

Purely Personal

Russell Dodd, Harveys Lake, is a patient at Geisinger Hospital, Danville.

Ronald Maturi, Pennsylvania State senior student, returned to the campus last Tuesday, after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maturi, on Sutton Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Sev Newberry report that it's cold in Deland Florida, too, with a bird bath frozen three days before Christmas, down to thirty at night, up to 60 in the daytime.

Richard Ceasby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ceasby, Trucksville, is back with his ship, the USS Sierra, based at Norfolk, Virginia, after spending the holidays with his parents.

The new addition to the William Robbins home on Staub Road is getting its finishing touches, including a much expanded kitchen.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Sordani left yesterday by air for their home at 560 Bay Road, Miami Beach, Florida. Their friends will be glad to know that they are both considerably improved.

Mrs. Lewis LeGrand, Baldwin Street is a patient at General Hospital.

Stanley Doll, who has been bothered with an infected foot since before Election Day is showing improvement at Carpenter Convalescent Home.

Mrs. Dorothy Banta and daughter, Dianne, have returned to their home in Bladensburg, Md., after spending the holidays at the home of Mrs. Banta's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Udyke, South Pioneer Avenue, Trucksville, and her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Udyke, Davis Street, Trucksville.

Mrs. Earl Monk resumed her duties at Pennsylvania School for the Deaf over the weekend after spending the holidays at her home on Pinecrest Avenue, Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Poad and daughter, Ann "Candy" of Palmyra and Mrs. Fred Poad of Kingston spent New Year's holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Evans, Shavertown. "Candy" celebrated her seventh birthday on January 9.

Byron Kitchen, superintendent of production for Pressed Steel Company, will return today from California where he was on business for his company. While there he spent some time with his son, Arthur, and family, who have been in California for the past four years. Mrs. Kitchen expects to fly out in February to spend a month with her son's family.

Joseph MacVeigh, general manager of Pressed Steel Company, retired from the position on January 1.

Mrs. Maude Eipper who is now with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ockenhouse, 174 Moeller Street, Binghamton, sends good wishes for the New Year to all her old friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Calkins and Susan and Heidi have moved from 6 Keller Lane, Trucksville, to their new home on Harris Hill Road. Mr. Calkins is in the automatic stoker service business.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Scanlon, Pioneer Avenue, have as house guest Mrs. Scanlon's mother, Mrs. Jules Letjune, from Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Rearick and Miss Alice Boyde of Berwick were Saturday guests of Miss Bess Kline-tob, Sweet Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lamoreaux, Sweet Valley R. D. 1, have announced the birth of a son at Nesbitt Hospital on January 10.

Mrs. Ray Warden, Shavertown, has been a patient in General Hospital for the past month. She would appreciate cards and notes from her friends. Address her, seventh floor.

Herbert A. Ward, Idetown, is back at his manager's desk at Dallas Acme Supermarket, after an extended time spent in convalescing from a major operation.

Richard Higgs, 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Higgs, Demunds Road, missed by an eyelash being designated as a Marine Corps guard for Washington, D. C., duty. One of six chosen from 80 possibilities, eligible because of physical fitness, military bearing, and seriousness of purpose at Parris Island, S. C., he was eliminated because he lacked the required height of exactly five feet ten inches.

Mr. and Mrs. James Besecker, Jr., guests at the Dallas Motel since shortly after their home in East Dallas was badly damaged by fire early in December, expect to be back in their own home within two weeks.

Mrs. Mary Fedor, Lehman, has rented her home to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cragle and will leave shortly to spend the winter in Newark, N. J. with her son Joseph and family.

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Josuweit Sr. were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Simon, Shavertown and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Achuff, Trucksville.

Mrs. Faye Brown, Lehman Heights, has returned to her home after being a pneumonia patient at Nesbitt Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shober of Hancock, N. Y., are spending the winter with their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Coolbaugh.

Mrs. Howard Caperoon, Franklin Street, Dallas, left Tuesday for Philadelphia where she will submit to hospital tests. She expects to return on Saturday.

Neighborhood News And Notes Of Personal Interest

Hospital Auxiliary Plans Anniversary

Two new members, Mrs. Henry Moyer and Mrs. Lyman Lull, were welcomed at the meeting of Nesbitt Hospital Auxiliary held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church on Friday when extensive plans for the fiftieth anniversary of the hospital were made.

