Suggestions For Leisurely Trips About Area

Winter isn't always the best time for a tour of Pennsylvania, but any break in the weather affords an opportunity to visit some interesting points of interest close to home.

Here are a few within easy motoring distance from Dallas.

BRADFORD COUNTY MUSEUM—located just behind the Court House in Towanda and open from 9:30 a. m. until 5:00 p. m. most summer days, is as fascinating a place to spend several hours as we can recommend. Filled with Indian relics, records, and historical lore from French Azilum, you will wonder at the collection; have countless questions to ask the curator.

LAPORTE - HAGERMAN HOUSE AT FRENCH AZILUM—turn off Route 6 at Wysox or Rummerfield and follow the signs.

WELLES LOG HOUSE—turn off Route 6 just south of Wyalusing and cross the river bridge. At the end of the bridge you will make a sharp right turn and travel a little over two miles up the river.

HOMET MILL—while you are at the Hagerman House, make up your mind to see the old mill and the mill stone at Homet's Ferry. Only the foundation of the mill still stands, but your children will like to see the place where the deserter drowned. Just follow the road from French Azilum down along the river to reach the old mill.

FRENCH AZILUM CHURCH—stop along the road between the Laporte-Hagerman House and the old Homet Mill, to see this beautiful old church.

STANDING STONE—if you turned from Route 6 at Rummerfield, you should have seen the sign "Standing Stone" along the railroad tracks. Your family will be interested in the story about how the stone was a courting place for the young French. On warm summer evenings and long Sunday afternoons, it was the custom for a young man to row his sweetheart up to the stone for a picnic.

STANDING STONE UNIVERSALIST CHURCH—just past the spot where you stopped to see the standing stone, is the Universalist Church, built in 1827. It is an exceptional example of early architecture and is almost always unlocked.

FIRST UNIVERSALIST CHURCH SHESHEQUIN—on another day, you and your family may want to head north from Towanda. Cross the river at Ulster. (you took Route 220 north from Towanda) and then turn left after you have crossed the bridge. TIOPA POINT—a little way past the Sheshequin church, you will come to a lookout, where you can see Tioga Point, meeting place of the Susquehanna and Chemung Rivers. This was a gathering place of the Indians many years ago and is reportedly an excellent fishing place at the present time.

TIOPA POINT MUSEUM AND SPAULDING MEMORIAL LIBRARY—is right on the main street in Athens. You will come into Athens by crossing the river bridge about eight miles north of Ulster. Its fine exhibits concern the early days of the area. You will want to spend several hours at this Museum.

ATHENS ACADEMY—on the same street with the Tioga Point Museum is the Athens Academy where Stephen Collins Foster, famed composer, once attended school.

SPANISH HILL—while you are at the museum, ask about Spanish Hill and its history as a battle between Spanish explorers and Indians.

WORLD'S END STATE PARK—about 60 miles from Tunkhannock and 40 from Towanda using Routes 220 or 87 and then following your map. This will take you into Sullivan County and makes a grand day trip. Beautiful scenery.

RICKETTS GLEN STATE PARK—use Routes 220 and 487 from Towanda and Routes 309 and 115 from Tunkhannock. Between 50 and 60 miles from most starting places in the VACATIONER area. The beautiful glen is the attraction and it will take you several hours to walk through it and enjoy the natural beauties. This trip will take about a day if you really enjoy scenery. Please drive carefully.

LAMB'S LOOKOUT STATE PARK—near Canton, stay on Route 6 north and west of Towanda, turn on Route 14 at Troy then look for signs. On your return trip take Route 414 to Monroeton and Towanda, it is a beautiful drive along a beautiful little stream.

CORNING GLASS CENTER—one of the finest exhibits in the world, includes both the making of glass and the museum of glass. Take Route 220 and 17 north from Towanda—about 55 miles.

GRAND CANYON OF PENNSYLVANIA—another day trip you are sure to enjoy is a visit to the Grand Canyon, near Wellsboro. Just stay on Route 6 north and west of Towanda, about 53 miles. Two state parks on either side of the canyon provide breathtaking views.

JUST FOR A NICE DRIVE—leave Route 6 at Tunkhannock on Route 29, Meshoppen on Route 267 or Wyalusing on Route 11 and then follow one of the other two routes back to Route 6.
