

Girl Scouts

Local Girl Scouts join 3 1/2 million girls and adults across the country in observing the 49th anniversary of the founding of Girl Scouts of the USA. We may well be proud of our Girl Scout "forty-niners" of 1961. The gold they discover is not in mines, but in the Promise and Laws of Girl Scouting, a code of ethics which is meaningful to girls of every creed, race, and national origin.

The spirit of adventure which inspired gold-seeking "forty-niners" is still very much alive in Girl Scouting today. The program offers girls an opportunity to explore fields from child care to space study, serve their communities and promote International Friendship.

Many former Scouts discovered their future vocations and advocations during their Scouting years and will attend the Senior Career Conference on Saturday, March 18 to tell our Senior Scouts about their memorable Girl Scout activities.

Other "forty-niners" in pigtails and pony tails, will join together at Juliette Low gatherings to pay tribute to Juliette Low's memory and thank their Founder by contributing to the World Friendship Fund. Girl Scouts observed Girl Scout Sunday March 12, and many Girl Scout Sunday by attending Church on March 12 and many services will be conducted by the Girl Scouts.

This is Girl Scout Week with Seven Service Days and every troop should make a special effort to show the community what they are doing.

Girl Scouts Observe National Week

In observance of Girl Scout Week, ninety girls representing three Brownies and three Girl Scout troops attended 9 o'clock mass at Gate of Heaven church Sunday morning.

In January, 1960, eighteen Girl Scouts were registered from the parish. Today there are 138 girls registered.

There is a dire need for leaders to care for future Scouts and Brownies. Anyone interested is asked to get in touch with any of these present leaders: Mrs. Albert Bolita or Mrs. Matthew Evans, Brownie Troop 154; Mrs. William Stewart or Mrs. Robert Bauman, Troop 218; Mrs. Rose Novroski or Mrs. Robert Eckerd, Troop 219.

Mrs. V. J. Makar, Girl Scout Troop 147; Mrs. A. Smith and Mrs. Edward Glosky, Troop 1; Mrs. John Kallton, Troop 232.

Sands Holstein Cow

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America has announced that Sandsdale Sovereign Lucky Maud 3688950 owned by Ralph M. Sands, Wyoming, produced 14,888 lbs. milk and 560 lbs. butterfat in 361 days on twice daily milking as a 7-year-old.

Girl Scout Troop 109 Gives Tea For Mothers

Girl Scout Troop 109 gave a tea for mothers February 25 in Dallas Methodist Church social rooms. Mrs. William Baker Jr., the leader, welcomed the guests.

Sixth and seventh grade girls handled the opening flag ceremony. Karen Tag, Shirley Brown and Pat Peiffer presented a play on the Juliette Low theme of World Friendship. Mrs. Bottoms led in singing of "Oh Beautiful Banner."

Fifth grade girls, led by Mrs. Brown, received second class badges. First class badges went to seventh grade girls.

Proficiency badges went to Peggy Reese, for drawing and painting; Carol Mohr, troop dramatics and candy; Miriam Mohr, housekeeper; Myra Berti, skating.

Cook badges went to Miriam Mohr, Myra Berti, Kerry Roberts, Pamela Baker, Carol Calkins, Gail Doughton, and Karen Tag. Miriam Mohr took a Dabbler badge; Pamela Baker, adventure.

Tree and flower badges went to Miriam Mohr, Pamela Baker, Myra Berti, Carol Calkins, Christine Gross, Donna Long, Valerie Mallin, Candy and Carol Mohr, Karen Tag, Susan Moore, Kerry Roberts, Linda Williams, Gail Doughton, and Linda Farrar.

Refreshments were served, and the international pledge and taps concluded the program.

Sunday March 12 the Troop attended Dallas Methodist Church in observance of Girl Scout week.

Veteran Railroad Man Lies At Maple Grove

Veteran railroad man for 55 years, and Lehigh Valley station agent at Luzerne for 28 years, William H. Post, Sr., Forty Fort, died March 2 at Nesbitt Hospital. He was buried in Maple Grove cemetery, following services conducted by Rev. Emund Johns from the Wyoming Avenue Christian Church.

Mr. Post, 79, was a native of Sweet Valley, son of the late Daniel R. and Almira Evans Post. He spent the greater part of his life in Forty Fort.

He and his wife, the former Ida M. Hoover of Harveys Lake, observed their 57th wedding anniversary June 26, 1960.

His daughter Lois writes: "Dad learned railroading at the old Dallas station fifty-seven years ago. He was a subscriber to the Dallas Post and kept in touch with his old friends and acquaintances out this way. His friends will expect to see a note of his death in the 'Dallas Post.'"

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two sons: Charles W. of Kingston; and William H. Jr., Mount Pocono; two daughters: Mrs. Leslie S. Lewis, Sweet Valley; and Lois, Forty Fort; a sister, Mrs. Eliza Whitesell, Sweet Valley; seven grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren.

TROOP 200 NEWS

Girl Scout Troop 200, meeting February 22 and March 1 at Dallas Methodist Church, planned to make Easter favors and attend, March 25, a movie called The Windjammers.

Blueberries Patrol put on two skits, one built around the song "Daisy" and acted out by Peggy Good and Cynthia Konsavage; the other acted by Betty Lamoreaux, Nancy Gensel, Sandra Turner, Pat Bahwan, Betty Rome, and Michelle Davis. The February 22 meeting ended with refreshments.

Green Gals Patrol is planning a surprise for the Blueberries Patrol for Girl Scout week. Mrs. Jack Barnes, leader, presented badges to some of the Girl Scouts March 1, and Mary Daley brought home-baked cookies.

Nancy Davis is scribe.

