 Ronald R. Fitch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fitch, celebrated his nineteenth birthday Saturday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Hay journeyed to Allentown Saturday to shop and look around the town. They returned the same day.
 Mrs. C. S. Heminway is very improved and was able to attend church Sunday.
 There will be no services at Huntsville Methodist Church Sunday due to Annual Wyoming Conference being held at Johnson City. Sunday School will be held as usual. A great number are planning to attend Conference and witness the ordination of their pastor, Rev. Gommer.
 Sunday, "The Witeks" of Chase Manor attended the first holy communion of their niece, Michele Ann Witek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Witek, Dallas, at Gate of Heaven Church. Among the invited guests were: Mrs. John Billows, Madge Billows, Mrs. Mary Billows, Chase; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bruno, Wyoming; Mrs. Stanley Witek and son, and Michael and Edward Poostay, of Plains; Mr. and Mrs. John Opsitos, Newark, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Witek and son, Montclair, N. J.; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruno, Harding and Mrs. Anna Witek, Luzerne.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Frantz returned home after ten days at New Hope.
 Mrs. Robert Scrutsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kitchen, celebrated her birthday on May tenth. She is a teacher at the Lake-Lehman-Noxen High School.
 Bernice Weineckl was confined to her home at Chase Manor last week with mumps. Bernice was scheduled to appear in the play at Gate of Heaven School Sunday and Monday.
 This is the story of a brave little girl, aged twelve.
 She is Marilyn Cragle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Cragle, Chase Corners.
 Marilyn was stricken with polio when she was three, and through the efforts of the Red Cross was admitted to Dupont Hospital at Wilmington, Delaware on August 17, 1959, where she has undergone six operations, three on her feet and three on her back, and is encased in a body cast.
 Mrs. Dupont calls on all of the patients at least once a week.
 A complete school course is given to all the children at their bedside by private tutors.
 Mrs. Dupont also furnishes all the children's clothing. Parents are allowed to visit their children only for a short time on the first Monday of every month.
 Mr. and Mrs. Cragle have been advised by the hospital that half the cast will be removed soon and Marilyn should be able to come home around October 99% cured.
 Let's all pray that this is so and take a little time and send her some cards. Marilyn is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Cragle, Ceasetown.
 Harry Cisco of New Jersey called on his old friend Edward Kocher, who lives in the apartment above his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Fox at Lehman, and greatly cheered him up. Mr. Kocher is in ill health and the visit from his old friend was like a spring tonic.
 Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lamoreaux also visited Mr. and Mrs. Kocher who would appreciate their old friends stopping in to visit.
 Francis J. Krouse, one of our More More township war veterans, has asked all citizens to display the flag on Memorial Day and all occasions which call for the display of the flag. If you don't have a flag, go out and buy one. It is your civic duty proudly to display the flag for which so many gave their lives.
 Donald S. Janosiewicz of 108 Arch Street, Nanticoke, was arrested by Chief of Police, Dennis Bonning, for passing a stopped School Bus at Ceasetown and was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace, Vernon Cease and fined.
 This is a serious offense. This law was made to protect our school children. The law calls for a motorist to stop his car whenever a school bus stops, whether the motorist is approaching it or following it as no one knows in which direction a child may dart.

the intersection of Smith Pond Road and Ceasetown Road Sunday night, when a truck operated by Daniel R. Garver of Hanover Township passed a Stop Sign and was sideswiped by a car operated by Walter Macheniski of Glen Lyon.
 This caused Macheniski's car to spin across the road and strike and badly damage the car driven by Lois Jean Myers of 81 W. Northampton St., Wilkes-Barre.
 All cars were able to leave the scene under their own power. At a hearing held before Justice of the Peace, Vernon Cease, the drivers agreed to settle the damages among themselves. Chief of Police Bonning investigated.

Chickadee Wanted To Be Caught
 If you assumed from the length of my first article that I had told you all I know about MY BIRDS, forget it. That was just a beginning.
 You have undoubtedly seen and heard birds and animals talk on television. Well, my birds are just as smart as any birds in the world and they talk fluently. All you need, to understand them, is a little imagination; without which, life itself can be pretty routine.
 Early last fall, I was standing under the honeysuckle in my back yard when a chick-a-dee scout came in. He landed on the end of a limb close to me and said, quote, "chick-a-dee, chick-a-dee, chick-a-dee-dee," unquote. This translated into, quote, "Hello, old man Allen, I wondered if you would still be here when I got back this Fall".
 I said, "chick-a-dee-dee yourself", which meant to him, "welcome home, hope you had a good summer".
 He went through the chick-a-dee routine again which meant to me, "thanks, I'll be back soon and bring my whole family".
 He was as good as his word; I brought his wife and four kids and I have been feeding them ever since. And I do mean, feeding them, for they will not permit another chick-a-dee to come in and feed. They chase the stranger round and round the honeysuckle bush until he is glad to leave.

 Neither the tree sparrows, the juncos, nor I like the starlings. I keep a loaded 22 rifle near by and when they come in I try to discourage them. Sometimes I get two in line and when the rifle cracks they both like it so well that they stay right where they are.
 Some weeks ago, a flock of starlings came in, so I opened the window, shoved the rifle barrel through and waited for them to get in line. While I was waiting a chick-a-dee lighted on the little table that stands just outside, hopped on the barrel, skittered along it into the room and flew over against the side window where it began to fly up and down the pane.
 I set the rifle down, reached over slowly and instead of the bird flying wildly as one might expect, it settled down on the window sill and let me pick it up. No fuss, no bother.
