MARY ANN LASKOWSKI

F. T. A. Future Teachers of America Club held its meeting Friday. Plans were discussed for a Bake Sale to raise money to send our representatives to the State Convention at Cedar Cliff High School, Camp Hill.

We discussed trying to get an exchange student, and a student teacher to talk to the club at a future meeting. This is considered to be part of the program of PFTA. Student PSCA Newsletter was distributed to all members. This paper is published by all the college chapter and high school clubs and issued twice a year from Harrisburg. It tells of the different activities of various clubs. This helps individual clubs to get fresh ideas for their own program.

ILLNESS: We regret to announce that Miss Estelle O'Donnell will not return to teach this year. She has been granted a sabbatical leave.

Several students have taken time to visit her and find that she is progressing gradually toward full recovery.

Mr. Stanley Gulbish is also on the absentee list. He is presently at Geisinger Hospital, Danville, for observation and possibly surgery.

DISTRICT RESULTS
Fred Schultz received an overwhelming ovation from his teammates and Lake-Lehman fans when he won first place in the 95 pound weight class. Fred is a Junior and this gives him an opportunity to wrestle in the Regional Matches to be held next Saturday at Wilkes University.

Jack Donnelly 145 pounds and Pete Rittenhouse 165 pounds placed second in their weight classes. Jack children where there are no cafeterias or to mills who set a sale date in advance and allow this organization to come in and sell to their employees.

Candy bars are constantly available for sale for those who wish to participate from home.

Phone brigades for Bake Sales and other projects need new people to fill the vacancies created by graduating Senior parents. Roller skating parties need chaperones to ride the buses, which is a requirement that has to be met or the party can not be conducted.

The same people are serving over and over again, which makes it a burden to a few. Your support is needed.

JOANNE HADSALL
The eighth grade American history class presented a George Washington program in assembly of February 22. Judy Bergstrasser opened the program with the Bible reading. Ann Woolbert played the "Star Spangled Banner" and Jo Ann Norrie played "America the Beautiful." There were two readings, George Washington Today read by Reese Finn and Washington Quiz read by Sharon Phillips. A film strip on Mount Vernon was also shown which was narrated by Charles Higgs. Howard Dymond was master of ceremonies.

Also on February 22, the ninth grade girls journeyed to Westmoreland High School to see the fashions made by the senior high girls. Clothes to wear to school, work, dating, and a wedding gown were modelled. After the show, the girls were served punch and cookies also made by the hostesses. Miss Anna Chu, Mr. George McCutcheon, and Mrs. Gay chaperoned.

On Monday, February 20, the 9-4 girls played 9-1 girls in the championship basketball game. The 9-4 section won with a score of 20 to 6. Those playing for 9-4 were: Forwards: Beverly Eck, Rita Rice, Sharon Titus, Joanne Hadsall, Connie Condoras, Edythe Carey, Susie Kitchen, Georgia McCutcheon, Sheryl Stanley, and Charlyn Oatridge. Guards: Susie Cheney, Janice Priebe, Penny Farrar, Linda Woolbert, Kathy Maury, Andrea Krimmel, Susie Karl, Peggy Fleming, and Marsha Sowden. Those participating from section 9-1 were: Forwards: Jody Zachary, Shirley Yablonski, Cheryl Greenely, Patty Evans, Carol Pope, Dianne Yudiski, Lorraine Bednar, Judy Wright. Guards: Barbara Hopkins, Mary Franz, Pat Gordan, Helen Cummings, and Marjorie Waschek.

One of our teachers has contributed this poem which really does have a good point. Many of us should heed its advice.

The Indispensable Man
Sometime when you're feeling important
Sometime when your ego's in bloom
Sometime when you take it for granted
You're the best qualified in the room;
Sometime when you feel that you're going
Would leave an infillable hole,
Just follow these humble instructions
And see how they humble your soul.

Take a bucket and fill it with water
Put your hand in it up to the wrist.
Pull it out, and the hole that's remaining
Is a measure of how you'll be missed.
You can splash all you wish when you enter
You may stir up the water galore;
But stop, and you'll find that in no time
It looks quite the same as before.

The moral in this quaint example
Is do just the best that you can;
Be proud of yourself, but remember
There's no indispensable man.

