Seniors Compete In Mathematics

Examination Was Nation-Wide Test

Twenty-one senior high school students from the Back Mountain eleven from Westmoreland and ten from Lake building of Lake-Lehman Jointure, took a country-wide mathematics test last Thursday during the first two periods. A.M.A. offers scholarships and various prizes and awards for achievement, and the ranking senior in each school wins a mathematics pin.

The test, in algebra and plane geometry, is considered a challenge. Competition is on a purely voluntary basis. At Westmoreland, Louise Prothero is in charge; at Lake, Hazel Baer.

Competing from Westmoreland were: Fred Eck, Clinton Hess, Donald Hopkins, Mary Lane Jerista, Kirk Lannan, Peter Lawson, Marlyne Lipfert, Gordon Lorentz, Lawrence Newhart, Durelle Scott, Arthur Zimmerman.

From Lake: John Arendt, Francis Bebey, Barry Evan, Daniel Grey, Fred Little, Jack Schell, Richard Williams, Gordon Dersheimer, Stephen Shellpac, and Janice Wolfe.

Sportsman Show March 28-April 2

The Pennsylvania Sportsmen's Show will open at the Farm Show Building, Harrisburg, March 28th and run until April 2nd.

John Altland, director of the Show, stated today that this year's Show has more of everything than any previous Show, and in addition, has one of the largest stage and tank acts ever shown at any Sports Show. Included in the arena show will be Jack Sharkey, world champion fly caster; Paul Hahn, world famous golf trick artist; in addition to four other large nationally known acts.

Included in the Show will be the largest boat show ever assembled in the state of Pennsylvania. There will be over one hundred exhibits of the newest and latest in outdoor living and camping equipment. Extra space has been taken at the Farm Show Building to house this year's big Show.

Car Covered By Drifts Completely Blocks Road

Drifts were so high on Greene Road in Kingston Township after last week's storm that they completely covered a stalled and abandoned Dodge Coupe.

The car was discovered when Herman Coon, operating his bulldozer for the Township Supervisors came upon an immovable drift in the middle of the highway. The drift turned out to be the Stritzinger car.

Another tractor had to be called to pull it out before Mr. Coon could continue plowing the road.

It's too bad that the chap who writes the bank ads doesn't also make the loans.

Nothing Like Icicles For Packing Ice Cream

Nothing like using materials at hand... Mrs. Clark Ruch, noting the long icicles hanging from the eaves of her home in Shavertown, cracked them off with a long stick, whacked them up in a gunny sack, and used the nice clean ice for her ice cream freezer. Not having made ice cream for years, but not wanting to waste the plentiful crop of ice, she called around the neighborhood to find a recipe.

Vern Pritchard obliged. There was still some ice left over after the first six quarts of vanilla ice cream were polished off. Mrs. Ruch got around that by grinding up six more quarts of ice-cream, this time made with frozen strawberries from the summer pack.
