By MARY ANN LASKOWSKI

FOOTBALL:
Horns blowing, fans shouting, and cheer leaders singing, announced another victory for Lake-Lehman Football Team, Saturday. This time over Northwest 33-13.

This Saturday we meet another powerful team, Wyoming. With team work and good sportsmanship we hope our team will do it again.

BAND:
Along with two rival teams on the field, there were two rival bands on the sidelines. Both bands put on an interesting and snappy show. During the game, both played a number of songs to pep up their own team. Remember to come to Band practice. We can only be as good at the games as we are at practice.

LEHMAN SENIORS:
Seniors are starting to work on the Yearbook. To finance this project, they are soliciting patrons and ads from all businessmen and friends.

Along with the yearbook plans, they are also engaged in selecting their "Graduation Invitations," and "Name Cards."

LAKE SENIORS:
Officers of the Senior class at the Lake Building are: president, Fred Little; vice president, Verna Smith; secretary, Wilma Lyons; treasurer, Tom Baer.

The Senior Play will be held October 21, under the direction of Mrs. Florence Worth. It is a comedy entitled "Father was a Housewife."

STUDENT COUNCIL:
Officers of Student Council were elected at the close of last year. They are: president Bob Ross; vice president, Donna Cundiff; secretary, Glenda Lyons; treasurer, Mike Yurko. Sponsor is Mr. A. Marchakitus.

Through the efforts of the council, new signs have been placed telling the rules of the school. Council is planning to buy a score board for the athletic field. It's also planning to sell football buttons during noon hours, before home games.

INDIVIDUAL PICTURES:
This past week all student pictures also planning to sell football buttons during noon hour, before home students.

Ted Wilson Building New Three-Acre Pond

Ted Wilson is building a three-acre pond back of his sawmill on Lake Catalpa Road in Dallas Township.

When completed it will have a depth of fifteen feet at the dam end. Duke Evans who is doing the excavating has run into so many springs which are filling the excavation that he can no longer work on the dam with his bulldozer, but will have to use trucks to haul earth to build the dam.

The springs will assure a constant flow of pure water for the pond. Both Ted and Duke are delighted.

Jackson Grange Plans Cafeteria Supper

Ruth Wright is chairman of the cafeteria supper being served by Jackson Grange, No. 1312 Saturday, October 10 at 5 p.m. Menu will include fried chicken, buns and hot dogs, pigs in blanket, scalloped potatoes, macaroni and cheese, home made bread and pie, baked beans, jello, beets, tomatoes, tea and coffee.

Wyoming County justice is quick and sure. This week Judge Robert Trembath sentenced Paul Blackman, 45, migrant farm laborer, to one year in jail and $500 fine for shooting a fellow Negro worker during a card game at the farm of George Zarychte in Keelersburg.

Football

Our football team met the Forty Fort Flyers on our home field Saturday and were defeated 27-13.

This Saturday we will meet West Wyoming on our home field. However, this will be a home game for West Wyoming which does not have a field of its own.

So come on out and root for our team!

Driver Training

Driver training has started. There are quite a few sophomores and juniors taking theory. Any one wishing to join should contact Mr. McCutcheon. Also, if you have your permit you should see Mr. McCutcheon.

X-Rays

On October 8, all sophomores are having their chests X-rayed by Wyoming Valley Tuberculosis and Health Society. The cost of the X-Rays is being defrayed by the school district.

New Drums

Westmoreland band will soon have a complete new set of drums. The set, of white pearl, was purchased jointly by the Band Association and the School Board. It is expected to arrive in about three weeks.

Driver of Stolen Car Evades Local Patrolman

Friday night at 9 while Officer Bill Berti was observing traffic on Main Street, he saw a 1933 Plymouth sedan come down the wrong side of Church Street at high speed.

The driver stopped momentarily for the red light but when he saw the officer in uniform sped through and turned down the highway toward Fernbrook.

Berti gave chase and followed the speeding car until it got away from him in Luzerne Borough traffic. He did, however, get the license number and called Wyoming Barracks of the State Police.

There he learned that the car had been stolen earlier that evening from Nancy Grow of Dagobert Street, Wilkes-Barre. The car was driven by a teenager wearing glasses. He was accompanied by another teenager when Berti started his futile chase.

Back Mountain Y Plans Gypsy Tour

Back Mountain Y is participating in the Wilkes-Barre YMCA's Gypsy Tour to Philadelphia October 24. The program will include a football game between Penn and Navy, and a tour of the Philadelphia Navy Yard.

Cost of the tour is $9.00 including bus fare, meals and insurance. Leave Back Mountain in private cars at 6 a. m., board bus at Central Y at 6:30. Bring box lunch. Trip to Philadelphia Navy Yard at 9; football game at 2; dinner following game; return home at 10:30 p. m.

Dads are welcome. Reservation fee of $2.00 must be paid by Saturday, October 17. Reservations are limited and will be accepted on a first come basis by George B. Pickett, Y secretary.
