Elmore Turrell, Lumberman, Dies

Funeral Services Held Monday In Allentown

Stricken with a heart attack Wednesday evening after he and his wife had returned to their home in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, from attending a theatre in Palm Beach, J. Elmore Turrell, 78, longtime summer resident of Noxen, died the following morning in a Fort Lauderdale Hospital.

Mr. Turrell was the father of Robert Turrell owner of Shavertown Lumber Company. He was a family figure in Wyoming Valley and the Back Mountain Area where during his young manhood he was associated with the Trexler & Turrell Lumber Company at Noxen as general manager.

Born May 3, 1883 at Sugar Run, Bradford County, he was the son of Rowena Horton Turrell and James Henry Turrell, pioneer lumberman, whose interests extended throughout the South Mountain and Bowman's Creek areas.

Mr. Turrell was married October 10, 1910 to the former Anna Rebecca Henninger of Allentown, a niece of Mrs. G. K. Mosser, whose husband was of the second generation to own and operate the J. K. Mosser tannery at Noxen.

Throughout his lifetime, Mr. Turrell maintained a deep affection for the Bowman's Creek country and after moving to Wilkes-Barre, a number of years ago continued to maintain the homestead nestled on the hillside above where the thriving Trexler & Turrell Lumber Yards, company store and blacksmith's shops once stood.

He was a member and official of St. Luke's Lutheran Church of Noxen and was a trustee of Pennsylvania Military College, Chester, from which he graduated and to which he gave a dormitory.

He was a member of Westmoreland Club of Wilkes-Barre and of all Masonic bodies.

Funeral services, held Monday afternoon in Allentown with Rev. Wesley Kimm officiating, were attended by many of his former friends from Noxen and Wyoming Valley. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery, Allentown. Pallbearers were six cadets from Pennsylvania Military College.

Beside his wife, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Mary Louise Hunsinger, Zionsville; sons, James H., owner of Turrell Motor Company, Tunkhannock; Robert M. Tunkhannock, owner Shavertown Lumber Co.; sister Anna E., Wilkes-Barre, and nine grandchildren.

Mrs. Catherine Phipps Suffers Fatal Stroke

Mrs. Catherine Phipps, 66, suffered a stroke shortly after 9:30 p.m. Monday evening while watching television in the living room of her home on Main Road, Dallas, and died without regaining consciousness Tuesday morning at 3, in Nesbitt Hospital.

Services are scheduled tomorrow at 2 from the Bronson Funeral Home, Rev. Robert D. Yost officiating. Burial will be in Warden Cemetery. Friends may call this evening.

Mrs. Phipps had suffered no ill health or warning symptoms, and was apparently in abounding good health, enthusiastic about the lessons in Braille that she was taking at the YWCA Tuesday morning classes, enjoying her house plants and her domestic duties. Last year she had a completely successful cataract operation, an experience which sharpened her desire to do something for the blind.

She belonged to Shavertown Methodist Church and the Berean Bible Class, of which she had been teacher and president at one time. She was a member of Dallas Chapter OES and of Calvary White Shrine, Wilkes-Barre.

A native of Stull, where she lived until ten years old, she was the daughter of the late Thomas J. and Minnie R. Rose Swainbank. Before moving to Dallas fourteen years ago, she had lived in Forty Fort and Annapolis.

She is survived by her husband Robert R.; three children: Robert, Jr., Wilmington, Delaware; Mrs. Marjorie Shewan, Sudbury, Mass.; Thomas C., Mount Joy; four grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Sarah Farmer, Scranton; five brothers; Charles, West Pittston; Theodore, Dallas; Thomas, Kingston; Walter, Perth Amboy, N. J.; Emerson, Little Falls, N. Y.

Funeral Friday For Harold L. Holmes

Harold Lewis Holmes, 55, Mt. Zion, who died at General Hospital late Tuesday afternoon, will be buried tomorrow in Mt. Zion Cemetery, following services conducted at 2 p. m. from the home by Rev. William W. Reid, pastor of the Carverton Methodist Church.

Mr. Holmes was a native of Mt. Zion, returning to the area after living in West Pittston for seventeen years. He was educated in Mt. Zion schools, and was a member of Mt. Zion Methodist Church. He was a retired mine worker.

Survivors are: his mother, Mrs. Lena Holmes, Mt. Zion; two daughters: Mrs. Lois LaPorte, West Pittston; and Mrs. Doris Gariston, Pittston; three sons: Richard, Mt. Zion; Donald L., West Pittston; and Jack, with the Army in Korea. Friends may call tonight.

Girl Scout Troop 152 Celebrates Birthday

The Girl Scouts of troop 152, Trucksville, held a tea recently, to celebrate their third birthday. After a flag ceremony, Charlyn Oatridge and Jeri Jordan read the history of the troop. A court of awards was held and each girl received badges due her.

Attending the tea were: Phyllis Petts, neighborhood chairman, Mrs. Thomas Conaghan, Mrs. Frank Oatridge, Mrs. Richard Hall, Mrs. John Lester Jordan, Mr. Paul Smail, Mr. Harold Jeffery, Leader Mrs. Harold Jeffery, Asst. Mrs. Paul Smail.

The badges received were: Judy Burns first-aid, second class, Colleen Conaghan first aid, journalist, Roseann Hall first-aid, second class, Cathy Martin first-aid, child care, Charlyn Oatridge first-aid, Doty Philo first-aid, poultry raiser, Jeri Jordan first-aid, Carol Jeffery first-aid, dressmaking, home gardener, Lorraine Smail first-aid, good groom and cat and dog.

On March 4th, the troop went on a Heritage Hike. They visited Queen Esther's Rock, Wyoming Monument, then had an interesting tour through the Wyoming Valley Historical Institute in Wilkes-Barre, the subject being Early American.

After enjoying lunch in the Pennsylvania Room of the Boston Store, they returned home.

On Sunday March 12th, the troop attended church in honor of Girl Scout Week.

Troop 200 Committee Meets With Mrs. Bauman

Troop Committee of Girl Scout Troop 200 met recently at the home of Mrs. George Bauman, New Goss Manor. Plans for future activities of the Troop were discussed. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Jack Barnes, Troop Leader, Mrs. H. W. Rood, Mrs. Dolly Dierolf, Mrs. Oliver Rome, Mrs. John G. Konaavage and the hostess.

All members of the Troop will join other Girl Scouts of the area and attend a special showing of the picture "Windjammer" at Scranton this Saturday. Several busses will transport the scouts to Scranton, leaving from the Bank in Dallas.

Plans for a Father and Daughter dinner to be held April 15 at the Dallas Methodist Church were discussed.

On May 21st a Mother and Daughter Tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Jack Barnes, Elmcrest Drive.

Troop 200 is engaged in making favors and Easter novelties to be used on the trays of patients in the local hospitals over the holiday.
