SCIENCE EQUIPMENT
Mr. Howard Shiner, our science teacher, has recently received new equipment for science classes, including two terrariums and aquariums, a molecular model set and a cloud chamber to study radio-active in radio-active elements.

Slide-Rule Club
Members of Mr. Case's Slide-Rule Club have been presenting much useful information to the club at their weekly meetings. Richard Eckerd recently reported on the use of the slide rule in obtaining cube roots; Paul Jenkins spoke on the use of the slide rule in relation to ratio and proportion; Peter Wolfe talked to the group about the use of the rule in relation to certain trigonometric functions.

THE MAGAZINE CAMPAIGN
The magazine campaign has been completed and the students would like to thank those people who have ordered magazines. The profits realized will be used for some item or items that will benefit the entire student body of the Junior High School. Suggestions from the student body are screened and the most useful and desirable are selected.

The campaign this year lasted for ten days and was a huge success. The high homeroom for each day received a box of candy bars while the high salesman for the day picked a leaf off a "money tree" in the school office and was rewarded one to five dollars in cash.

The high homeroom this year was Room 18. Mr. Morgan's room. These students will be rewarded with an ice-cream treat. The high salesman was Martha Messick, Room 42. The campaign was under the direction of the student managers - Holly Bacon and Sharon Titus. The following students were chosen as captains and co-captains of the homerooms; captains and co-captain; 9th grade: Room 12, Joseph Shrey, Ruth Croman; Room 15 Del Voight, Judy Besteder; Room 41 Charlotte Roberts, Bob Letts; Room 44 Earlene Layaou, Paul Siket.

8th grade Room 18 Rita Rice, Carl Kaschenbach; Room 21 Michael Jones, Karen Walk; Room 22 Lee

Hoyt, Donno Campell; Room 42 Peggy Jordan, Susan Searer; Room 43 Don Smith, Linda Rowett.

7th grade Room 13 Danny Mathers, John Nemic Room 16 Sharon Phillips, Jean Fleming; Room 17 Ellen Evans, Thomas Edwards; Room 19 Linda Dymond, Philip Heycock; Room 31 Arthur Miller, Carol Coburn; Room 33 John Banks, Sharon Bedford.

WHO WAS THIS GOOD SAMARITAN
The driver of the car that got stuck in a snow bank on Saturday night between 7 and 8 o'clock would like very much to find out who it was who so generously helped him out of his trouble.

The mishap occurred on Church Street, Dallas, just at the entrance to Old Goss Manor, in front of the Willard E. John, Sr. home.

Would the helpful neighbor please call The Dallas Post?

Prince Of Peace Club Plans Easter Sales
Plans were made for sale of Easter plants and candy at the February meeting of Couples Club, Prince of Peace Church, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lesser, Stone Acres. The Lessers will act as chairmen of flower sale, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Roth, of candy.

Color slides of the Club's Christmas party were shown by Tom Hillier.

Couples present were Rev. and Mrs. William McClelland, Mr. and Mrs. James Besecker Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George Downes, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Naylor, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kozemchak, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hillyer, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Roth and the Lessers.

Dance Friday Night
Westmoreland Boosters are sponsoring a dance Friday night at the Dallas Township building, 7:30 to 10, to raise money for purchase of jackets for the athletes. The affair, originally scheduled for last Friday night, was cancelled because of the blizzard. Mrs. George Hess is chairman.

General scholarships are offered each year by the American Foundation for the Blind to qualified blind students who have been accepted by institutions of higher learning.

An interesting program was presented and enjoyed by; Donna Smith, Debbie Savickas, Sandra Tait, Janet Balshaw, Nancy Covert, Kathy Evans, Lois Frantz, Ruth Haddle, Ruth Hihhins, Linda Johns, Patti Larson, Beverly Roberts and Candy Williams. Mrs. Donald Smith is the leader and Mrs. Harvey Kitchen the Asst. leader.

TROOPS ATTEND CHURCH
Sunday morning, the opening of Girl Scout week, saw many Brownies, Intermediate and Senior Scouts in full uniform attend morning worship in the Churches of their choice. In many services the Scouts took an active part.

It was, indeed, a thrilling sight to see little Brownies and their leaders receive communion as one unit and hear the message from the pastor as well as the blessing, as did many who attended the Little White Church on the Hill in Trucksville.

What better way for Scouts to start "Girl Scout Week" than to attend church in a body.

INGATHERING TODAY
Today at 4 in Dallas Junior High School there will be an "Ingathering" for the Juliette Low fund. Troop 200 will present a skit. Troop 169 will conduct the Flag Ceremony, and the "Round-up" film will be shown.

TROOP 200
Troop 200, Dallas, attended St. Paul's Lutheran Church as the first activity in Girl Scout Week. Attending were Alice Reese, Pat

Marion Dendler Will Marry Roy Tryon Jr. On Saturday

Saturday at 11 a.m., Marion Dendler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dendler of Noxen, will become the bride of Roy Tryon Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tryon Sr., Idetown. Rev. Kenneth O'Neill will perform the double ring ceremony in the parsonage of the Lehman Methodist Church.

Attendants will be Mrs. Louise Hilbert of Beaumont and Roy Verfall of Baltimore, formerly of Dallas.

Following the ceremony, a reception for members of the wedding party and the families will be held at the Bowmans Creek youth Center.

Miss Dendler is a graduate of Monroe Township High School. She is employed at Natona Mill. Mr. Tryon was graduated from Dallas Township High School and attended Pennsylvania State University. He is also employed at Natona Mill.
