

Lehman Fire Auxiliary Plans To Remodel Hall

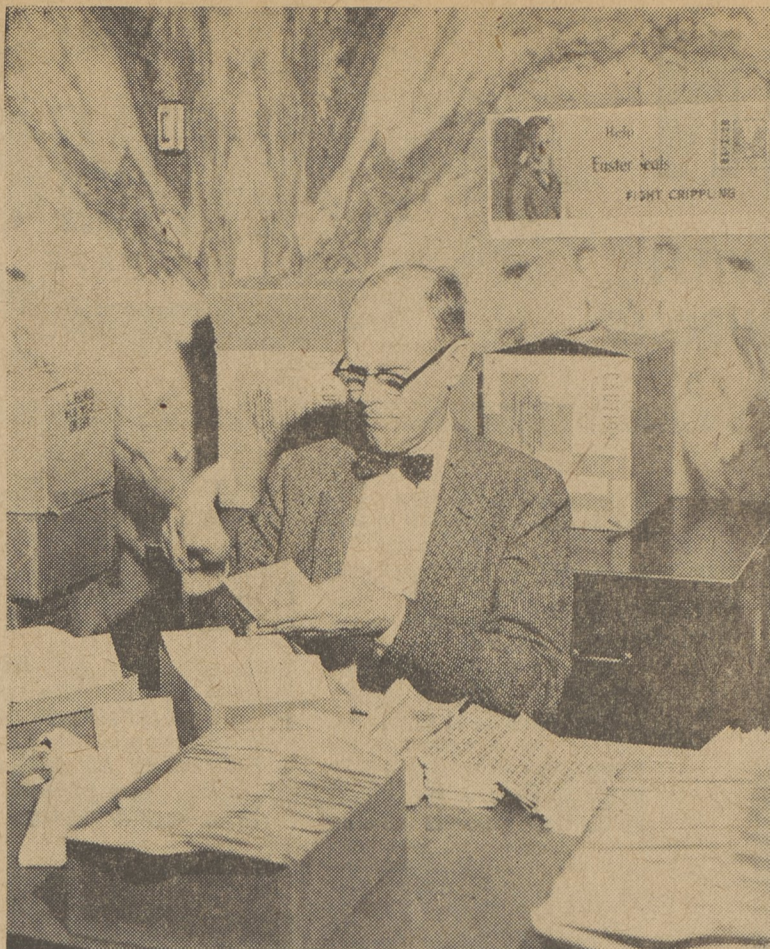

Auxiliary of Lehman Fire Company heard reports on remodeling of the kitchen and the old fire truck room at the meeting in the Fire Hall Monday night. Mrs. Garwin Tough, Mrs. Russell Ide, Mrs. Dorrence Mekeel, Mrs. Myron Baker and Mrs. Russell Coolbaugh are in charge.

E. V. Chadwick, Luzerne County Agricultural Agent, spoke on "Beautifying the Community" and urged property owners to beautify their own grounds.

Present were Mesdames Lester Squier, John Sidler, Clara Mekeel, Charles Ely, H. A. Brown, Alex Rebar, Russell Ide, Myron Baker, Ethel Johnson, Joseph Stolarick, Eston Adelman, Leonard Ide, Lewis Ide, Russell Coolbaugh; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ellsworth.

Since the advent of sulfa drugs, penicillin, streptomycin, other antibiotics, and the host of new drugs with greater chemical reactivity, there has been a marked increase in drug reactions.

Did You Get One Of His Letters?

During this past week 55,000 envelopes containing Easter Seals have gone out to residents of the greater Wyoming Valley area in an effort to raise $25,000 to continue services to our crippled children. The appeal is being made by the Wyoming Valley Crippled Children's Association with office and clinic rooms in the Kirby Memorial Health Center, North Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre.

John Henninger, Jr., Druid Hills Road, Shavertown, is one of the local supporters of the Easter Seal drive. During the past month Mr. Henninger has stuffed thousands of envelopes with Easter Seals. Mr. Henninger, deeply interested in the welfare of others, has done volunteer work with the Wyoming Valley Crippled Children's Association for the past three years; he also does volunteer work with the Back Mountain Y. M. C. A.

Shavertown Branch Goes On Record Opposed To Bill 340

Shavertown Branch Nesbitt Hospital Auxiliary says, write your congressman to vote NO on House Bill 340, which, if passed, would unionize nurses and hospital personnel in the State of Pennsylvania. Call Senator Harold E. Flack or write Representative Ferd Shupnik in Harrisburg. The bill is coming up immediately.

