By DORIS MALLIN

Lila Lozo, a member of Imperialettes League at Crown Imperial Lanes, was honored at Stanton Lanes last week for setting a new record high. She rolled highest sanctioned single game bowled there by a woman when she posted 267 and including 188 and 199 games, hit a 650 total. She rolled her series with Bridge Collision team in Stanton Girls' Major League and her high game and series are both new highs in that league. At present Lila averages 176 with the Stanton league.

Lila lives in Dallas and operates a beauty shop in her home. In addition to the Stanton and Crown Imperialettes, she can be seen often practicing at Crown Imperial with her husband, "Chiz", who bowls in at least two leagues out of Crown, and is well-known in the Back Mountain as an employee of Evans Drug Store. Congratulations, Lila!

Check all those ticket stubs you have been saving and see if you have a number 713855. You do! Go right out to Crown Imperial and claim the new Brunswick Black Beauty ball waiting for you.

Dallas B tried to stop Jackson A "steamroller." Three good games were rolled and just a few pins decided the outcome. Jackson, led by Ken Cooper, S. Fielding and T. DeMeo, made a clean sweep over Dallas, giving Jackson a more secure hold on first place with a 4 point lead.

Franklin led by Joe Perry's 205 (539) and Mitchell 202 (511) took 3 from Jackson B. Trucksville A finally took 4 from Dallas A, reasons being Thomas 208 and Gaylord 203.

(How are the friendly rivals, the two Lehman teams, doing in this league? I have several readers who are interested in these particular groups.)
