Twelfth Annual Roushey Reunion

The twelfth annual reunion of the Peter B. Roushey family was held at Wolfes Grove, Saturday, July 23, 1960. A picnic dinner was served at 4 p. m. after which a meeting and election of officers was held. The meeting was in charge of President Peter R. Roushey with 40 members present and friends.

The officers were retained for the next two years: Pres. Peter R. Roushey and Mrs. Albert J. Koerber Sr. with Mrs. Harry Martin Sr. as secretary and treasurer.

The next reunion will be held at Wolfes Grove the fourth Saturday in July 1961 with dinner at 2 p. m.

The family traveling the greatest distance was Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Roushey, Curtiss and Linda of Delaware.

The oldest member present was B. J. Roushey of Dallas.

There were three marriages: John Roushey to Judy Roberts, January 23, 1960; Charles Richard Donahue to Sue Ann Fine, May 31, 1960; Eleanor Ann Heckman to Dean Davis, June 11, 1960.

Old friends and neighbors gathered yesterday to pay their respects to Edward Gaynor, 79, well-loved native of Harveys Lake, who passed away at 8 Sunday morning, at his home, following a short illness. Services were held from Glova Funeral Home at 2.

Interment was in St. Nicholas Cemetery, Shavertown, with Rev. Russell Lawry officiating.

Pallbearers were: Louis Sax, Anthony Sax, Stanley Kapsen, Albert Gultias, Clarence Shupp, and John Kern.

Flower carriers: Edwin Kern, Raymond Kern, Ronald Sikorski, Maurio Sax, and Leon Kern.

Born at Harveys Lake, son of the late Edward and Louisa Kocher Gaynor. Mr. Gaynor would have celebrated his eightieth birthday yesterday.

The Gaynor family dates back to 1875 when Mr. Gaynor's father, Edward, Sr., came from Ireland to establish one of the first farms at Harveys Lake, which the Gaynor family has farmed ever since.

Residents of Alderson will miss seeing Edward Gaynor taking his frequent walks along the lake road on his way to church, or just to get some fresh air. Everyone who knew him loved to stop and chat, for Mr. Gaynor was well-read and very interesting. Until his heart condition tied him down, he liked to take the bus to Wilkes-Barre every Thursday just to browse.

Edward Gaynor married the former Katherine Kern, Harveys Lake, and they have one son, William, but over the course of years, they have taken into their home five other boys, orphaned, or from broken

Explorer Scouts Encounter Wet Weather On Susquehanna Paddle

Ten Explorer Scouts accompanied by three men completed their paddle down the Susquehanna from Athens last Saturday, landing at North Street bridge in Kingston shortly after lunch. They were transported home to Shavertown, canoes atop cars, by Mrs. John Butler, Mrs. Michael Chadwick, Mrs. Chester Nesbitt, Mrs. John Szela, and Mrs. John Malloy, the same mothers who furnished transportation for boys and canoes to Athens five days earlier.

Canoes are back in the Butler yard on Ridge Street, ready for a final going-over before being stored for the winter.

Instead of the burning sun of last year, when Explorers paddled down to Sunbury from Renova, along the Western branch of the Susquehanna, boys had wet weather this year for almost the entire distance. One day, it was so windy and wet that the Rockin Robin plunged its nose beneath the waves and supplies started to float, necessitating a stop along the shore.

This is the third trip and the longest that Explorers have taken on the Susquehanna. It has become an institution. Twelve year old John Butler Jr., is looking forward to the summer when he will be fourteen; and able to go on the long paddle. Younger brothers of the other boys, now in Boy Scout work, are equally anxious.

John Butler's troop is a troop with a program, ready to take its place in the community to help out with any worth-while project.

homes, and in Mr. Gaynor's own words, "all grew up to be fine men."

The Gaynor farm, behind the Daniel Roberts Fire House at one time took in about 70 acres, but in recent years some of the land has been sold for cottages.

Mr. Gaynor was a member of Alderson Methodist Church and Harveys Lake Volunteer Fire Co. He leaves his wife, Katherine Kern Gaynor, Harveys Lake, son, William J. Gaynor, Apalachin, N. Y., five foster sons, Stanley Kapsen, Pottsville, Anthony Sax, New York City; Maurio Sax, Lancaster; Louis Sax, serving with the U. S.
