The excitement has died down after Sunday's big event, All Star Tournament, and everything is back to normal at Crown Imperial Lanes. We are all proud of our representation in the tournament and even more so of the outcome when three of our Crown Imperial girls placed in the top five. Congratulations, girls!

Last week's winner of the Black Beauty Ball was Tom Hops, Huntsville, Dallas. It could be you this week! Do you have number 815958? Shoemaker Has Big Series Vanderhoff's also had Adams hitting 199 (539) and Birstock 181 (534) and for Phillips it was, in addition to Reese's score, Gauntlett 224 (552); Lyons 204 (544); Yanik 203 (543) and B. Moore 187 (526).

making up a team total of 2757 pins. Dallas Post copped 4 from Gosart's with good series rolled by Frank Muchler 213 (576); Bruce Varner 202 (572) and Knecht 207 (553) for the Printers. Yankoski 197 (557) and Ciccarelli 214 (552) were high for Gosart's as they failed to bring home a point.

For the "gassers", it was Coolbaugh 202 (569); Montross 223 (562) and Buynak 220 (562). (Al Bellas had to settle the coffee bill again.)

Shavertown Lumber and Bert's came up with the most exciting match of the evening when Bert's took first game by 9 and then lost the second by 8. Bert's went into the last heat leading by 1 stick; won third game by 2 pins, taking two games and total pins by 3. For Bert's, it was C. Allabaugh 189 (532); Stair 193 (527); B. Dallas Dairy Is On Top

An upset occurred in BACK MT. NEIGHBORHOOD League last week when Dallas Dairy, Disque, Payne and Shadyside each took 4 from their opponents. MR. PROPERTY OWNER: WOULD YOU DRIVE YOUR CAR WITHOUT OIL IN THE MOTOR?

Of course not! You'd ruin the motor! Yet you and many other property owners 'drive' your property for years without proper maintenance, service and inspection. You invest thousands of dollars in homes and rental property. Then you permit the buildings to stand for years without paint to protect your investment from rain, snow, sun, wind and storm.

Yes, rents may be low and your income less than reasonable. But don't you want to save the value of that property, keep it from deteriorating so you will have something valuable to rent at a fair price when rent ceilings no longer exist?

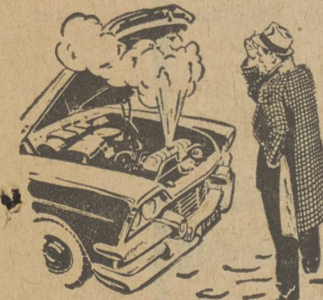

By refusing to protect your property with paint, by letting it weather and fade away, you are permitting your invested capital to disappear before your eyes.

Why not discuss your painting problems with us? Let us protect your investment.
