The potential power and widespread circulation of the Post were the means which brought two long separated friends together again. Two weeks ago this column carried the news that Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kocher resided in an apartment over their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Fox at Lehman, and that Mr. Kocher was ill and would like to hear from and to receive visits from any of his old friends.

Louis Ranier from Trucksville came across this item and having worked in the mines with Mr. Kocher a good many years ago and having lost track of him, called on Mr. Kocher last week and talked over old times with him. Mr. Ranier's visit made Mr. Kocher feel very good. So you see, when I call for News Items, you never know what will happen. From little acorns, great oaks grow. May many more of Mr. Kocher's friends come to visit him and cheer him up. The power of THE POST cannot be underestimated.

Young Couples Club of Lehman Methodist Church held a Farewell Party for Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth O'Neill, pastor, who has been reassigned. The party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Fox and there were 21 present.
