

One Killed, One Critically Hurt In Car Crash

Rambus Has Ten-Year Safe Driving Record With United Vans

"The headlights were coming right at me, and I tried to get off the road, but there wasn't anywhere to go."

A driver with a ten-year record of safe driving with United Van Lines, and a 19 year old West Wyoming youth, met head-on Wednesday night at 10 on Carverton Road near Burketts Pond.

Leon Rowlands, badly mangled and extricated from his car with crowbars, died five minutes after admission to Nesbitt Hospital.

Michael Rambus, 29, critically injured, battled for life.

Michael left the Root storage warehouse at 7: after helping load a van for Florida. Planning to start for Florida Thursday morning, and expecting to be away for six weeks, he stopped to have supper with his mother, Mrs. Arlene Rambus, on Bunker Hill, before loading his car with groceries for his family, and buying a pair of loafers for his wife's birthday present. He collected his salary in advance to finance the shopping.

He was on his way home on the Center Moreland-Falls Road, when the accident occurred.

The road was dry and visibility was good.

There were no witnesses. The cars met with such force that twisted wreckage blocked the entire road, and traffic had to be rerouted by Mt. Zion for over an hour.

A night-long search for a possible third party began when the dying boy mumbled something about a friend as he regained partial consciousness in the Kingston Township ambulance. He had a compound fracture of the skull and fractures of both legs.

Rambus had a possible fracture of the skull, and compound fracture of the left leg. His foot was hanging by a shred.

He has a wife and three small children.

Both cars, total wrecks, were towed away by Clyde Birth, Kingston Township police remained on the scene to direct traffic and search for a possible unknown survivor.

Trucksville Fire Company stood by because of the dangerous amount of spilled gasoline.

Chief Jesse Coslett and special patrolmen Howard Woolbert and Hans Jeffries were assisted by patrolmen from Wyoming and State Police. Arnold Yeust and William Fredericks manned the ambulance.

Alan Root, son of Alfred Root, owner of Root's Transfer Company in Wyoming, who had made many van line trips with Rambus and said he was an excellent driver, went immediately to the hospital when informed of the accident shortly after midnight, and remained with his friend.

Mrs. Root, Franklin Street, Dallas, drove to the scene of the accident the following day. She reports that the Rambus car, going north, was not able to get off the road, but that there was a wide stretch where the car coming south could have left the road.

Former Noxen Man Patents New Frame

Willard Jones, former Noxen man now living in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, has patented a new Photo Frame Album which is being marketed by Woolworth stores throughout the country, and in ten leading New York Department stores.

The attractive brass bound frame, suitable for use on a television set, opens in such manner as to show individual portraits of all members of the immediate family in one frame.

Mr. Jones has a number of other patents, perfected over the years. Several of them have found good markets.

There were 42 million more newspapers purchased on the average day last year than were purchased on the average day 60 years ago.
