheel chair, with every expectation of going home for Easter.

It was Mr. Cornell who built the altar furniture for the Methodist Church at Ruggles, incorporating home-grown lumber into the designs for altar, communion table, and pulpit chairs. It was a labor of love, done with expert craftsmanship in his spare time, over a period of many months.

For six years Mr. Cornell was custodian for the Lake building. No boy would have dreamed of placing an extra burden upon him by thoughtless misuse of equipment. He was the sort of man who quietly expected the best of everybody, seeing his own integrity reflected in others, as in a mirror.

Before joining the Lake School staff, he was employed by the State Department of Forest and Waters, deriving his own unassuming strength of character from the strength of the hills and streams.

He was born fifty years ago in Wapwallopen; son of the late Peter and Bertha Fink Cornell. He served in World War II as a gunner in the 15th Air Force, seeing service in Italy. He belonged to Harveys Lake American Legion Post.

Surviving are his widow, the former Elsie Kocher of Noxen; two sons: Donald, Bayonne, N. J. and Richard, Hunlock Creek; a granddaughter, Ardene Cornell, Hunlock Creek; brothers and sisters: Mrs.
 James Wisser and Mrs. Albert Hayes, California; Harvey and Earl Cornell, Philadelphia; Lamott Cornell, Berwick; James Kulp, Sweet Valley RD; Jasper Kulp, Rhode Island; and Sadie, California.

A nephew, Thomas Swire, is custodian at the Noxen building; a niece, Thelma Kulp, teaches at Lake.
 Services were conducted Tuesday afternoon from Bronson Funeral

Nephew of Richard Disque
 Dies After Long Illness
 William H. Disque, 16, nephew of Richard Disque, Dallas funeral director, died Saturday in Pennsylvania State Hospital after a long illness. He was buried in Memorial Shrine Wednesday afternoon.

The boy's father, William J.
 Disque, Forty Fort, was electrocuted ten years ago while working on a power line for the Sordani Construction Company.

Funeral Service Today
 For Ernest H. Varner Ernest H. Varner, 35, resident of Meeker, will be buried this afternoon in Maple Grove Cemetery.
 Rev. Ira Button conducting services at 2 from the Bronson Funeral Home.

Mr. Varner, in poor health for the past two years, suffered a cerebral hemorrhage several days before his death early Tuesday morning at General Hospital.

He was unmarried, living on the home place with his mother, Mrs.
 Leona Tisch Varner. His father was the late Hiram Varner. A native of Wilkes-Barre, Mr. Varner was employed by the Woodbury Manufacturing Company.

He belonged to Meeker Methodist Church and Lehman Fire Company.
 Surviving in addition to his mother are two sisters and a brother: Mrs. William Davis, New York City; Bruce Varner, Meeker;
 and Pauline Varner, Slocum.

Altar and Rosary
 Gate of Heaven Altar and Rosary Society will hold a covered dish supper Monday evening at 6:30 in the cafeteria, followed by Novena and the regular monthly meeting.

Mrs. John Chesnovitch and Mrs.
 John Callahan are co-chairmen; in charge of serving are Mrs. Francis Fortal, Mrs. William Motyka, Mrs.
 Stephen Schmalz, Mrs. Maurice Evans, and Mrs. Leo Bartz; program, Mrs. Willard Whalen; reservations, Mrs. John Chesnovitch.

Ambulance Crew For
 Week of April 6-13
 Dallas Community Ambulance
 Crew starting Sunday at midnight:
 Leslie Barstow, Sr., captain; Leslie Barstow, Jr., Stephen Hartman, Howard Johns, Kenneth Shaffer.

Calls made recently: Mrs. Alton Whittaker, Claude Street, to Nesbitt, heart attack, March 24. Mrs.
 Walter Brunges, Claude Street, Nesbitt Hospital, medical, March 24.
 Mrs. Monroe, from Dr. Gallagher's office to Mercy Hospital, March 25.
 Robert Litzberger, Main Street (deceased) March 28.

Crews: Wertman, Jack Berti, Titus, Southworth, Bill Berti, Don Bulford, William Shaffer.

Card of Thanks
 The family of the late Arthur Montross wishes to thank friends and neighbors who sent cards of sympathy, and flowers; those who loaned cars; and those who performed kindly acts of personal service during the late bereavement.

Cornell Death Is Blow To School

Was Deeply Loved By Pupils, Faculty

A much-loved man has died. Men of the faculty and of the Lake-Noxen school board, vied for the privilege of bearing Lawrence Cor-nell's body to his last resting place in Kocher Cemetery.

This truly gentle man leaves an indelible mark upon the boys of the school building where he served as custodian. There was no baiting of the custodian at Lake Township. Mr.
 Cornell never raised his voice. He expected the boys to live up to his standard of conduct, and the boys responded.

