Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Webb To Celebrate 59th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Webb, Orange, will celebrate their fifty-ninth wedding anniversary with a family dinner at the home of their only daughter, Mrs. Hugh Gebhart, and son-in-law, in Orange, on Easter Day.

Mrs. Webb is the former Daisy Ryman, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Scott Ryman of Noxen. Mr. Webb is son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Webb of Vernon. The couple was married in the parsonage of Centermoreland Church, April 2, 1902, by the Rev. James and held a family dinner and reception at the home of the bridegroom's brother, Howard, afterwards.

The Webbs started housekeeping in Wyoming where Mr. Webb was foreman at the Wyoming Shovel Works. About fourteen years ago when the Gebharts moved to Orange, Mother and Dad Webb bought the house right next door where they still live, manage a well organized household of their own, and help the Gebharts when they get snowed under.

Besides Mrs. Gebhart, they have one granddaughter, Daisette, now Mrs. Allen Jones of Red Bank.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Webb are members of Wyoming Methodist Church. Mrs. Webb is active in the Eastern Star. Mr. Webb is a staunch Mason. They are in fairly good health, enjoy their home and yard, and love the outdoors.

Happy anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Webb! Your friends in the Back Mountain Area send their love and hope you'll have many more years of happiness together!
