Applying For Social Security? Maybe This Will Help You

Are you going to apply for social security retirement or survivors benefits soon? If you are, you can get quicker results if you act on the suggestions listed below made by Christopher G. Boland, Manager of the Wilkes-Barre District Office of the Social Security Administration.

1. If you worked as an employee in 1959, bring a copy of your W-2 Form. Withholding Statement.
2. If you were self-employed in 1959, bring a receipt or cancelled check showing that you paid your income tax and social security tax for 1959. Also, bring a copy of your 1959 income tax return which will be retained as part of your application for benefits.
3. If you have as proof of your age a birth certificate, baptismal certificate, or old government or business record such as a census record, army discharge certificate, insurance policy, etc., bring it with you.
4. If you have a child under age 18 or a child who was continuously disabled since before reaching age

18, bring proof of that child's age with you as supplementary family benefits may be possible for such a child.

5. If you have a wife who has in her care a child eligible for benefits on your account, or if your wife is age 62, she should accompany you to the Social Security Office as she also may be eligible for benefits on your account. If she is near or past 62 years of age, she should bring proof of her age also.

Boland pointed out that any worker who is of retirement age (age 65 for men and age 62 for women) may be eligible for some social security benefit if the total earnings for the year do not exceed $2080.00. Also, a worker who is not self-employed may receive a benefit for any month in which he does not earn over $100.00. At age 72, a worker may receive retirement benefits no matter how much he earns.

Boland also stated that if a worker or self-employed person dies, and the widow is applying for benefits, she should bring with her proof of her age and marriage if she is near or past 62 years of age; if she has a child under 18 in her care, she should bring her own marriage certificate and proof of the child's age. She should also bring a copy of her husband's W-2 Form for the year 1959 if it is available.

Requiem Mass For Stephen Sabol

Stephen Sabol, Dallas DR 3, taken to General Hospital Friday morning in the Dallas Community Ambulance, died there that same night. He was buried in Mt. Olivet Cemetery Tuesday morning, following a mass of requiem at St. Michael's Church.

He retired three years ago from the Glen Alden Corporation's Woodward Colliery. After moving to Dallas RD 3, he retained membership at St. Michael's Greek Catholic Church in Pittston.

Mr. Sabol was a native of Edwardsville, son of the late John and Mary Sabol, and was educated in Edwardsville schools.

He leaves his wife, Anna Kapral; a son Francis, Dallas RD 3; brothers, John and George, Edwardsville; Andrew, Nanticoke; Nicholas, Wilkes-Barre; Paul, Luzerne; a sister Mrs. Andrew Chacko, West Wyoming; three grandchildren.

Corp. John Billow Was State Trooper

Corp. John Billow, 50, resident of Chase Manor for the past two months after moving to this area from Luzerne, died at Wyoming Barracks early Sunday morning, after suffering a severe heart attack. He had been a State Trooper for twenty-seven years, joining the ranks in his early twenties.

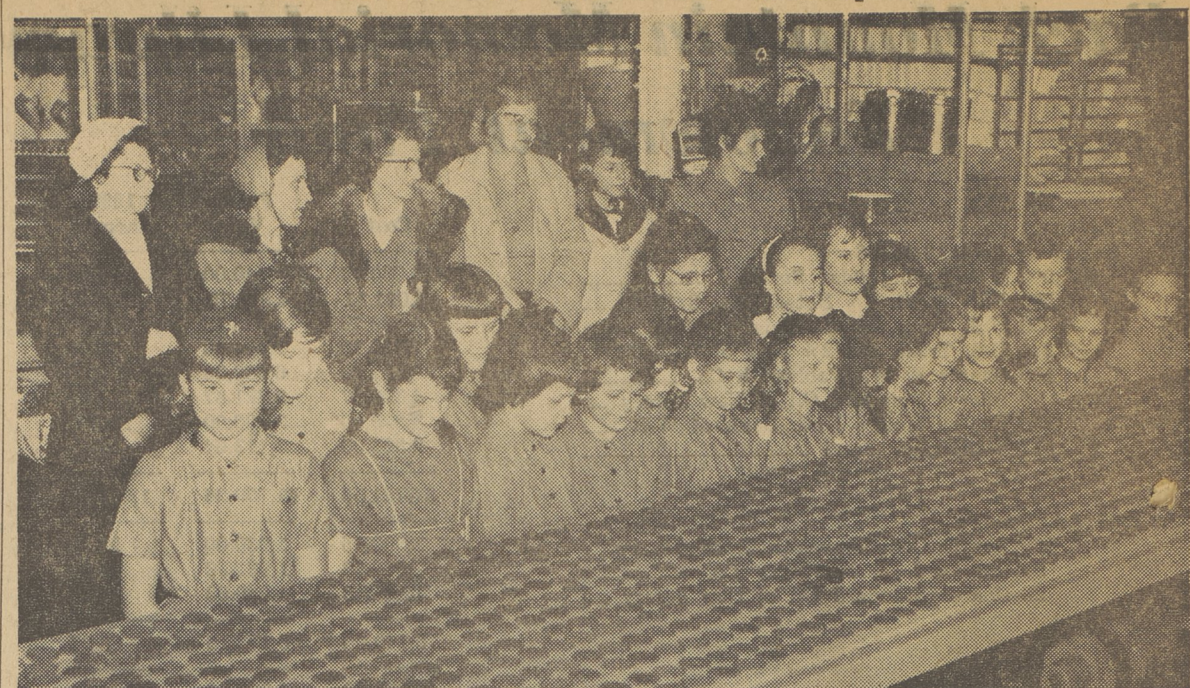

He will be buried Thursday morning in Forty Fort Cemetery, following a mass of requiem at St. Vladimir's Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church in Edwardsville.

