Grandmother Of Triplets Dies Of Complications

Mrs. Lillie E. Belles, 75, of Harris Hill Road, died early Wednesday morning at Nesbitt Hospital, where she had been admitted seven weeks earlier as a medical patient.

Rev. Robert Germond, pastor of Trucksville Methodist Church of which Mrs. Belles was a member, was assisted by Rev. Grove Armstrong in conducting services from the Williams Funeral Home on Friday. Burial was at Chapel Lawn.

pallbearers were Donald and Robert Belles, John Griffith, Richard Monroe, Richard Griffith, and Harold Smith.

Mrs. Belles had been in failing health for some time, suffering from arthritis and complications. The triplets, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Hadsall with whom she made her home, talked to her on Sunday, so that she could wish them a happy birthday.

As a child and young married woman, Mrs. Belles lived in Noxen, moving there when a small child from Dallas Township. Her parents were the late Nathan and Elizabeth Belles Monroe. All her children were born at Noxen. Before moving to Trucksville twenty years ago, she had lived in Courtdale for ten years.

Outlet Free Methodist Parsonage Is Ready For Occupancy Monday

Outlet Free Methodist parsonage is completed, and Rev. and Mrs. Emery Stokes and their family expect to move into it on Monday.

The parsonage, situated directly across the road from the church, was built on faith, starting three years ago with a building fund of $60.

The seven room white stucco structure is a monument to the faith that moves mountains. The rambling-style home lists in the $20,000 bracket. When the weather moderates and the plot is more attractively landscaped, dedication ceremonies will be held.

The move saves Rev. Stokes a seven-mile drive each way. He has been living in the George Bond house on Ceasestown Road, across the fence from the Correctional Institution grounds.

Rev. Stokes and his wife, the former Belba Finch, have three children: Joyce, an office employee of Commonwealth Telephone Company; David, in the automotive field; and Nancy, 13, a student at Lehman. The Stokes family moved to this area three years ago.
