

Colorful Ceremonies Open New Little League Field

This is only a small part of the crowd that encircled the diamond and took part in the dedication of the new Back Mountain Little League Field Tuesday evening in Dallas Township.

and urged them to show true sportsmanship in playing the game as well as in keeping the field neat, and equipment and uniforms in shape.

Three Bowling Leagues Close Their Season With Dinners

Three leagues from Crown Imperial Bowling Lanes closed the 1959-60 season last week with annual dinners.

NEIGHBORHOOD LEAGUE

A gala affair at Beaumont Inn Thursday night ended the season for Back Mountain Neighborhood Bowling League.

Disque Funeral Home was feted as 1959-60 championship team; Bill Allabaugh, captain; Al Sheckler, Jack Yanik, Tom Cross, Al Bellas, and Nick Buynak received individual trophies.

President George Shurn gave a history of the league, and thanked the sponsors for their cooperation.

Men's Service Station won the trophy as sponsor of the year.

Trophies went to Paul Thomas, 646, high series; Paul Lane, most improved bowler; Sid Fielding, 190.3, high average; Tom Robinson, 256, high single.

Comical awards were given to B. Richardson, Paul Thomas, Carl Roberts, Cecil Titman, Tom Gauntlett.

Amateurs who contributed solos were Dick Disque, Bob Hanson, Jim Gensel, Ed Curey, and Fred Case.

with the name of a team.

The "Merrimakers" played for officers, Cora Finn, president, Mabel Harter, vice-president; Marge Milne, secretary; Kate Newhart, treasurer; Doris Maturi, sergeant-at-arms.

WOMAN'S CLUB HONORS SCHNEIDER

Gert Schneider was especially honored at Dallas Woman's Club Bowling Banquet at Renard's Beaver Run, Tuesday, May 24.

The W. I. B. C. award was a surprise to Gert, as the league had already presented her with a make-shift medal, a bronzed Chevrolet hub cap designed by Betty Stanley.

attached so it could be worn.

Gifts were given to outgoing officers, Cora Finn, president, Mabel Harter, vice-president; Marge Milne, secretary; Kate Newhart, treasurer; Doris Maturi, sergeant-at-arms.

Eleven original members of the league also received gifts of remembrance, Cora Finn, Dot Wileman, Jean Richards, Almenia Evans, Marge Wiley, Eleanor McShea, Mabel Harter, Eleanor Montross, Martha Elston, Thelma Ratcliffe, and Gert Schneider.

Helen Eggleston, Dallas Woman's Club President expressed her delight at the club extending its activities to include a bowling league.

New officers were introduced as president, Mabel Harter, vice-president, Kate Newhart, secretary, Mary Lou Bucan, treasurer, Theresa Graham, sergeant at arms, Dot Wileman.

IDETOWN BEARS DINE

Idetown Bears Bowling League finished the current season with a banquet at Truskas Sportsman Bar and Grille, Harveys Lake, Tuesday, May 24.

Frank Kelmel and Melba Webber awarded trophies to the Cubs, 1959-60 championship team.

John Kriel with a 580 series; Florence Rosenberger, 505; Casey Dimmick, 597; and Becky Casterline, 502 accepted trophies for high series.

Award certificates were issued to many members. To the "best bowlers" went Hall of Shame awards.

Officers for the 1960-61 season are Steve Andrasko, president; Don Watson, vice president; Wilma Weidner, secretary-treasurer.

The summer season is in full swing at Crown Imperial Bowling Lanes with the return of the Red Pin-Silver Dollar special, and Summer Mixed League.

The Women's City Tournament ended Thursday night. Final results of the singles and doubles are not in yet, but many local girls placed near the top of the lists.

The summer league started Tuesday night with ten teams of men and women. This season, the league is called "The T-V League" and the teams are named after television programs.

The Untouchables started ahead with 2390 total pins and a high game of 845. John Davis rolled two games of 204; Al Ciccarelli hit 214; Frank Muchler posted 202 for Mavericks; Ted Kocher, 235 for Hurricanes; and Bob Bellas, 202 and 203, Sugarfoots.

Grace Sickler hit 492, including 179-178 games; Marie Ciccarelli, 162-178; Marie Sebolka, 161; Jewell