Business consisted of report by Mrs. Fred Eck that 180 persons are participating in the bridge marathon; that thirty nine puppets were distributed in December, bringing the total to 4,429; announcement that Frank Wadas will speak on the "Hard of Hearing Handicapped" at the February meeting; distribution of premium books; reading of new by-laws.

Mrs. W. F. Newberry entertained with slides of her trip to South America, Africa, Egypt.

Present were Mesdames: Charles Gardener, Paul Priebe, John Plumer, Jack Barnes, Albert Armitage, Raymond Greenwood, Gertrude Gianuzzi, John A. Girvan, Clarence Elston, John Henninger, C. S. Hem-enway, Leon Beisel, William Newberry, Florence C. Finney, Shel-don Bennett, Robert Shepherd, Henry C. Moyer, Lyman S. Lull, Carl Hontz, Walter Shaver, Clara Betts, Franklin Hawk, Karl Kast, Wm. A. Thomas, A. M. Travis, Charles Palmer, George Dodson, H. H. Rymer, Edward Gilroy, Fred Eck, Charles Sprekel, Joseph Marsh, H. C. Myers, Ward Jacquish, Harvey Kitchen, Austin Line, Dominic Merolla, Hulda, Pedersen, George L. Rice, John Eck, Mae Bit-tender, Edith Templin and Miss Lima Garinger, Miss Florence Rave.

Stanley Doll, who has been bothered with an infected foot since before Election Day is showing improvement at Carpenter Convalescent Home.

Mrs. Dorothy Banta and daughter, Dianne, have returned to their home in Bladensburg, Md., after spending the holidays at the home of Mrs. Banta's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Udyke, South Pioneer Avenue, Trucksville, and her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Udyke, Davis Street, Trucksville.

Mrs. Earl Monk resumed her duties at Pennsylvania School for the Deaf over the weekend after spending the holidays at her home on Pinecrest Avenue, Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Poad and daughter, Ann "Candy" of Palmyra and Mrs. Fred Poad of Kingston spent New Year's holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Evans, Shavertown. "Candy" celebrated her seventh birthday on January 9.

Byron Kitchen, superintendent of production for Pressed Steel Company, will return today from California where he was on business for his company. While there he spent some time with his son, Arthur, and family, who have been in California for the past four years. Mrs. Kitchen expects to fly out in February to spend a month with her son's family.

Joseph MacVeigh, general manager of Pressed Steel Company, retired from the position on January 1.

Mrs. Maude Eipper who is now with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ockenhouse, 174 Moeller Street, Binghamton, sends good wishes for the New Year to all her old friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Calkins and Susan and Heidi have moved from 6 Keller Lane, Trucksville, to their new home on Harris Hill Road. Mr. Calkins is in the automatic stoker service business.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Scanlon, Pioneer Avenue, have as house guest Mrs. Scanlon's mother, Mrs. Jules Letjune, from Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Rearick and Miss Alice Boyde of Berwick were Saturday guests of Miss Bess Kline-tob, Sweet Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lamoreaux, Sweet Valley R. D. 1, have announced the birth of a son at Nesbitt Hospital on January 10.

Mrs. Ray Warden, Shavertown, has been a patient in General Hospital for the past month. She would appreciate cards and notes from her friends. Address her, seventh floor.

Herbert A. Ward, Idetown, is back at his manager's desk at Dallas Acme Supermarket, after an extended time spent in convalescing from a major operation.

Richard Higgs, 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Higgs, Demunds Road, missed by an eyelash being designated as a Marine Corps guard for Washington, D. C., duty. One of six chosen from 80 possibilities, eligible because of physical fitness, military bearing, and seriousness of purpose at Parris Island, S. C., he was eliminated because he lacked the required height of exactly five feet ten inches.

Mr. and Mrs. James Besecker, Jr., guests at the Dallas Motel since shortly after their home in East Dallas was badly damaged by fire early in December, expect to be back in their own home within two weeks.

Mrs. Mary Fedor, Lehman, has rented her home to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cragle and will leave shortly to spend the winter in Newark, N. J. with her son Joseph and family.

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Josuweit Sr. were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Simon, Shavertown and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Achuff, Trucksville.

Mrs. Faye Brown, Lehman Heights, has returned to her home after being a pneumonia patient at Nesbitt Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shober of Hancock, N. Y., are spending the winter with their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Coolbaugh.

Mrs. Howard Caperoon, Franklin Street, Dallas, left Tuesday for Philadelphia where she will submit to hospital tests. She expects to return on Saturday.