Back From Mediterranean

Norfolk (RHINO)—Lawrence S. Jones, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence S. Jones of Main Street, Shavertown, returned to Norfolk, Virginia, February 21, aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Intrepid following a six-month cruise of the Mediterranean.

The intrepid traveled over 40,000 nautical miles during 185 days at sea, and visited France, Greece, Italy, Lebanon and Turkey.

It takes tact to make a point without making an enemy at the same time.

Orpheus Concert Aide

LILLIAN WEIDNER

Mrs. Lillian Weidner is in charge of stage decorations for the Orpheus concert at Irem Temple, March 21. Mrs. Weidner is an active member of the Mozart Club and Wyoming Valley Art League. Soprano soloist at Shavertown Methodist Church, she serves on the board of directors and the costume committee of Orpheus.

Guest artist will be Miss Mary McMurray of Columbia Artists, New York. This young singer, with a phenomenal range, has sung such widely varied roles as Rosina in "The Barber of Seville," an authentic coloratura role, and the contralto role in Samuel Barber's "Prayers of Kierkegaard." An extraordinary natural voice has been coupled with prolonged and dedicated study.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the chorus.

Opens Stone Yard

Fred Whipple, Highland Drive, New Goss Manor has recently opened one of the largest and most complete stone yards in this part of the state. It is located on the Luzerne-Dallas Highway.

Mr. Whipple is also general manager for the Perma Products Corporation of Laceyville, Luzerne and the Crossville, Tennessee branch, manufacturers of the well-known Silvara quarried stone with its unique nail-on application. They are suppliers for many large contracting firms including Levitt & Son of Levittown, Pa. and Burlington N. J.

Mr. Whipple has been in the lumber and contracting business for many years and resides with his wife the former Ruth Martin in New Goss Manor. They have one son, a manager for W. T. Grant Company, Haverford, Pa.

Adult Student Dinner

Adults in the evening courses offered by Dallas Schools will enjoy a baked ham dinner and Open House at Dallas Junior High School early in May.

Arthur E. Marth, 48, Dies Of Heart Attack

Funeral services for Arthur E. Marth, Trucksville, were conducted Monday morning by Rev. Frederic H. Eidam, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church of which he was a member. Burial was at Hanover Green.

Mr. Marth, 48, died Thursday morning at his home on Carverton Road, suffering a fatal heart attack.

Born in Wilkes-Barre, Mr. Marth was a son of the late Frank F. and Minnie Staje Marth. He moved to Trucksville eight years ago. He was employed as a transmitter chief for WNEP-TV, Channel 16, the last eight years. He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown, and the Trucksville Fire Company. During World War 2, he served as a first lieutenant in the U. S. Army Signal Corps.

Surviving are his wife, the former Eileen Boyce; a son, Donald E., at home; several uncles and cousins.

Serve Your City Club Plans Antiques Show

Serve Your City Club of Wilkes-Barre will sponsor its fifth annual Antiques Show and sale on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 21 and 22 at the Carousel Restaurant.

Seventeen booths will be occupied by registered antique dealers who will offer a wide selection of jewelry, glassware, china, lamps, and occasional pieces of furniture. Imported antiques will also be featured.

Louise Malkames is Chairman and Mrs. Lillian Howell, co-chairman. A large committee is helping with the project.

Show hours are to be from 11 A.M. to 10 P.M. daily. Proceeds from the show will be used to carry on the charitable work of the Club.

Amos Hoover To Be Buried Saturday

Funeral services for Amos Hoover will be conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 from the Bronson Funeral Home in Sweet Valley, with burial in Kocher Cemetery. Rev. John Gordon, pastor of Ruggles Methodist Church of which Mr. Hoover was a member, will be assisted by Rev. Edgar J. Singer of Forty-Fort, his nephew.

Mr. Hoover, 75, and in ill health for the past year, died Tuesday afternoon at his home in Ruggles. In the morning he had felt well enough to help with the barn work. He was a native and lifelong resident of that community, son of the late James and Mary Singer Hoover. He operated a dairy farm, assisted by his brother Edgar who made his home with him.

Fifty years ago he was cornetist in the old Ruggles Band, which made a name for itself not only locally, but in other communities. It was directed by George Renard.

Mr. Hoover leaves his brother Edgar; two sisters, Mrs. Jennie Gray, of Harveys Lake, and Mrs. Alice Crispell of Newark Valley, N. Y.

Mrs. Amanda Brink Has Fatal Stroke

Mrs. Amanda Brink, 61, resident of Sweet Valley for the past three years, suffered a stroke Friday night, and was pronounced dead upon admission to Berwick Hospital, where she had previously been a patient.

She was buried in Bloomingdale cemetery Wednesday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. William Price, pastor of Huntington Mills Methodist Church, from the Bronson Funeral Home.

Mrs. Brink was born at Harveys Lake, daughter of the late Grant and Nora Hoover MacNeel.

She is survived by her husband John; three children: Mrs. Alma Haley, of Cambria; John Jr., Pateron, N. J.; Lloyd, Coventry, Conn.; Glenn, at home; twelve grandchildren, one great-grandchild; two brothers, a sister, Jean Carroll, of Shavertown.

Home-Makers Holiday To Invite Friends

Back Mountain Home-Makers Holiday will wind up its winter session next Tuesday morning, 10 to 12, at Shavertown YMCA building and Shavertown Methodist Church House, where the eight-weeks course has been held.

It is visiting day, and members who have made spring hats are especially encouraged to invite their friends to see their creations.

Mrs. George Thomas will continue to teach this fascinating course during the spring term of eight lessons, which will start April 4, two days after Easter. Registration is March 21.
