By DORIS MALLIN

Four lucky people have claimed Black Beauty Bowling balls at Crown Imperial Lanes since Bob Hanson started giving them away Sunday nights. Two winners failed to claim their prize. Estimating individual scores has proved to be a lot of fun and quite rewarding. Twenty-six bowlers have hit their estimates "on the nose" and walked off with the Five Silver Dollar prize.

Bill Allabaugh walked out of the lanes on Sunday as the proud winner of a new ball, bag, and shoes when he rolled a 274 game. The person who holds number 159052 this week can claim the next bowling ball at Crown Imperial.

Another four-timer for Dallas Nursery in CROWN MAJOR LEAGUE Friday; this time West Side Novelty fell by the wayside as N. Stredny hit 213 (614); C. Garris 212 (581) and F. Kardell 204 (566).

Shavertown Lumber downed Berti & Son for 3 points; Berti's never got out of low gear. Stair 200 (540) did everything for the Truckers as Cross 217 (546); Berkeiser 230 (523) and Kamont 188 (518) were enough to stall the opposition. Roy Stair says, "Berti's have backed up far enough to get a good start; just wait until we take the lid off the 'can'!"

for the Nursery for a total of 2746. Panunti 234 (588) and C. Williams 200 (578) had little help during the evening as West Siders came home empty-handed.

Phillips Supply dropped 3 to Vanderhoff Sanders as Vandy's took first two games on 207 (574) by Adams; 188 (535) Shoemaker; and 203 (518) by Stevens. Phillips Supply eked out last game by 2 sticks. Reese 203 (534); Yanik 191 (516) and Gauntlett 199 (516).

Emmanuel at 523 and Seiple 501. Dallas A swept through Carverton A 4-0. Al Bellas led A's with 555; Cross had 550; Scheckler 538; and Cliff Garris 510. Platt had 525 for Carverton.

Wreckers won 3 points from Crispell's by taking two games and total pins by 3. Jack Trudnak, high for the night, with 179-200-202 (581) led the Wreckers' assault. Joe Shalata 232 (512) and Bob Moore 529 helped the Farm Service team win first game.

Trucksville C remained in third by taking 3 from Trucksville A. C's had 536; 514 and Wardell 502. Rundle's 542 was high for A's. Dallas B continued its climb taking all 4 from Orange. B's had Cairns 556; Job Moore 559; Gauntlett 523 and Ralph Garris 513.