Linda Ruth Franklin Marries Alan R. Root On November 19

Saturday, November 19, Linda Ruth Franklin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Franklin, 62 Railroad Street, Kingston, became the bride of Alan Raymond Root, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Root, Franklin Street, Dallas. Rev. C. L. Andrews performed the double ring ceremony in Luzerne Methodist Church before an altar lighted with tall tapers and banked with white mums and ferns. Leona Austin played the wedding music.

Attendants were Marian Jolly Pringle of Courtdale and James Oplinger, Trucksville.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore floor length gown of white chiffon styled with redingote, long tight sleeves tapered at the wrist and mandarin collar. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from

Albert Rays Are Hosts At Christmas Party

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ray, Sweet Valley, entertained at a family party at their home on Christmas Eve. Santa arrived and distributed gifts. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Martin, Jackie, Cathy, Lorraine, Trucksville; Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Holcomb, Williamsport; Karla, Kevin, Barry, Shawn Holcomb and Grace Ann Ray, the host and hostess.

The Holbrooks spent the holidays with the Rays.

Local Women Serve With Junior League

Local women serving on committees for the Junior League Regional Conference yesterday and today at Hotel Sterling include among the recorders Mrs. Charles Frantz and Mrs. John Ruggles; registration, Mrs. Prentice Lacy and Mrs. A. H. Coon Jr.; Education, Mrs. Gabriel Klem.

On the hospitality committee: Mesdames William Gritman, Charles Flaek, Richard Maslow, George Carey, Robert Evans, Louis Jones, Fred Maier, Richard Heison, and Paul Rodda.

Mrs. Richard Demmy is conference co-chairman; Mrs. John Robinson Jr. in charge of publicity; Mrs. Donald Davis, hospitality chairman. The Wilkes-Barre League is hostess to 75 delegates.

Linda Lee Taylor

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Taylor, Beaumont, announce the birth of a nine pound, nine ounce baby girl, Linda Lee, at General Hospital on January 3. They have four other children, Dora, eighteen, Dianne, fourteen, Donald, eleven, Barbara Sue, three.

Mrs. Taylor is the former Louise DeRemer of Vernon. Mr. Taylor hauls new cars from factories.

Marriage resembles a pair of shears, so joined so that they can't be separated, often moving in opposite directions, yet punishing anyone who tries to come between them.

son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Pavlick, Pinecrest Avenue, Dallas. He is salesman for Prentice Hall Publishing Company.

Here For Holidays

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Gail Shaver and daughter Linda, Flushing, N.Y., spent the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Shaver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Wilemann, Church Street, Mr. Shaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Shaver, is a creative writer with McKann-Erickson Advertising Agency in New York City. He is a graduate of Dallas Borough High School and Penn State University.

Stephen Radonavitch

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Radonavitch, Chase, announce the birth of a six pound baby boy, Stephen Robert, at Nesbitt Hospital on January 9. This is their first child.

Mrs. Radonavitch is the former Patricia Hilgert, daughter of Mrs. William Hilgert of Chase. Mr. Radonavitch is son of Mrs. Josephine Radonavitch of Chase. Mother and son will return to their home over the weekend.

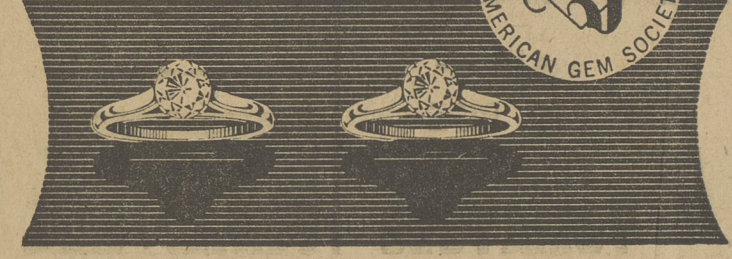

Karen Ann Pavlick

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Pavlick, Lehman, announce the birth of a seven pound, eight ounce baby girl, Karen Ann, at General Hospital on January 4. They have a little boy, Stephen, aged two.

Mrs. Pavlick is the former Theresa Chukinas. Mr. Pavlick is Helpful Information

REGISTERED JEWELER
AMERICAN GEM SOCIETY

if you're about to buy a diamond...

Our half-carat diamonds range in price from $275. to $375. But you can't judge their value just by "looking." To accurately evaluate a diamond you need gemological experience and the proper instruments. So isn't it plain good sense to rely on a trusted jeweler to guide you to a wiser diamond purchase? To back up your faith in our store we have earned the coveted title, Registered Jeweler, granted by the non-profit American Gem Society. Your assurance of our unquestioned integrity and thorough gemological training.

