THE LORD IS RISEN

Like bells of hope—clear, resonant, harmonious—the song of the risen Christ rings over land and sea. The heart of the world kneels once again before the moving story of the Resurrection.

Easter is the one day whose sunrise is awaited by untold millions. Indeed there are those for whom it is their only excursion into the spiritual world. The history of the modern world began when angels in shimmering white announced: "He is not here; He is risen!"

Easter brings the assurance that spires outlast spears; that altars are more enduring than armaments; that history belongs to God.

Yet the thrill of Easter comes not once a year; every Sunday is an Easter, a day of triumphant remembrance of the comradeship of the risen Christ is not an annual experience; it is a constant possession if you will. Each Sunday millions renew their Easter experience and go forth in new power, with an abiding peace in their hearts and a clearer vision of the eternal and abiding.

Multitudes find in going to church a glorious window into the immensities, saving life from pettiness. The daily round becomes a walk with God.

Let us go to Church on Easter—and every Sunday—to meet the risen Christ, and to carry His peace in our hearts always! Let us keep the Easter faith throughout the year!
