Truman Stewart Returns To Saudi Arabia Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Stewart of Stroudsburg spent some time last week with Mrs. Stewart's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Ira Button.

Formerly of Dallas where he was foreman for The Dallas Post until 1936, Mr. Stewart has been employed in Saudi Arabia since 1953 by the Bechtel Corporation in the pipeline business.

He returned to his duties there Tuesday by air from New York.

Commenting on temperatures in the desert, he said the highest he recalls was 145 degrees.

Dallas Post Story Smokes Out Cutter

"What do you mean, you haven't seen a horse drawing a cutter this winter?"

Mrs. Anthony Bogdon, Machell Avenue, read her Dallas Post Thursday afternoon, and then she called up, to correct the impression that Back Mountain folks are fresh out of horses and cutters.

On New Years Day, directly after a snowfall, Glenn Coolbaugh loaded his cutter onto a truck and drove from Lehman to Dallas.

Arrived at the Bogdon's, he helped hitch the Bogdon mare, My Fair Lady, to the cutter, and for several hours sleighbells rang in the area, down the back road to Huntsville reservoir, and around and about the rural roads.

Mr. Coolbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Bogdon, and ten-year old Connie, enjoyed the sleigh ride.

How did they all get into the cutter? They didn't. They took turns.

Footloose Pussy Returns Home After Two Months

Mrs. F. G. Strohl's beautiful black tomcat is home again, after a period of sharing its time between the Library and Maureen Kelly, across Main Street.

When the Strohls moved to Church Street from Meadowcrest the cat preferred Trucksville, and kept going back to his former haunts. The Strohls picked him up, time after time. One day he was not there to be picked.

That was when he approached Miriam Lathrop at the Library. Miriam knew that Maureen Kelly had been hoping to adopt a cat and had been putting out food as bait. Maureen and Miss Lathrop got together.

Mrs. Strohl, taking elementary education at College Misericordia, was assigned a practice teaching stint with Miss Kelly.

Miss Kelly inquired, "Are you all moved and settled?"

Mrs. Strohl said, "All but the cat."

Miss Kelly said, "I've got the prettiest black cat you ever saw. It just came to me."

Mrs. Strohl's cat is the footloose type, beginning its wanderings three years ago when the William Hopkins family shipped it from their former home in South Dakota. It lived with them on Carverton Road until they moved back to the mid-West. The Strohls acquired it when the Hopkinses figured it was too advanced in years to take kindly to another trip in a freight car.

Mrs. Herman Thomas, president of the Book Club, reported membership greater than ever. The Club will play an active part in the Auction and will serve refreshments at the Annual Meeting of the Association next week.

The resignation from the Board of Mary Weir, who played a leading part in the early group that organized the Library, was accepted with regret. It was also reported that another of the pioneers, Mrs. Lewis LeGrand, is still a patient at General Hospital.

Howard Risley suggested the organization of a Record Club along the lines of the Book Club and similar to those operated by Scranton and Osterhout libraries. The Library has a large collection of records but they are not being circulated.

Risley suggested that interest could be stimulated by having each member of the Record Club contribute one long playing record as his annual dues thus assuring a continual supply of current records.

On the recommendation of Homer Moyer, treasurer and chairman of the personnel committee, the Board voted an increase in salaries for three employees amounting to a total of $1,000 annually. Henceforth no employee will receive less than $1 per hour.

Attending the meeting were: Robert Bachman, Mrs. Fred Howell, Mrs. Gerald Stout, Miss Miriam Lathrop, Mrs. Thomas Heffernan, Mrs. H. W. Smith, Mrs. Harold Titman, Miss Francis Dorrance, Frank Slaff, Frederick Eck, Ralph Hazeltine, Mrs. Herman Thomas, D. T. Scott, Howard Risley, Stefan Hellersperk, Mrs. Stanley Davies, Jr., Mrs. Paul Gross, Dr. Lester Jordan, Mrs. Hansford Eckman and Homer Moyer.

Hendricks To Speak To PTA

Fritz Hendricks, supervising principal of Governor Mifflin High School in Shillington, will speak next Thursday evening at the Dallas Township PTA meeting. His topic will be "The Role of the PTA in Securing Quality Education in the Schools."

Mr. Hendricks, former supervising principal of Lehman schools in the period before the jointure, was closely allied with civic enterprises in the Back Mountain. One of his main interests was the Library Auction. He served, as a member of the Library Board.

Last summer, he was much in the news as father of Miss Pennsylvania. His daughter, Priscilla, entering the contest for fun, with no thought of being chosen, easily won the crown for Pennsylvania, and ranked high in the contest for Miss America at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Stanley S. Davies, president, announces that the PTA meeting will start at 8:30, to allow time in advance for parents to meet with teachers in their rooms, from 7:30 to 8:30.

Vassar College Centennial Spotlights Higher Education

Vassar College will celebrate its centennial this week, fifth of the colleges which pioneered in education for women.

Local women who have a special interest in the centennial include these alumnae: Miss Frances Dorrance, Mrs. Harry Ruggles, Jr., Mrs. James Robinson, Mrs. Stanley Davies and her sister Miss Anna Kutzner (a summer resident), Mrs. Newell Schooley, and Mrs. Charles Frantz.

Higher education for women was once bitterly opposed. It remained for Mt. Holyoke and Georgia Female College to pave the way in 1836; for Oberlin to accept four women students the following year; and for Elmira College to open in 1855.

Vassar College was the result of a gift of $408,000 from Matthew Vassar of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., in 1861. Because of onset of the Civil War, classes did not open until 1865.

More than a million women at the present day are enrolled in institutions of higher learning in America.

Accidents don't just happen. They are caused. — DRIVE SAFELY
