"WHILE THERE IS LIFE THERE'S HOPE"

Not so long ago diseases like small-pox, tuberculosis, diphtheria, pneumonia and polio were the scourge of mankind. Now they are controllable.

There are some, like cancer, for which we still have no positive cure. But, if the diagnosis is early, in the majority of cases a normal life can be lived. Meanwhile research scientists feel that within a few years a cure will be discovered. More than forty new drugs are released for prescription use each month. Your physician knows their special values and will prescribe one of them for you if necessary.

Pick up your prescription if shopping near us, or let us deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with the responsibility of filling their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Jackson Celebrate Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Jackson, Harveys Lake, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary over the weekend with a family dinner at their home Saturday night and open house Sunday afternoon.

The dinner Saturday was brought and served by their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Richards and grandchildren, Karen and Keith of Vestal, N.Y. Many of the goodies, including the huge cake decorated with yellow candy roses and inscribed with a "Happy Golden Anniversary", were made by the Richards' friends.

The Jackson dining room took the family back a hundred and fifty years. Many of Frank's antiques, treasures of his parents and grandparents, were brought from other parts of the house and used as backgrounds and holders for the dozens of bouquets of yellow roses and chrysanthemums sent in by friends.

Center piece for the dinner table was an old soap scales restored by Mr. Jackson, polished up, and filled with the last of the fall's yellow nasturtiums. Tall yellow tapers, circled with yellow chrysanthemums, added to the festive effect. On the serving table was a second soap scales, lent by Mrs. Robert Avery, gift from her grandfather, the late Dr. Byron Avery. It was filled with yellow chrysanthemums.

Sunday afternoon, about fifty friends and neighbors dropped in to wish the Jacksons many more years of married happiness. The table was attractively arranged against the wall with background of tall yellow tapers and center piece of gold roses and chrysanthemums. A buffet luncheon was served.

Mrs. Jackson is the former Gertrude Thomas, daughter of the late Dan and Ruth Thomas of Sherman Street, Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Jackson is son of the late Bible Jackson and Samantha Mathers Jackson of Harveys Lake. The couple was married at the Central Methodist Church in Wilkes-Barre by the late Rev. Mog and went to housekeeping in Verona, N.J. where Mr. Jackson was in the church construction business. While there he and his company built, among other churches, the Central Methodist Church, Wilkes-Barre, the Pittston and Berwick Churches.
