League with a perfect 9-0 record will meet Hanover, last season's champs, this Sunday at Dallas Township High School, starting at 2:30

Some of the stars on the fourth place Hanover club who hold a 5-4 mark this season are: Mike Dydo, ex-Wilkes College footballer and most valuable baseball performer for that institution in 1959, and Ken Welgoss, who has played pro ball in the Eastern League. Ken is manager of Hanover and has trouble fielding a strong team for every game this year, however he promises to give Dallas one of their roughest afternoons to date. Besides Welgoss and Dydo, Mac Mack handles first base, with two strong outfields in R. Raymond who poled eight homers last year, and Ron Kushinski who rates as one of the better hitters in the loop. On the hill for Hanover will probably be