The Junior High School magazine campaign ended Wednesday, February 22, and the result is one to be proud of. Having gone over the goal of $1,500, the student body is entitled to see a full-length movie. The high homeroom for the entire campaign was Room 41 with $228. Sharon Titus, the high salesman, sold subscriptions worth $102.20. Congratulations, Sharon, you did a good job.

After school classes in ninth grade algebra have commenced. Beverly Eck, John Farly, Joseph Ulinoski, and Tom Peirce are the student instructors.

Mr. Morgan, eighth grade mathematics teacher, has resumed his teaching duties after being in an automobile accident. Everyone is glad to see him back again and looking well.

Reese Finn and Harry Swepheiser have built a binary adding machine. It will be used in the mathematics classes.

Mr. Richards recently won the Gramercy Award in the Seventh Annual National Cash Show held in New York City. A cashin is an opaque water color painting. The show was held at the Riverside Museum on Riverside Drive. Everyone is very proud to have such a fine artist as one of the teachers in our school.

The basketball season of the Falcons has ended, with an impressive tally of six wins and two losses. The boys should really be congratulated for their hard work and fine representation of the Junior High School. The faculty and student body are proud of the team.

This Week AT THE COLLEGE

JEAN DRAPIEWSKI
Brush and easel in hand, the artist stands before a blank canvas. Gazing at his subject, he analyzes the task before him. By the stroke of his brush he must let others see the scene now visible to his eyes. The viewers of his painting may never see the subject that he paints. They are dependent on the artist's conception and must trust that what he pictures for them on canvas is the subject as it really is. If the objects are out of proportion, if his emphasis is placed on some unimportant detail, if his use of color is unlike the real, the viewer is given a wrong impression. The finished product is worthless, for it is a misrepresentation of reality.

As I write these weekly columns, I do not even pretend to be an artist. But as the artist takes brush in hand to paint a scene, I take pen in hand to paint the scene of Misericordia in words. My articles cannot possibly present a minute by minute, day by day account of each event in the lives of Misericordians. By my words, however, I hope to paint an accurate portrait of the outstanding qualities of a Misericordian and of the important events, curricular and extracurricular, that fill her life.

and John Duris who won over their opponents. Good luck in the tournament. We're all with you.

BAND BANQUET
All Band members and majorettes fully enjoyed the delicious turkey dinner which was given by the Band Association Saturday evening Feb. 25. Decorations were in the school colors of blue and white. Miniature drums were used as favors at each place setting. On behalf of the band, Celia Monka presented several nice gifts to Mr. Lester Lewis, band leader. Certificates for school letters were given to all sophomores and seniors. Entertainment was provided by a jazz band "The Midnighters" and everyone had a good time. We wish to thank everyone who made this party a success.

After Graduation Party
The halls are whispering with the excitement of the coming senior graduation. The seniors are eagerly looking forward to this trip which was made possible by discussions and planning of the Faculty and Parent Council Association. We'll tell you more when the time comes.

A COLLEGE HONOR
We hear that Grace Bachman, a Freshman at Penn State and a '60 graduate of Westmoreland, has made girls' varsity basketball team at the college. This is a well-earned honor for Grace as we all know what a fine job she did here. We are always glad to get news of our graduates.

WRESTLING
Our wrestling season is at a close and even though the fellows were not too successful for the season, they have worked hard and credit should be given to all. The match with Tunkhannock was the final match with a score of 38-11. Congratulations to Jon Schaffer, Kenny Thomas

CROWN VICTORY
Our championship basketball team is the winner of the North League and everyone has a right to be proud of the team and its coaches. It was an exciting season for all of us and a hard-earned victory. Congratulations, fellows, from all your classmates! We're with you all the way and hope you do as well in the playoffs.

The North League Crown was in the bag after the final game when we won over Fairview 81-44. The high men were Trevern, Gauntlett with 23 points each, and Wes Evans with 20 points.

After the game the team was entertained at Orchard Farm at a special Victory Party. A rousing welcome was given when it arrived to settle down to whatever they wanted to eat. A large victory cake was the center of attraction at the table.

UNDEFEATED
The girls' basketball team has done it again this year and closed the season undefeated. They worked hard and steady and proved that the girls' team is a fine match for the boys' basketball team. Marilyn Eck and Annabelle Ambrose were high scorers for the season. Congratulations to the entire team for a job well done. With both the girls and boys winning, our school had a perfect basketball season.
