Watch It! This Water Is As Soft As Rain.

For those patrons of the new Laundercenter in Shavertown who found themselves knee-deep in soapuds on Saturday, Mrs. Elizabeth Worneck, owner-operator, offers a word of advice:

Soft water takes far less soap than the hard water found in the households of the Back Mountain. All the water used at the Laundercenter is as soft as rainwater. Hold down on the quantity of soap, she says.

Gas dryers are now in correct operation. During the trial period last weekend, vents had not yet been installed, and oxygen was soon exhausted.