• PAYMENTS MAY BE ARRANGED

FRANK CLARK
REGISTERED JEWELER
AMERICAN GEM SOCIETY
63 South Main Street Wilkes-Barre

Kingston Girl Engaged To John Q. Yagle 2nd

Announcement has been made of the engagement of John Q. Yagle 2nd, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Yagle, Goss Manor, and Barbara Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Okrasinski of Ridge Avenue, Kingston. No date has been met for the wedding.

Miss Okrasinski is a graduate of Kingston High School. She is employed by the F. W. Woolworth Company in the Narrows Shopping Center. Mr. Yagle was graduated from Dallas Franklin High School and attended Pennsylvania State University. He is employed by the Eastern Pennsylvania Supply Company in Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. Franklin, mother of the bride, selected plum colored street dress, gray accessories and shoulder bouquet of white mums and Mrs. Root, mother of the bridegroom, Dior blue sheath, matching accessories and pink mums. Mrs. Flossie Austin, grandmother of the bride, wore navy street dress, matching accessories, and white mums.

Beverly Anne Crispell To Marry S. Ray Wandel

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Crispell of Harveys Lake announce the engagement of their daughter, Beverly Anne, to S. Ray Wandel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wandel of Noxen.

Miss Crispell is a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School and Wyoming Seminary School of Business. She is employed as a secretary by the Shoemaker Adjustment Agency of Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. Wandel, who is also a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School, is employed as an installer by the Commonwealth Telephone Company of Dallas.

A June wedding is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Bonning Sr. To Celebrate 40th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Bonning Sr., has been constable for the past thirty two years and is now also chief of police in the area. He is a member of the Back Mountain Police Association. He is an avid hunter and got his deer almost every year but this one. There are two children, Mrs. Edward Wilcox, North Collins, N. Y., who has three children, Patsy, Barbara and Chucky, and Dennis Jr., with Beverly and Dennis 3rd.

The Bonnings are looking forward to their anniversary and expect to have a whale of a celebration after Friday the 13th when Dad Bonning is out of the hospital and back in circulation!

Mrs. Bonning is the former Margaret Booth of Plymouth. Mr. Bonning came from West Nanticoke. The couple was married in the Evangelical parsonage at West Nanticoke by the late Rev. A. C. Palhamis and started house keeping there, later moving to Lehman, where Mr. Bonning commuted to his work in the mines. Thirty five years ago the couple built and moved into the home they now occupy in Jackson Township and Mr. Bonning became associated with the Spring Brook Water Company, serving the Nanticoke and Wilkes-Barre areas.

The Bonnings have always taken a lively interest in affairs of the community. Mrs. Bonning has served as president of the W.S.C.S. of the Jackson Methodist Church, as superintendent of the Sunday School, and is presently secretary of the Sunday School. She is also an active member of Jackson Fire Company Auxiliary. Her avocation is her grandchildren.

Mr. Bonning is a charter member of the Jackson Fire Company and served as its first Fire Chief. He

ANN'S APPAREL
Bennett Street
LUZERNE

JANUARY CLEARANCE

- SWEATERS
- SKIRTS
- DRESSES

Large Selection of Dresses from $5. up.
Skirts in Wool - Velvet - Tweeds - Plaids
All Sizes - All Colors from $4. up.
OUR NATIONALLY ADVERTISED FASHIONS ARE INCLUDED IN THIS SALE.
"at the light - corner Bennett & Main"

SPECIAL GROUP SUITS
Drastically Reduced

GAVY'S SUPERMARKET

MAIN HIGHWAY
FREE DELIVERY

TRUCKSVILLE, PA.
ORCHARD 4-7161

FRYERS
27^c
3 LB. AVERAGE

BOILED HAM
89^c LB.

HORMEL SLICED BACON
1 lb. Package
59^c

NESSCAFE
10 oz. Jar
$1.29
New Low Price!

Bon-Ami
LIQUID CLEANER
39^c Qt. Bottle

KRAFT VELVEETA CHEESE
2 lb. Box
79^c

PERSONAL IVORY SOAP
12 BARS
79^c

SOLID SLICING TOMATOES
2 PKGS. 29^c

ASSORTED FLAVORS JELLO
4 Boxes 39^c

Our New Year Resolution "We Will Not Be Undersold"

GAVY'S SUPERMARKET
MAIN HIGHWAY - TRUCKSVILLE
OR 4-7161