Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Allen To Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Allen, Harveys Lake, will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday, June 26 with open house in the afternoon and evening. No invitations have been issued.

Mrs. Allen is the former Ida Honeywell, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ira T. Honeywell, Luzerne undertakers. Mr. Allen is son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allen of Harveys Lake. Mr. Allen owned and operated a grist mill.

The couple was married, June 23, 1910 at the Honeywell summer home, Warden Place, by the Rev. Vanhosen, pastor of Luzerne Methodist Church and the Rev. C. A. Frick of the Sweet Valley Christian Church. The bride's cousin, Mrs. Harry Montz, now of Kingston, was matron of honor and her sister, Florence Honeywell Watkins of Williamsport and the bridegroom's sister, Alice Allen Woodside, now of Irvington, N.J., were flower girls.

At the time of his marriage, Harry was working at the mill with his Dad, so the couple started house-keeping with his parents. In October of that year, they moved into the house they now occupy. After the sale of the mill, young Harry took the job of rural mail carrier which he held for twenty years. He is now retired.

There are two children, Harry H. of Harveys Lake and Virginia Swanson of Ruggles; also five grandchildren, three Allens and two Swansons.

Mrs. Allen has always taken an active part in community and civic organizations. She is presently teacher of the Adult Woman's Bible Class at Alderson Methodist Church, honorary member of the Harveys Lake Service Woman's Club, member of the W. Pittston D.A.R. of Dallas W.C.T.U. and the Wyoming Valley Art Club. She is past regent of West Pittston D. A. R. Her hobby is collecting antiques.

Mr. Allen is an ardent fisherman and a talented writer. Many of his poems and essays on birds have appeared in the Dallas Post.
