This reporter has come across one occupation, that is not overcrowded. In fact, it is as scarce as the proverbial 'hen's teeth'. You would never have guessed it. I inquired of all the meat packers and poultry dealers in the city where I could find a goose that would dress around 18 to 20 pounds. I couldn't find a dealer who even had a "Goose." It might pay some of you enterprising farmers to raise some "Geese" for the holiday trade. I understand they make excellent watchmen while they are readying themselves for the market. A tip to the wise is sufficient.

Harold Bertram has one of the few Color T. V. sets in the Township and as has been his custom, he and Mrs. Bertram invited the following to be their guests on New Year's Day to view the beautiful Rose Bowl Pageant with all of its colorful floats.
