Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen Greet Old Friends At Open House

By Harry Allen

The big event is past and gone, but the memory will linger on, as long as a Gracious God shall give, my wife and me the right to live.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Allen held open house on the event of their 50th wedding anniversary on June 30th.

The sun shone in the sky as well as in our hearts on our wedding day—as it did on our Anniversary. Our grand daughter, Joan Allen Baur, modeled my wife's wedding gown. The ladle used in one of the punch bowls was also used at the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Honeywell, my wife's paternal grandparents.

In 1928 my wife painted a wide gold band on a plate. Little did she think that it would be used as a cake plate at our 50th anniversary. Many of the original wedding gifts were used or were on display.

We wish to thank all our wonderful friends and relatives for making the day such a memorable one, with many beautiful floral tributes as well as lovely and useful gifts which we will treasure as long as we two shall live. Also the many friends who on account of distance could not be here in person but sent beautiful sentiments of good wishes. May God bless you all.

The following attended the wedding in 1910 and were present at the Anniversary Reception:

Mrs. Laura H. Montz, Matron of Honor, Mr. Harry W. Montz, a witness, Mrs. Florence H. Watkins, Flower Girl, Mrs. Mildred Neely Welsh, Mrs. Bessie Neely Hawk, Mrs. Adele H. Shappelle, Miss Ruth E. Lamoreux.

Other guests were: Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ackley, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Watkins, Clarence S. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Allen and John, Mr. and Mrs. Fred V. Swanson, Allen F. Swanson, Timothy F. Swanson, Helen Hunsinger, Mary Montross, Mrs. Harry Reed, Mrs. John Edwards, Mrs. Frances Husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Lamoreaux, Mr. and Mrs. William K. Richards, Frank R.
