League leading Gosarts ran into a buzz bomb as the young legionnaires brought out the heavy artillery with some loose fielding on the part of the losers and came out on top with an 18 to 13 score.

The Legion boys gave notice of an upset in the first inning when they scored six times. Anderson and Siket were the big guns with three hits each while Anderson, Siket and Fedak scored three times each to account for half of the teams runs. Farrar with a perfect day, two for two, and Wolensky with two hits, chipped in to aid their teams cause. Bachman and Swisher were the big stick men for Gosarts with two hits while young Gosart slammed a homer in the second to account for two runs. His second of the season.

Wolensky started on the mound for the Post team but Fedak came on in relief in the first and pitched all the way for the win. Steinbauer and D. Martin could do very little with the Post team with too much loose fielding backing them up.

A spirited Howard Isaacs team put it into second gear and drove rough shod over a strong Back Mountain Lumber team by an 8 to 5 score last week.

With the aid of three walks and an error the boys from down the line countered five times in the third inning to wrap up the second major upset in two days.

Wormeck got the win while Masvaro was the loser. Balavage and Lohman led the hitters for the day with two each. Muncie blasted another long homer for the Lumberjacks but to no avail. Richards and Baker did the damage for the winners scoring twice each and that told the tale.

Although out hit 9 to 5, Isaacs took advantage of the breaks and came out on top to shake the league asunder and make the leading teams a bit shaky about playing any one of these teams from now on.

The long ball was the story of Gosarts taking another win from The Lumberjacks of Back Mountain. Back to back homers by Stevens and Prokopchak provided two runs in the second and Bachman blasted his second of the year with one aboard in the fourth to wrap it up for the winners.

Stevens did the pitching for the winners and fanned eleven men. Allen suffered the loss while allowing only five hits but it was the long ball that spelled his doom. D. Martin had two hits for the winners and Allen had two hits to drive in two of his teams three runs. Muncie was high scorer for the losers countering twice while Bachman crossed the plate twice for the winners.

Lazarus — Harters
Lazarus proved that things happen in threes when they upset a highly favored Harter's nine. Following in the footsteps of the two previous nights another upset was in the making.

Halpin, who usually, does a terrific job of catching, was called upon to do the pitching for Lazarus and came through with the win. He was aided very nicely by two other hurlers on the team Batory and McDade who garnered two hits each to lead the team to the win. Brown scored twice for the winners to lead both teams in that department.

The losers did the hitting with Burnett getting three bingles, Sponseller, Supey and Jones two hits each but that doesn't win ball games as we often see. The team that crosses the plate more times is always the winner as was proven in the three upsets of the week.

Dallas Meets Beaumont In Exhibition Tilt

Teams Tangle July 4 At Beaumont Starting 2:30

BILL SHALATA

Pictured above is first baseman Bill Shalata, one of the leading hitters on the Dallas team who will be in the line-up Saturday when Dallas and Beaumont clash on the Beaumont field at 2:30 p. m. Along with being one of the top stickers on the ball club Shalata has cracked out four homers in the fast Wyooming League against some top-notch hurlers. He recently tagged Larry Kendid, former Eastern League hurler, for a circuit smash. Bill has three years of pro-ball experience, having played with Albany, Georgia of the Georgia State League. Albany is a St. Louis Cardinal organization.

Dallas is currently the hottest team in their circuit, having won five of their last six starts to give them a 6-3 slate and second place in the standings. The latest win was a thrilling 5-3 win over previous unbeaten Hanover. George Gatcha was the winning hurler as he bested Mike Dydo, former Wilkes College hurler. Ferris and Grose clouted homers in paving the way for the victory.

Beaumont is leading the Bi-County League and is ready to give Dallas a tough battle. Beaumont, managed by Carl Straley, will add a few men to their roster for the game in order to strengthen the line-up.

Possible hurlers for the game are Pat Salansky for Dallas and Alex Wilson for Beaumont.

This is an exhibition game and should supply plenty of action as the two local teams clash.

Dallas Dairy New Sponsor
The Dallas team, formerly known as the Legionnaires, has acquired a new sponsor for the team and will play under the nickname, the "Dairymen." Wilson Garinger, owner of Dallas Dairy, has shown keen interest in the local team and has contributed greatly towards the financial needs of the ball team.

Dallas will play all of its remaining home games at Plymouth's Community Park, one of the finest diamonds in the local region. It was necessary to change the site of the games due to the condition of the Dallas Township field which is hard and filled with pebbles that it is risky to play Sunday ball on the diamond. The field also lacks watering facilities which is really essential to make a good ball field.

Dallas will meet Mocanaqua Sunday at Mocanaqua in what promises to be another tough contest for Dallas. Mocanaqua is in third spot with a 5-3 slate. They toppled Swyersville 8-6 in ten innings last Sunday.

Dick Fosko will most likely get the call for this game with Yenas behind the plate. Kochev will probably handle chores for the downriver club with Denoy catching.

Top hitters on the Dallas team are Rishkofski, Hendershot, Salansky and Shalata. Other team members include Grose, Simms, Ferris, Gatcha, Lopasky, Hazinski, Alan-sky, Gocek and Winiski.