When it became apparent that his heart was damaged, and that he would never again be able to shoulder the harder work, the boys made plans to do it for him. They talked about buying special things for him, such as drip-dry garments. They sent him pajamas. A fresh rose appeared on his breakfast tray each day while he was a patient at General Hospital. Everybody knew how much Mr. Cornell liked roses, and what delight he took in raising them.

Wilson Honeywell heads the Hares, Gordon Edwards the Tor-toises. For seven weeks the contest has been going on.

A different teacher instructs the class each month. For April, beginning this Sunday, it will be Austin H. Line, his first appearance at the teacher's desk.

Charles C. James
 Takes Army Course
 Fort Eustis, Va. (AHTNC)—Army Pvt. Charles C. James, 22, son of the late Prof. Charles A. James and Mrs. Hannah C. James, 15 Jackson Street, Dallas, completed the aircraft electrical system repair course March 20 at the Transportation School, Fort Eustis, Va.

James entered the Army last June and completed basic training at Fort Benning, Ga.

He is a 1954 graduate of Westmoreland High School, attended Mansfield State Teachers College and was a teacher in Pemberton, N. J., before entering the Army.

Annual Fishermen's
 Breakfast April 15 Alderson Methodist Church is planning for its annual Fishermen's Breakfast April 15. The Cleaners
 Class under direction of Mrs. Garvin Smith, general chairman, and Mrs.
 Amos Hunsinger, president, will start serving at 4 a. m., continuing until 2 p. m.

The menu will begin with ham and eggs, sausage and pancakes, and in mid-morning home-made soup will be added to the offering. Gallons of hot coffee will be on tap.
 The Fishermen's Breakfast has been an institution at Alderson for many years.

Home by Rev. John Gordon, Alderson-Noxen charge.
 Pallbearers were: Robert Belles, Thomas Longmore, David Price, Carlton Kocher, John Miliauskas, and John Zaleskas.

Crusade For Christ Will Feature Ruth Mattson, Star Gospel Soprano

Great interest in the Crusade for Christ now being presented by the First Baptist Church of Kingston, is being shown among people in this area. A number of local residents are cooperating, among them Clyde David of Dallas, who is a member of the Prayer-Meeting committee;

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kester, Demunds Road, on the Promotion and Delegation committee; Russell Shaver and A. H. VanNortwick, Dallas, both members of the Board of Deacons.

Ruth Mattson, one of New York's outstanding gospel sopranos, who has been presented in sacred concerts of all denominations throughout the East, will sing three selections each evening, and on the final day, Sunday, she will give a sacred concert including negro spirituals such as "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?" and favorites of an older generation.

Her rendition of "The Life of Christ in Spirituals and Gospel Songs" has become so well known that the selections will soon be available on recordings.

She has recently been seen on Television programs in New York, Philadelphia, and Altoona.

Rev. Richard L. Robinson, featured speaker for the Crusade, will appear each night.

Tortoises Plod Past
 Shavertown Hares
 The Tortoises have plodded past the Hares, 545 to 520, at latest reports on the Shavertown Methodist Men's Clubs contest. Points are awarded each team for new memberships in the class, and enrollment is now so high that many new chairs have had to be procured.

Widow Of Civil War
 Veteran Dies At 91 Mrs. Mercy O. Miller was laid to rest in Beaufort Cemetery Monday afternoon. The former resident of Noxen RD and Wilkes-Barre died at 91 in Oxford, N. Y. on Friday. Services were conducted by Rev. Truman Reeves from Nulton Funeral Home.

Mrs. Miller was the widow of the late George Miller, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barringer, whose old homestead was the place now owned by Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Farley on the high hill road connecting Beaufort with the Lake-Noxen highway.
 Mrs. Miller operated a small grocery store next door to Job Hadsall's general store in the early 1900s.

Both her father and her husband were Civil War veterans. She was considerably younger than her husband, marrying a widower.

As a young girl she attended the same one-room school in Beaufort where Mrs. Hadsall was a student, and the two girls were friends, though Mercy was somewhat older.

Mrs. Miller is survived by three children: Ira, Endicott, N. Y.; Mrs.
 Mabel Traver, Elmira, N. Y.; and George Miller, McGraw, N. Y.; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Bertha Teal, Wilkes-Barre; seventeen grandchildren, forty-seven great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

Angel Mass For
 Paul R. Doris Little Paul R. Doris, Jr., was buried in Mt. Olivet Cemetery Tuesday morning. Rev. Francis Kane celebrating an Angel Mass at Gate of Heaven following brief services from the home at Oak Hill.
 Paul, four years old last September, died of pneumonia on Easter morning at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robert Doris, he is survived also by brothers, Dennis and Jeffrey; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rosperski of Glen Lyon. Paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Doris, Glen Lyon.

Arrangements by Disque Funeral
 Home.
