WHEN PLANNING FAMILY BUDGETS

In preparing the family financial budget it is important to allot sums to the different items in direct relation to their importance, and to make sure that we do not let over indulgence influence us in our planning.

Also, in budgeting the hours of the week, month and year, for the building of a rich, well rounded life we must not be niggardly in the portion of time we allot to the Church—where our spiritual lives are to be trained and nurtured. The oft quoted statement that "we get out of anything in proportion to what we put into it," certainly holds true for the building of a faith as much as it does for material things.

If we give freely of our attendance and service to the church we will rejoice and be rewarded in leading peaceful, worthwhile lives. We will draw from our Church in proportion to what we give it.

speakers and singers are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bachanan of The Endicott Gospel Team and Mrs. Beth Hankinson, also from the Triple Cities area. These are public services and all are cordially invited to attend.
