Poster Girl

From Rev. William Howard, pastor of Lehman, Idetown Charge, comes a release on a timely Christmas subject.

Methodist Student-Nurse, Miss Lynn Thompson is the Poster-Girl of Methodist Hospital of Brooklyn this year. Her picture, holding one of the 2,800 babies born annually at Methodist, will appear in more than 2,000 Methodist Churches at Christmas.

For more than three quarters of a century this Hospital has been sending Red Stockings to Sunday School students for the collection of dimes for medical work with children. This year 180,000 stockings have been sent out.

Christmas Seals this year also picture Miss Thompson and the baby. These go to Methodist adults and their money gifts buy the new buildings and equipment needed for development of the famous Methodist Hospital. One of the projects at Methodist this year is expansion of the Premie Nurseries.

Some babies are born too soon and these premature babies must have many weeks of highly skilled and expensive care.

Not only are patients of every race and creed found in the 500 rooms at Methodist but many patients, including pastor's families, come from the communities served by the 2,000 Methodist Churches of the six states surrounding New York City.

Children of the Lehman-Idetown Charge are filling red stockings.

Scouts To Stage Nativity At Veterans Hospital

Services Yesterday For Mrs. Anna Bloschok

Mrs. Anna Bloschok, who died Friday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Engler of Harveys Lake RD., was buried yesterday morning following services from the home and a mass of requiem at St. Mary's Greek Rite Catholic Church in Kingston.

Mrs. Bloschok, a native of Austria-Hungary, came to America in 1904, settling in Larksville. Ten years ago she moved to Harveys Lake, two years after the death of her husband Peter. A son John died last year in Bridgeport, Conn.

Two daughters survive, Mrs. Engler and Sister M. Dionysia, of Montclair, N. J.; a granddaughter, Dolores Bloschok, Bridgeport.

Girl Scout Troop 200 Lays Christmas Plans

Girl Scout Troop 200 will sing Christmas carols December 22 at two convalescent homes as well as around the Christmas tree in Dallas.

Mrs. Fred Davies, Michelle's mother, has been working with some of the girls on sewing.

Ann Barnes and Pat Bauman have almost completed the Bird Badge after weeks of identifying birds and a visit to Frank Jackson at Harveys Lake. They have a display of information on birds at Dallas Water Company.

Nancy Davis, working on her game badge, taught the troop a new game, and gave a report on Indians for her Dabbling Badge.

Betty Lamoreaux has completed her Second Class Rank and is now qualified to work on badges for her First Class.

Nancy Davis and Sandra Turner were elected Juliette Low Representatives for the meeting on Monday at Dallas Methodist Church.

The troop has made a Christmas ornament for the tree at the Girl Scout Office in Wilkes-Barre, and is working on a model of the Honor Roll also to be displayed during the Christmas Season.

Mrs. Beula J. Aten Native Of Harveys Lake

A former resident of Harveys Lake, Mrs. Beula Aten, died Monday morning at the hospital in Endicott, N. Y. She was buried in the Vestal Hills Cemetery yesterday, with Rev. Smith D. VanAuken, pastor of Calvary Church of which she was a member, officiating.

Mrs. Aten, 66, succumbed after a short illness.

Her parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Josiah T. Kocher, of Harveys Lake.
