March Is Membership Month For Back Mountain YMCA

March is YMCA month in the Back Mountain Area as a result of action taken at the February meeting of the Board of Management.

The Back Mountain YMCA must raise, through membership enrollment and program fees, approximately half of its needed income. The other 50% of anticipated income is allocated through the United Fund.

Many residents have already received invitations to become members of the Back Mountain YMCA. Follow-up phone and personal calls will be made by the members of the Board of Management. Any resident desiring to become a member may contact Robert A. Addison, Executive-Secretary at OR 4-3217.

Sustaining memberships in the Back Mountain YMCA are $10 (or more). Regular adult memberships are $5 and youth memberships are $3.

YMCA has recently initiated Teen-age Boys Basketball League and the 'Y' Indian Guide Program. The Basketball League has been conducted on Monday evenings at the Dallas Township Junior High School Gymnasium with approximately 30 high school boys taking part.

Three Indian Guide tribes are being organized and will hold regular semi-monthly meetings starting this evening. One tribe is located in the vicinity of Carverton, another in the Truicksville, Shavertown, Fernbrook area; and the third in Dallas.

A new activity—trampoline instruction—will be started next week.

Other action taken at the February Board meeting was assignment of committee members by Rev. Yost. Building Committee, William Cutten, chairman, Col. H. H. Butler, Merrill Paegenburg, Dr. L. E. Jordan and Rev. Yost; Membership, Robert Parry, chairman, Myron Baker, John Churry, George Jacobs and John Zerbe; Youth, John Zerbe, chairman, William Austin, Charles Beech, James Edwards and Rev. Yost; Physical Education, Charles Beech, chairman, William Austin, Malcolm Nelson and Robert Wade; Annual Meeting, Dr. Jordan, chairman, Myron Baker, Harry Carson, Merrill Paegenburg and Malcolm Nelson; World Service, Harry Carson, chairman, Col. H. H. Butler, George Jacobs, Rev. George Pickett and Robert Wade; Finance, Elmer Evenson, chairman, Myron Baker, William Cutten and Rev. Yost; Adult Program, Rev. Pickett, chairman, Clyde BIRTH, John Churry and L. W. LeGrand; and Nominating Committee, Elmer Evenson, chairman, L. W. LeGrand and Robert Parry.

Seymour Eveland, 73 Has Fatal Heart Attack

Seymour Eveland, Lake Silkworth Road, died of a heart attack Thursday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. Ross Morningstar, of Five Forks Church, Monday morning from the Bronson Funeral Home, with burial at Fern Knoll.

Mr. Eveland, 73, was visiting an old friend, Mrs. Mae Miller of Nanticoke, when he passed away, seated quietly in a rocking chair.

Twenty years ago he was blinded when rock fragments flew into his face as he leaned close to inspect what he thought was a faulty fuse while blasting a boulder on his farm.

He was a native of Exeter, son of the late Stephen and Elizabeth Reakes Eveland.

He is survived by an aunt, Mrs. Mary R. Rundie, Forty Fort, and several cousins.

Better School Forum To Hear Study Panel

Citizens Committee For Better Schools will hear a panel discussion moderated by Carl Goeringer Wednesday evening at 8:30 at the Dallas Borough School. Mr. Goeringer heads a study committee composed of Charles Mannear and William Wright.

Teachers and administrators will take part, discussing the school program for the sixty percent of high school students who do not choose a college preparatory course. Business, home-making, industrial arts, and agriculture will be considered.

Reports on the guidance study will be available.

Guest Speaker

REV. PAUL HOSIER

Rev. Paul Hosier, elected Free Methodist New York Conference superintendent in July, will be guest speaker at Dallas Free Methodist Church March 14 through March 19, speaking at 8 p. m. Friday night, March 17, will feature a special Youth program, to which the community is invited.

Rev. Hosier has been a minister in the New York Conference for twenty years, and has a radio program each Saturday evening over the Liberty, N. Y., station. He has spent several years as district superintendent, and also as pastor in the Windsor district.

Rev. Hosier and his family have recently moved into the newly completed district conference parsonage on 99 Davenport Street. Rev. Hosier, a native of White Haven, married Gladys Rusheck of Kingston. There are five children: Edwin, in the Marine Corps; Georgia, a junior in High School; Ruth, in the eighth grade; Myron in fifth; and Rebecca, pre-school age.

Mrs. Lizzie Bilby, 87, Is Borne To Rest

Mrs. Lizzie A. Bilby, Huntington Mills, was buried in Reyburn Cemetery Friday afternoon, Rev. Oscar Saxo officiating at services from the Bronson Funeral Home. Grandsons were her pallbearers.

Mrs. Bilby, 87, in failing health for the past year, died February 27, leaving 74 descendants.

Her husband Charles died last year, shortly after the couple had celebrated the sixtieth wedding anniversary. For fifty years they lived at Huntington Mills.

Much loved by young and old, the days of her funeral attracted throngs. "She was so sweet to everybody," it was the often repeated comment.

It was a close knit family. Mr. Bilby's death last year was a blow from which Mrs. Bilby did not recover.

She was born in Union Township, daughter of the late William S. and Esther Benscoter Fink. She attended Sweet Valley Academy, and taught
