Mt. Zion

Dorothy Gilbert spent Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday of Holy Week at her home in Mt. Zion before returning to Philadelphia where she is doing some studies in T. B. nursing.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weatherly have returned to Happy Hill on the Carverton-Mt. Zion Road after spending some time with their daughter in New Jersey and their son near Pittsburgh.

A new Easter hymn composed by the Rev. William Reid, Jr., was used in the churches of the Carverton Charge on Easter Sunday. It was sung to the tune of "Come Thou Almighty King".

Thursday night the junior and senior choirs of Zion church held a party in honor of Mrs. Kenneth Jenkins of Carverton. Mrs. Jenkins has been playing the organ at Mt. Zion but is about to move to New Jersey.

These attending the festivities were: Mrs. Michael Hornich, Mrs. Sherwood Krum, Miss Mildred Lloyd, Mrs. Brainerd Daniels, Mrs. Harold Seiple, Miss Catherine Gilbert, Mr. Cornelius Hastie, Mr. Roy J. Thomas, Mrs. Kenneth Jenkins, the guest of honor. Also the junior choir members Sharon LaBar, Susan LaBar, Nancy Alling, Dolly Rarry, Donald Parry, Hal Seiple, Jackie VanTuyle, Dawn Schaeffer and Linda Schaeffer.

Mrs. Robert Harris and children were Sunday visitors at her parents in Mt. Zion, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mullison. The Harris' live in Hammondsport, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard K. Reinhardt of Palmyra were visitors at the home of their daughter, Mrs. William Alling, Sunday.

Betsy Alling is laid up with a broken ankle suffered while alighting from the school bus. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Alling.

Nattie Parrish, Wilkes-Barre, was a visitor at her sister's, Mrs. Edward Miles, Sunday.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Swan united with the Mt. Zion church by letter of transfer from Trucksville Methodist church.

Pvt. Theodore Kintz was home for a visit Sunday. He is stationed at Fort Dix.

On Saturday Fifth grade pupils of Exeter Township Elementary School made a pilgrimage to Wyoming Historical Society Museum and Osterhout Library. Then the class made a tour of the Boston Store and had fun riding the escalators! After all had dinner at Percy Brown's they were invited to take a tour of the famous Percy-Brown kitchens. The Kings Crusaders Class of Mt. Zion church is planning a covered dish supper for the Crusaders and their families on April 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parrish of Montrose were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miles.

Meeker

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Dunham and son, Jack, Lake Seneca, New Jersey, spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Orville Dunham.

Anyone who was in any way connected with the production of "Rumpelstiltskin," the 1st — 3rd grade operetta held at Lehman School Friday night, can be proud of a job well done. Everyone enjoyed it very much.

Mr. and Mrs. George Warmouth spent the weekend at Lake Hapatcong, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leonard and daughter, Michele Ann, Philadelphia, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Leonard, Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rogowski and family, Pikes-Creek. Mrs. Annie Winter, Mrs. Esther Alles and Debra, Conrad, Jean, Fred, and David Winter also visited with the Rogowski's and Leonard's Sunday afternoon.

Birthday wishes go out this week to Mrs. Pauline Slocum and Martin Sites, Laurytown.

Grange meeting held at Muhlenburg on Thursday night was well attended. Boyd Bonham, master of Muhlenburg Grange, introduced the speaker, Collin McSperron, who spoke on the work of the Grange. Mrs. McSperron spoke on the fraternal side of the Grange. Following the meeting refreshments were served. Those attending from Lehman: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Searfoss, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ide, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winter and visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hoover. Jerry Shilanski, student at Wilkes College, spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Glendoris Shilanski.

Mrs. Minnie Hoover spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. Loretta Pascoe, Somerville, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Varner, Jr., Plymouth, announce the birth of a daughter April 10 in General Hospital. Mrs. Varner is the former Iris Koskowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Koskowski, Plymouth, formerly of Sweet Valley. Nice birthday present for paternal grandmother, Mrs. Sue Varner.

Whoever wrote "Spring Will be a Little Late This Year," sure knew what he was talking about.

Lehman

It has been another dreary week, weather-wise, but the crocus and daffodils know it's time spring has sprung even though the weatherman keeps predicting snow showers. The peepers are noisily here again although at times our little one completely drowns them out. In another couple of months, we'll be wishing for some relief from the hot weather.

Several Lehmanites attended the Spring Festival of Music at Forty-Foot Methodist Church on Easter Sunday afternoon. They included Mr. and Mrs. Garwin Tough and Mrs.

Kay Kalafsky Posts 515

Kay Kalafsky was right in there "spilling the pins" Thursday for Lutheran Women's League. Kay rolled 515 series on games of 154-178-183. Camellias won all team honors with 744-2200 and leads league with 31 points.

Libby Cyphers had 485 series including 177-166 games and Doris Berlew posted 173 (467). A Whiting went on record with 173 (450); L. Hopkins 170; D. Kaye 169; E. Gosart 160 and M. Gosart 154. Left out of last week's scoring was J. Inman with 198.

Rachel Crispell Has 504 Lacettes Setting Records

Rachel Crispell took over honors in Natona Girls League with 202-158 (504) for Tricottettes beating Eleanor Moyer's series of 180-156-167 (503) by 1 pin. Grace Fielding 168-155 (448) joined Elcetero to help Lacettes take another 4 points giving the seemingly unbeatable team an excellent record of 44 wins and no losses. Lacettes had 1665 total pins and Tricottettes had single of 565. (League is made up of four-man teams).

Other high games were rolled by N. Smith 157; P. Klug 153-163; and D. Casterline 177.

DeGoisa Holds Records

Tony DeGoisa holds top records in Teenage League with single game of 234; 581 series and 166 average. Chip Landis has 164.

White Sox leads league with 30 points; McCoys and Lawmen are tied with 27 each and Untouchables has 26 1/2.

B. Allen led scoring Saturday with 175-175-168 (518) for Lawmen and E. Lamereau had 141-150. J. Fielding had 170 for Red Sox which posted 1391 total pins. B. Thomas hit 152 for Fighters and T. Teetsel 145 for Untouchables.

Last week's winner of passes were Donna Parrish and Timmy Evans.

Workshop In Finance

A summer workshop in family finance will be given at Pennsylvania State University according to Dr. James H. Moyer, acting coordinator of the workshop. The course, limited to educators, will run from June 15 to July 6.

Through an arrangement with the National Committee for Education in Family Finance, qualified teachers and administrators will receive scholarships covering room and tuition. The participants pay board, approximately $40.00. A descriptive brochure and application form may be obtained by writing Dr. Moyer at the University.

The deadline for School News in The Dallas Post is Monday at noon.