This important message was delivered at Friday's meeting of the Auxiliary. Mrs. Fred Eck presiding, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Jean Tobin, representative of Bell Telephone Company, and Mrs. Bonning, speaking for Commonwealth, were introduced by Mrs. Edward Gilroy. They spoke on courtesy over the telephone. Recordings of members' voices were made.

Mrs. Naomi Pauling reported that 60 "Pinky" puppets had been made this past month. Since the project was started seven years ago, 4,587 er has stuffed thousands of envelopes with Easter Seals. Mr. Henninger, deeply interested in the welfare of others, has done volunteer work with the Wyoming Valley Crippled Children's Association for the past three years; he also does volunteer work with the Back Mountain Y. M. C. A.

Back Mountain residents are urged to use Easter Seals on their mail during the month long drive and to support the appeal to help crippled children as generously as possible. Louis Purvin is drive chairman.

Northeastern Conference is scheduled for May 24 at Irem Temple, when Nesbitt Auxiliaries will be hostesses. Dr. Faux, chaplain of Presbyterian Hospital, Philadelphia, will speak on Spiritual Therapy.

Mrs. Eck reported that the Meditation Room on the third floor of the hospital, is nearly finished; that the Bridge Marathon is scheduled for June 9 at the Nurses Home; that the Shavertown branch will be responsible for visitation during April; and that the first Newsletter published by auxiliaries was well received.

Introduced was a new member, Mrs. A. S. James, and guests, Mrs.

Woychick Heads Toastmasters

John Woychick was installed as president of Back Mountain Toastmasters' Club at the annual meeting for members and their wives at the Town House in Kingston on Thursday night.

Other officers installed were: Jack Hogan, Dallas, educational vice president; William Morgan, Dallas, administrative vice president; Herbert Udyke, Trucksville, secretary and Frank Gildea, Dallas, treasurer.

Toastmaster of the evening was Frank Gildea with Donald Edwards, Shavertown, as topic master.

Herbert Udyke was the speaker choosing as his subject: "The History and Customs of Hawaii, Our Fiftieth State."

The entire evening was devoted to the Hawaiian theme. Wives were presented leis and flowers for their hair. The depressing part of the evening was the absence of the hula dancer who was delayed in another town and could not keep her engagement.

Hawaiian dinner music was provided by Donald Edwards, an expert on Hawaii, who furnished records.

Attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Donald Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wadas, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Udyke, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Jacquish, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laux, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hogan, Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan, William Evans, Gerald Dettmore, Frank Gildea, Mr. and Mrs. John Woychick.

Lake Women Hear Talk On Civil Defense

Harveys Lake Women's Service Club heard Nicholas Spuchek, Luzerne County administrator of Civil Defense, Thursday evening at Lake-Noxen school.

The regular board meeting was held recently at the home of Mildred Lutes. The next board meeting is scheduled for March 20 at the home of Mrs. John Zora, with Ruth Williams and Grace Searfoss assisting the hostesses.

Luzerne County meeting of Federation of Women's Clubs is set for April 13 at the Americal Legion Home in Wilkes-Barre.

The club dance will take place sometime during April. Proceeds will go to completion of the club pledge to General Hospital building fund.

On April 22, the club Bowling Team will go to Easton to compete in the tournament.

Archer Mohr and Mrs. Robert Hummel, Mrs. Leon Beisel reported all tickets for the April 21 card party distributed.

Sixty members and guests were present.

Alton Montross Better After Lung Operation

(Contributed)

Alton Montross, 78 Susquehanna Avenue, Tunkhannock, has been a patient in Wilson Hospital, Johnson City, N. Y., for the past fourteen days.

He underwent a serious lung surgery performed by Dr. Mark Williams, lung specialist and surgeon of Binghamton.

Mr. Montross has been employed by the Keystone State Shoe Company of Tunkhannock for the past fifteen and a half years. His wife, the former Gladys St. Clair, is employed in the Keystone office. They have a son, Dennis, eight years of age on March 24.

Mr. Montross will be recuperating at his home for several months. Friends and neighbors are welcome to call on him or remember him with cards. At this time he wishes to express his deep appreciation to friends for the many cards and gifts and especially to Tunkhannock Baptist Church for a beautiful arrangement of flowers and the visit by Pastor Steger and wife while he was a patient in the hospital.