Corp. Billow took his preliminary police training at Hershey, and was assigned to Bethlehem Barracks, transferring to Wyoming Barracks in 1938. He saw duty at Tunkhannock and Shickshinny substations. While at Wyoming he was garage inspector for many years.

He leaves his widow, the former Margaret Hretcliv; two daughters: Mrs. Joseph Voitek, Luzerne; and Magdalene, a senior at Mansfield State College; one grandchild; and his mother, Mrs. Mary Billow, at home.

Sir Walter Raleigh wrote a History of the World, while imprisoned in the Tower of London.

Girl Scout Cookies Roll Off The Assembly Line

Here they come, fresh from the oven, a steady stream of Girl Scout cookies, down at the Blue Ribbon Cake Company in Kingston. Many have already been sold by brown-clad Brownies with pixie hats, and green-clad Girl Scouts wearing yellow scarves, but there are plenty more. Be generous when the cookie salesman rings your doorbell. It's in a good cause.

This Week AT THE COLLEGE

By PAM ROCH

Today at the college we're electing Miss Glamour of College Misericordia, our campus representative for the national Miss Glamour Contest. This contest in sponsored by Glamour magazine, which devotes its August issue to the "Ten Best Dressed College Girls in America." These ten girls are selected from among the entries of most colleges in the United States, on the basis of posture, grooming, and fashion sense. These criteria are sought in the three photos of each contestant: one in typical campus outfit, another in off-campus outfit, and a third in a party dress.

Our nominees for campus Miss Glamour are Jane Ruble, Meg Comstock, Pat Byrne, Linda Gennaro, Peggy Kirwin, Beth Turnbach, Gloria Galante, Eleanor Gallo, Judy MacNally, and Maureen Fortune.

Tomorrow the freshmen student nurses of Mercy Hospital will receive their caps. The capping ceremony will take place at 8 p.m. at St. Aloysius Church in Wilkes-Barre.

On Saturday, the senior education students will take the National Teacher Examination.

On the fourteenth, don't miss "The Devil and Daniel Webster" on NBC at 8 p.m.

The Monday performance by the Chicago Opera Ballet will ring down the curtain on this season's Theatre Three. Misericordians are looking forward to Monday night's program hoping for another Theatre Three next year!

The music students, members of Phi Mu Gamma, will attend a lecture on Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Regina Hall. Miss Margaret O'Brien, of the English department, will discuss her European travel last summer, centering her talk around the Music Festivals presented throughout the continent.

Miss M. Corgan, of the language department will show her slide of France at the Modern Language club meeting, February 18, 7:30 p.m. in Regina Hall. The Modern Language Club will welcome guests.

Lamoureux Heads Board

Elmer Laskowski was elected chairman of Jackson Township Supervisors at the reorganization meeting, Wesley Lamoureux is road foreman, Harold Bertram supervisor, Atty Jonathan Valentine solicitor, Edward Jeffery secretary-treasurer; Dennis Bonning chief of police; Robert Cooper assistant chief.

It was voted to retain all township ordinances for 1960.

Billy Wilson, Oldest Stone Mason, Marks Eighty-Seventh Milestone

A lifelong resident and one of the best known stone masons in the Back Mountain Region, William "Billy" Wilson observed his eighty-seventh birthday anniversary quietly Monday at his home on Franklin street surrounded by members of his family and a few old friends, who dropped in to talk over the "old days."

Among them were his three sisters, Mrs. Della White, Noxen; Mrs. Ellen Deater and Mrs. Milo Oney, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wilson Sweet Valley and Milo Oney.

Born in Lake Township where he grew to manhood, Mr. Wilson was one of a family of thirteen children, eleven of whom grew to maturity.

He early learned the trade of bricklayer and stone mason, a trade he has followed until just recently. Among some of his work to which he turns with great pride is the beautiful retaining wall and entrance to the Newberry Estate on Pioneer. He also did all of the stonework and walls at Wildwood, Har-veys Lake, the Girl Scout Day Camp formerly owned by the Weckesser family.

In 1900 Mr. Wilson married the former Eleanor Walter from whose father, the late John Walter, he had learned his trade. In May Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will celebrate their sixtieth wedding anniversary.

The Wilsons have two children who are living, John of Charleston, West Virginia, and Gertrude of Dallas. A son, Walter, died while a prisoner of the Japanese in the Philippines during World War.

The Wilsons also have two great-grandsons, one of whom, Johnny, makes his home with them and is the idol of grandpap Billy's eye.
